ROLL TIDE ROLL

PREVIEWING THE 2019 ALABAMA CRIMSON TIDE

The Alabama Crimson Tide returns 17 starters and 43 lettermen for the 2019 season. On offense 19 letterwinners and seven starters return while the defense will have 19 lettermen and another seven starters back on the field, with five starting specialists returning, as well.

On offense, the Crimson Tide return consensus All-America quarterback Tua Tagovailoa who shattered school passing records with 3,966 yards and 43 touchdowns on his way to winning the Maxwell Award and Walter Camp Player of the Year honors as a sophomore. Tagovailoa is surrounded by one of the deepest and most talented receiving corps in the nation as Biletnikoff Award winner Jerry Jeudy returns along with fellow juniors Henry Ruggs III and DeVonta Smith to go with sophomore Jaylen Waddle. The dynamic group combined to catch 201 passes for 3,597 yards and 38 touchdowns a season ago. The offensive line features three returning starters from last season's unit that was a Joe Moore Award finalist. The offensive front is anchored by tackles Alex Leatherwood, who is making the move back to the left side after starting at right guard in 2018, and right tackle Jedrick Wills Jr. Deonte Brown returns at guard while former starting right tackle Matt Womack makes the move inside after battling injuries in 2018. Juniors Najee Harris and Brian Robinson Jr. step to the forefront at running back after the departure of Damien Harris and Josh Jacobs to the NFL. Najee Harris averaged a team-high 6.7 yards per carry on 117 touches a season ago with four touchdowns while Robinson added 272 yards. At tight end, redshirt junior Miller Forristall will replace the departed Hale Hentges and Irv Smith Jr. with converted outside linebacker Cameron Latu a redshirt freshman and junior Major Tennison bolstering the unit.

The defense returns four starters in the backfield led by cornerback senior Trevon Diggs and junior safety Xavier McKinney along with senior STAR Shyheim Carter and sophomore corner Patrick Surtain II. McKinney was third on the team in tackles a season ago with 73 stops, including six tackles for loss, to go with two interceptions and 10 pass breakups. Diggs, who suffered a season-ending foot injury mid-year, added 20 tackles, an interceptions and six breakups while Carter had 44 tackles, two picks and 10 more pass breakups. Junior Dylan Moses, a 2018 Butkus Award finalist, anchors the middle linebackers after leading the team with 86 tackles, including 10 tackles for loss, plus a forced fumble, while redshirt senior Anfernee Jennings returns on the outside with 23 career starts, 111 tackles and 22 tackles for loss. The front welcomes back two-year starting defensive end Raekwon Davis, who elected to return for his senior season. The hulking lineman boasts 19 career starts and 11 sacks while recording 19 tackles for loss. Junior LaBryan Ray and redshirt sophomore Phidarian Mathis are back to fill out the starting front along with a talented group of newcomers.

Alabama welcomes back a bevy of specialists in 2019 with junior Thomas Fletcher beginning his third season as the Tide's starting long snapper. Alabama also brings back Waddle, an electric punt returner who averaged 14.6 yards per return as a freshman with a touchdown. At punter, both redshirt senior Mike Bernier and sophomore Skyler DeLong are back after splitting time a season ago. Redshirt sophomore Joseph Bulovas connected on 77.8 percent of his field goal attempts in 2018, including 14-of-17 tries from inside 50 yards, and added 75 extra points. He will be joined at placekicker by true freshman Will Reichard, who was widely consider the best high school kicker in the nation in 2018. Reichard is also an accomplished punter.

NICK SABAN

13TH YEAR • HEAD COACH • KENT STATE, 1973

A MAN OF VISION WHO HAS A PROVEN RECORD OF CHAMPIONSHIP SUCCESS, HEAD COACH NICK SABAN HAS RETURNED THE UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA TO THE TOP OF THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL LANDSCAPE WITH HIS COMMITMENT TO BUILDING THE TOTAL PROGRAM. AFTER THE VICTORY OVER GEORGIA IN THE 2018 COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME, SABAN JOINED PAUL “BEAR” BRYANT AS THE ONLY TWO COACHES TO WIN SIX NATIONAL TITLES IN THE POLL ERA OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL.

Entering his 13th season in Tuscaloosa, Saban's uncompromising dedication to excellence in every phase of the program has resulted in five national championships since 2009. An eight-time National Coach of the Year, Saban has achieved resounding success as a head coach and has earned a reputation as an outstanding tactician, leader, organizer and motivator. Those qualities have sparked impressive turnarounds at every stop of his career. Saban's consistent approach and disciplined leadership are the reasons his teams are known for exhibiting grit, determination and resilience, often overcoming adversity to achieve victory.

COACHES AND STAFF

The most recent example of his team's ability to overcome adversity and achieve victory was the 2018 SEC Championship Game. The Crimson Tide rallied from a 14-point second-half deficit to defeat Georgia 35-28 to claim the program's 27th SEC title. The victory added to Saban's impressive career record of 14-3 in championship games (SEC/National).

His 2018 team compiled a 14-1 record, just Saban's third team to go undefeated through the regular season (2009, 2016) and his fourth to reach the 14-win plateau (2009, 2015-16). He won the Walter Camp National Coach of the Year Award and the Tide also qualified for its fifth straight appearance in the College Football Playoff, earning the No. 1 seed and a trip to the Capital One Orange Bowl to play No. 4 Oklahoma. The Crimson Tide cruised past the Sooners in the Semifinal by a score of 45-34, using an early 28-0 lead to ensure the victory. Alabama produced its most potent offense to date, finishing the 2018 campaign as the national leader in passing efficiency (197.34). The Tide also wrapped up 2018 ranked third in scoring offense (45.6 ppg) along with sixth in both total offense (522.0 ypg) and passing offense (323.6 ypg). The 2018 senior class also broke the NCAA record for wins, eclipsing the Tide's 2017 class, with a record of 55-4 to match Clemson's 2018 senior class for the most wins in a four-year period.

Sophomore Tua Tagovailoa quarterbacked the offensive unit, winning the Maxwell Award, the Walter Camp Player of the Year and The Sporting News Player of the Year while finishing runner-up in Heisman Trophy voting. Jerry Jeudy won the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's best wide receiver while Quinnen Williams earned the Outland Trophy and led the country's No. 12 scoring defense (18.1 ppg). Alabama finished with six first team All-Americans (Tagovailoa, Jeudy, Q. Williams, OT Jonah Williams, S Deionte Thompson and C Ross Pierschbacher). Both Jonah and Quinnen were recognized as unanimous All-Americans while Jeudy, Tagovailoa and Thompson were consensus All-America selections.

Saban has compiled a 237-63-1 (.789) record (232-63-1, .786 after vacations) as a college head coach and went 127-13 (.907) in the 10 seasons prior to the 2018 campaign, which is the best of any major college school over a 10-year span since Bud Wilkinson at Oklahoma in the late 1940s through the late 1950s. Entering the 2018 campaign, UA's 127 wins over the past decade are the most for any FBS school during a 10-year span in the Associated Press poll era (since 1936).

Since 2008, the Crimson Tide also boast an astounding 139-15 (.903) record, including an 79-9 (.879) mark in regular season conference play.

In 2018, the Tide reached the 10-win milestone for the 11th consecutive season and won 11 or more games for the eighth straight year, which extended the conference record. Alabama has won at least 12 games in five straight years and became the second team in the poll era to win at least 13 games in four straight seasons.

Since Saban's second season in Tuscaloosa in 2008, the Tide have played just three regular-season games in which it hasn't been in contention for the national championship – the final three regular season games of the 2010 season – a staggering 131 of 134 games, while posting a 125-9 (.933) record during the regular season. In Saban's five national championship seasons at Alabama, his teams have gone 17-2 against top-10 opponents, and, since 2008, the Crimson Tide is 29-10 overall against top-10 teams. Alabama has been ranked No. 1 in the Associated Press poll for at least one week for 11 straight years, which broke the all-time record of seven established by Miami (1986-92).

Alabama has not lost to an unranked team since 2007 and have lost just one game to a team ranked outside the top 15 in the AP poll in the last 10 years (No. 19 South Carolina in 2010). For perspective, no team in the FBS has lost fewer than 10 games to teams outside the top 15 in that same time frame.

The 2017 Crimson Tide earned its fourth straight trip to the College Football Playoff and defeated No. 1 Clemson 24-6 in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. The Tide finished the season with a 13-1 record and a share of the SEC Western Division title. Alabama had 10 players earn first team All-SEC honors while Minkah Fitzpatrick captured the Bednarik Award as the National Defensive Player of the Year and the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. Fitzpatrick and linebacker Rashaan Evans earned first team All-America honors. Saban's defense led the nation in scoring (11.9 ppg), total defense (260.4 ypg) and rushing defense (94.7 ypg) while ranking second in pass efficiency defense (96.78). The offensive side of the ball finished 13th nationally in rushing (250.6 ypg) and 15th in scoring (37.1 ppg). The senior class posted a NCAA-record 53-5 mark from 2014-17 and a 64-7 mark over the last five years which is also the best in NCAA annals.

Saban's 2016 squad completed an undefeated regular season for the first time since 2009 and secured the program's 26th SEC Championship – the third straight for the program – and the fourth across five years. The Tide defeated Washington in the semifinals of the College Football Playoff in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl (24-7), before dropping a 35-31 game to Clemson in the CFP National Championship Game in Tampa, Fla. Alabama finished with a 14-1 record after defeating nine ranked teams and 11 teams that qualified for bowl games during the 2016 season. Alabama finished the year No. 2 in the national polls.

Saban, who was named the SEC Coach of the Year and Munger Award National Coach of the Year (presented by the Maxwell Football Club), had five players earn first team All-America honors – Jonathan Allen, Minkah Fitzpatrick, Reuben Foster, Marlon Humphrey and Cam Robinson. Allen also captured the Nagurski Trophy and the Bednarik Award, both of which go to the national defensive player of the year, and the Hendricks Award as the nation's top defensive end, while Foster won the Butkus Award that is given to the nation's best linebacker, and Robinson captured the Outland Trophy. The senior class posted a then-NCAA-record 51-6 record from 2013-16.

The 2015 team secured the Crimson Tide's fourth national championship in seven years. They became the first team to win back-to-back Southeastern Conference Championships in 17 years (Tennessee, 1997-98) and were the only program to earn an invitation to each of the first two College Football Playoffs. Saban led his team to victories in the final 12 games of the season, including wins at No. 8 Georgia, at No. 9 Texas A&M, vs. No. 4 LSU, at No. 17 Mississippi State, against No. 18 Florida in the SEC Championship Game, vs. No. 3 Michigan State in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl and over No. 1 Clemson in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game. The senior class won a school-record 50 games (50-6) over their four years with three SEC Championships and two national titles.

The Crimson Tide featured Heisman Trophy winner Derrick Henry, who also captured the Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year and Doak Walker Award. Ryan Kelly won the Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center. Linebacker Reggie Ragland was a finalist for the Butkus Award, Nagurski Trophy and the Bednarik Award, while A'Shawn Robinson was a finalist for the Outland Trophy. The offensive line was also awarded the Joe Moore Award, which goes to the nation's toughest line. All four of the Tide's finalists garnered first team All-America honors, while Eddie Jackson was a second-team selection.

Henry set school records for rushing yards (2,219), rushing touchdowns (28), rushing attempts (395) and all-purpose yardage (2,310). A trademark of Saban-coached teams, the Tide ranked among the nation's best on both sides of the ball, checking in at No. 1 in the country in rushing defense, No. 3 in total defense and scoring defense, and eighth in pass efficiency defense while averaging 199.9 rushing yards and 227.1 passing yards per game on offense. Saban's on-side kick call in the national championship game proved key, propelling the Crimson Tide to the program's 16th national title. In the classroom, the numbers were just as astounding, as UA had a nation-leading 29 graduates on the roster for the bowl game including three players with their master's degree in hand.

Saban became the first coach to win back-to-back BCS national championships at the end of the 2012 season, and he is one of three college coaches in the poll era (since 1936) to win three national championships in four years (2009-2012), joining Frank Leahy of Notre Dame (1946-47, 1949) and Tom Osborne of Nebraska (1994-95, 1997). He is also just the second (Leahy) to win four titles in seven years, a feat he has now accomplished twice (2009-12 and 2011-17).

Saban, the 2014 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year, led the Crimson Tide to the top seed in the first College Football Playoff at the 2015 Allstate Sugar Bowl, UA's 24th SEC Championship and a 12-2 record. Alabama won its final eight games to earn a spot in the playoff, including a closing gauntlet that included wins at No. 14 LSU, over No. 1 Mississippi State, against No. 15 Auburn and versus No. 14 Missouri in the SEC Championship. The 2014 senior class finished with a 48-6 record over four years and went to four straight New Year's Six Bowls, including national championships in 2011 and 2012. The Crimson Tide featured Heisman Trophy finalist and UA's first-ever Biletnikoff Award winner Amari Cooper and Nagurski Trophy and Thorpe Award finalist Landon Collins. Along with Cooper and Collins, Ray Guy Award finalist punter JK Scott, linebacker Trey DePriest and offensive guard Arie Kouandjio garnered first team All-America honors. SEC Championship Game MVP Blake Sims set school records for total offense (3,837 yards) and passing yards (3,487), while Cooper established UA marks in every receiving category. The Tide ranked among the nation's best on both sides of the ball, checking in at No. 6 in the country in scoring defense and 15th overall in scoring offense. In the classroom, Alabama had 22 graduates on the roster for the bowl game (tied for the most in the nation) and seven players with their master's degree in hand (first in the nation).

Saban led the 2013 Alabama team to the Allstate Sugar Bowl, making a sixth straight New Year's bowl appearance and the third straight in a BCS bowl. That senior class posted a remarkable record of 60-7 over their last five years with four bowl wins and three national titles. Their record in the classroom was just as impressive as 28 Crimson Tide graduates took the field for the bowl matchup with Oklahoma. Senior quarterback AJ McCarron was named a first team All-American, won the Maxwell and Unitas Award, and finished as the runner-up in the Heisman Trophy voting. On the other side of the ball, senior linebacker C.J. Mosley took home Alabama's third Butkus Trophy and earned All-America honors for the second straight year as he led a defense that entered the bowl game ranked second nationally in fewest points allowed. Safety Ha Ha Clinton-Dix and offensive tackle Cyrus Kouandjio joined McCarron and Mosley as first team All-Americans.

Alabama remained at the forefront of the college football world in 2012 with an explosive offense and a retooled defense that maintained its place as one of the most dominant units in the nation. The Crimson Tide won the program's 23rd SEC championship (the most in league history) with a victory over Georgia that propelled Alabama into the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game, where they soundly defeated Notre Dame by a score of 42-14 to earn the school's 15th national title. For his efforts following the season, Saban was named the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year, his third such honor in his previous four years.

The Alabama defense in 2012 led the nation in rush defense (76.4 ypg), total defense (250.0 ypg) and scoring defense (10.9 ppg). The Tide offense ranked 12th nationally in scoring at 38.7 points per game, 16th nationally in rushing at 227.5 yards per game and set a school record with 542 points scored in 2012. The Crimson Tide featured four first team All-Americans in 2012, including two along the offensive line in center Barrett Jones and left guard Chance Warmack. A pair of defensive standouts also earned All-America honors in cornerback Dee Milliner and Mosley. Jones captured the Rimington Trophy, presented to the nation's best center, and the prestigious Campbell Award, as the student-athlete who best combined performance on the field, success in the classroom and service away from the field. The 2012 senior class set then-school and SEC records for wins, while garnering a 49-5 record since 2009, a mark that tied Nebraska's NCAA record 49 wins from 1994-97. It also broke the Cornhuskers' record (60 wins from 1993-97) for the most major college football victories in a five-year period with 61 (2008-12).

The 2011 squad produced one of the most dominant defenses in the history of college football and captured Alabama's 14th national championship with a 21-0 victory over LSU in the BCS National Championship Game. The Tide defense led the nation in all major categories, becoming the second team since national statistics have been compiled, and the first since 1986 (Oklahoma), to accomplish that feat. UA allowed only 8.2 points per game, 183.6 total yards, 72.2 rushing yards, 111.5 passing yards and an 83.7 pass efficiency defense. Alabama finished with a 12-1 record.

Seven members of the 2011 Crimson Tide (including five on defense) were recognized as first team All-Americans by major media outlets, while Jones took home Alabama's third Outland Trophy and Heisman Trophy finalist Trent Richardson received the Tide's first Doak Walker Award. The team was recognized with the Disney Spirit Award, which was presented to snapper Carson Tinker, for the team's response in the community following a tornado that devastated Tuscaloosa on April 27, 2011. Jones also received the ARA Sportsmanship Award and the Wuerffel Trophy. Saban's efforts earned him the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award. The Tide also had extensive success in the classroom with 38 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections (a league record) and produced one Academic All-American in Jones.

Despite a young roster that listed only eight scholarship seniors, the 2010 Alabama team finished with its third consecutive 10-win season following a dominant 49-7 win over Michigan State in the Capital One Bowl. Five players were named first team All-SEC by either the AP or the league coaches, while six more earned second team All-SEC honors. Most impressively, two players (quarterback Greg McElroy and Jones) were named first team CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-Americans, which marked two consecutive years in which Alabama boasted two of the three CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-Americans in the SEC. McElroy, the ESPN Academic All-American of the Year, was named a National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete as a finalist for the Campbell Trophy.

The 2009 season at Alabama turned out to be one of the most memorable in program history, as the Tide compiled a perfect 14-0 mark and won the 2009 BCS National Championship by defeating Texas, 37-21, at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. Alabama earned a spot in the title game with a resounding 32-13 win over defending national champion Florida in the SEC Championship Game, as the Tide moved to No. 1 in both major polls. The SEC championship was the program's 22nd.

On Dec. 12, 2009, more history was made for both Alabama and Saban when running back Mark Ingram became the first Heisman Trophy winner for both. Saban's 2009 squad also was prominent when it came to other honors, as Rolando McClain received the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker and six players earned first team AP All-America status — a college football record.

After the perfect 2009 season concluded, Saban was presented with the first Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award. In addition to the on-field success, the 2009 Tide active roster featured a nation's-best 13 players who had already graduated. That number increased to 22 players with degrees for the bowl game.

Saban's first Alabama team finished 7-6 in 2007, but the 2008 season saw a vastly improved squad take the field. Saban's influence had taken hold in Tuscaloosa and — behind a small and united senior class along with a talented group of newcomers — the Tide returned to national prominence. Alabama developed a reputation as the most physical football team in the country and methodically dominated the competition. Saban produced the largest win increase from year one to year two in school history, as the Tide went from a seven-win team in 2007 to 12 wins in 2008.

Alabama swept through the 2008 regular season schedule with a 12-0 record, moving to No. 1 in all of the polls and capturing the SEC Western Division Championship before falling late to Florida in a hard-fought SEC Championship Game. The team's efforts earned them a trip to the Allstate Sugar Bowl for the 13th time in school history. Saban was named the 2008 Home Depot Coach of the Year at the ESPN College Football Awards Show and won several other national coach-of-the-year honors including the FWAA/Eddie Robinson, Associated Press, Sporting News, Walter Camp Football Foundation and Liberty Mutual.

Lessons learned from the 2007 season – which was capped with a win over Colorado in the Independence Bowl – no doubt carried into spring and summer preparations for the 2008 run. The win also continued an impressive streak for Saban as he has yet to have a losing season as a college head coach. Of the six losses in 2007, none was by more than seven points. In addition to an improvement in the win column from the year prior, the 2008 signing class was rated by many analysts as the best in the country.

Before arriving in Tuscaloosa, Saban's most recent college head coaching stint was a five-season run at LSU that produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships, three SEC Western Division championships, and a 3-2 record in bowl games with two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win. LSU constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award by the Football Writers Association of America. Saban was named SEC Coach of the Year twice (by The Birmingham News in 2001 and by the Associated Press in 2003) while at LSU.

Saban took over the Alabama program after serving two seasons at the helm of the Miami Dolphins. Saban's teams showed marked improvement over the unit he inherited. Taking over a team that finished 4-12 in 2004, Saban led the 2005 Dolphins to a 9-7 record, the third-biggest turnaround in the NFL that season and the second-highest victory turnaround for a Dolphins team in any non-strike season. Most impressively, the Dolphins finished 2005 on a six-game winning streak to end the year, the longest streak in the NFL that season.

Named head coach at LSU on Nov. 30, 1999, Saban led an immediate turnaround of a program that had suffered through seven losing seasons during the 1990s. His 48 victories over five seasons ranked third among Division I-A head coaches during that time. Saban, Paul Dietzel and Les Miles are the only coaches in the program's history to post multiple 10-win seasons. Saban, Dietzel and Bernie Moore are the only head coaches in Tiger history to win two SEC titles.

Saban's 2000 Tigers rebounded from two straight losing seasons to post an 8-4 record, capped by a 31-20 win over No. 15 Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. Victories over Tennessee and Mississippi State highlighted that season, along with a key road win at Ole Miss.

The 2001 Tigers improved to 10-3 overall and won the program's first outright SEC title since 1986 with a 31-20 win over second-ranked Tennessee in the SEC

Championship Game. An impressive second half against the Volunteers was a trademark of Saban's coaching acumen, as LSU outscored the Vols 21-3 in the final half to erase a 17-10 deficit. They won the game despite the absence of starting quarterback Rohan Davey and running back LaBrandon Toefield.

Sparked by one of the most prolific offenses in the nation, a unit that averaged 451.5 yards per game, the Tigers capped the 2001 season with a 47-34 defeat of Big Ten champion Illinois in the Sugar Bowl, LSU's first victory in a New Year's Day bowl game since 1968.

Stifling defense was the trademark of the 2002 Tigers. LSU posted an 8-5 record and a second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance. The Tigers, who faced Texas in the Cotton Bowl, held opponents to under 275 yards per game through the season's first six games and scored a school-record 30 or more points in six straight games. LSU just missed winning a second consecutive SEC West title, as a last-minute comeback by Arkansas in the regular-season finale prevented LSU from another appearance in the SEC Championship Game. That LSU team overcame the midseason loss of starting quarterback Matt Mauck, free safety Damien James and Toefield in successive weeks to make a run at an SEC Western Division title.

Saban's philosophy of "out of yourself and into the team" paid huge dividends in 2003. The Tigers produced a 13-1 record, won their second SEC championship and earned the school's second national championship with a squad that was among the nation's most dominant on both sides of the line of scrimmage. The LSU offense scored a school-record 475 points (33.9 per game) while holding 13 of 14 opponents to fewer than 20 points. LSU's defense ranked first nationally in points allowed per game (11.0) and total defense (252.0 yards per game). After a 7-1 start, LSU ended the season with six dominating victories by an average margin of 35-10. An impressive 34-13 victory over Georgia in the 2003 SEC title game paved LSU's way to an appearance in the BCS Championship Game against top-ranked Oklahoma. The Tigers produced a dominant defensive effort against the Sooners in the Sugar Bowl, limiting the Sooners to 154 yards of total offense in a 21-14 victory.

Saban's final LSU team in 2004 overcame the loss of 13 players from the 2003 squad who went on to NFL rosters, posting a 9-3 record while producing the SEC's best rushing offense (200.7 yards per game). The Tiger defense ranked third nationally during the regular season in total defense (249.9 yards per game) and passing defense (145.4 yards per game), allowing only 15.9 points per contest.

Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. After playing in only one bowl game in the previous four years, Michigan State made four postseason appearances in Saban's five years at the helm. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record.

In 1999, Saban led his final Spartans team to a No. 7 national ranking, finishing in a tie for second place in the Big Ten. The Spartans defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season. The Spartans' performance that year landed them a spot in the Citrus Bowl. Michigan State led the Big Ten in rushing defense (77.0 ypg) and total defense (299.0 ypg) while ranking fifth nationally in rushing defense and 11th in total defense. The MSU offense averaged 31.0 points per game.

Saban was the first coach in school history to put the Spartans in postseason bowl games in each of his first three seasons – as he led Michigan State to the Independence Bowl in 1995, the Sun Bowl in 1996 and the Aloha Bowl in 1997.

Before Michigan State, Saban spent four seasons (1991-94) as defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns under head coach Bill Belichick. The Browns went from allowing the most points (462) in the NFL prior to Saban's arrival to allowing the fewest points (204) in the league in 1994, the sixth-fewest points surrendered in NFL history at the time. In each of Saban's four years guiding the Browns defense, they never permitted an average of more than 19.2 points per game. He built a reputation as one of the finest defensive coaches in the league and also was heavily involved in the team's player personnel and scouting process.

Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a record of 9-2 that year, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 ypg) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 ppg) and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

Saban joined Toledo after serving as secondary coach with the Houston Oilers for two seasons under Jerry Glanville (1988-89), his first NFL coaching position. He quickly made an impact on the Oilers defense, as the team's secondary tied for fourth in the AFC in 1988 with 21 interceptions and then tied for second in the conference in 1989 with 22 picks.

In his first stint at Michigan State, Saban served as secondary coach and defensive coordinator under George Perles from 1983-87. Saban played an integral part in helping the Spartans make three postseason bowl appearances, including a Big Ten championship in 1987 and a 20-17 victory over Southern California in the 1988 Rose Bowl. Michigan State led the nation in rushing defense in 1987, (61.2 ypg) and ranked second in scoring defense (12.4 ppg).

A native of Monongah, W. Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born Oct. 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen. They have been married for 46 years and are enjoying the company of their granddaughter, Amélie and son-in-law Adam Setas.

Saban co-authored "Tiger Turnaround" in 2001, documenting his first two years at LSU. He then co-authored "How Good Do You Want to Be?" in 2005, a book that offers real-life principles for success at work and at home.

At Michigan State, the Sabans started the Nick's Kids Foundation, which they have continued in Tuscaloosa, a vibrant example of their continuing concern for disadvantaged children. Since Nick and Terry arrived in Tuscaloosa, nearly $9 million has been distributed to students, teachers and children's causes at over 150 charities through the Nick's Kids Foundation.

The Sabans also have played a big role in tornado relief efforts in Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas. Immediately following the devastating storm on April 27, 2011, Nick and Terry visited shelters where they paid for and served meals to those in need. Through Nick's Kids, the Sabans joined with Habitat for Humanity in helping to rebuild 17 homes lost in the tornado, the most recent of which was dedicated in May of 2018 following Alabama's 17th national championship.

With support and donations from the Sabans, St. Francis Catholic Church in Tuscaloosa built the Saban Catholic Student Center, which opened in August of 2016. In receiving the 2008 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, Saban was awarded a $50,000 gift at the A-Day Game. He designated the gift for Nick's Kids, as well as an additional $20,000 gift for The University of Alabama scholarship fund. In June of 2008, the Sabans announced a $1 million gift to benefit Alabama's first-generation scholarship program. The gift has a special meaning to the Sabans, as both Nick and Terry were first-generation graduates.

BRIAN BAKER

Assoc. Head Coach/DL

First Year

MARYLAND, 1985

Brian Baker joined the Alabama coaching staff in January of 2019 as the associate head coach and defensive line coach.

Baker, who owns 19 years of NFL coaching experience, joined the Crimson Tide's staff after three seasons directing one of the nation's top defensive fronts at Mississippi State. Prior to his time with the Bulldogs, Baker coached the defensive line or outside linebackers from 1996-2014 in the NFL with the Chargers, Lions, Vikings, Rams, Panthers, Cowboys, Browns and Redskins.

At Alabama, he inherits a defensive line that will have to replace Outland Trophy winner Quinnen Williams at nose guard and senior NFL prospect Isaiah Buggs. Alabama does return senior Raekwon Davis, who boasts 128 career tackles, 16.5 tackles for loss and 11 sacks, along with junior LaBryan Ray, who had six tackles for loss and 2.5 sacks last season.

Baker's leadership was evident in his three seasons in Starkville as the Bulldogs' produced multiple first team All-SEC defensive linemen for the first time in school history in 2017 and repeated that accomplishment the very next season in 2018. Both Jeffery Simmons and Montez Sweat earned the nod on the Associated Press and Coaches' teams in each of the last two seasons. It represented just the second and third times since 2003 that an SEC West school produced multiple first team All-SEC defensive linemen (Alabama, 2015).

Simmons and Sweat combined for 58.5 tackles for loss and 29 sacks in the last two seasons. Sweat led the SEC in sacks (10.5) in 2017 and finished second in 2018 (11.5), while Simmons was fourth in tackles for loss (17.0) in 2018. Sweat was the first Bulldog to lead the league in sacks since 2005 when he paced the conference during his junior campaign.

Baker's 2016 season, his first in Starkville, saw his unit rank in the top five of the SEC in tackles for loss (81). Three of his players signed NFL free agent contracts in May of 2017, including Nelson Adams (Pittsburgh Steelers), Johnathan Calvin (Green Bay Packers) and Nick James (Detroit Lions).

During his 19 years in the NFL, Baker coached eight Pro Bowlers, including the likes of DeMarcus Ware and Julius Peppers. His final NFL season was the 2014 campaign with the Washington Redskins where he coached the outside linebackers. Under his tutelage, Ryan Kerrigan recorded a career-best 13.5 sacks in that season.

Prior to his year in Washington, he served as the Cleveland Browns' outside linebackers coach in 2013, helping the Browns finish third in the AFC and ninth in the NFL in total defense (332.4 yards per game).

Baker spent the 2011-12 seasons as the defensive line coach with the Dallas Cowboys.

Under Baker, nose tackle Jay Ratliff earned a Pro Bowl selection in 2012 while also contributing to the Pro Bowl selections of linebackers Ware and Anthony Spencer as part of his responsibilities overseeing the pass rush.

He spent the 2009-10 seasons as the Carolina Panthers' defensive line coach as Charles Johnson recorded 11.5 sacks (tied-fourth in NFL) in 2010 and Peppers notched 10.5 sacks on his way to the Pro Bowl in 2009.

Baker coached the St. Louis Rams' defensive line from 2006-08. In 2008, his unit notched 20 of the team's 30 sacks. In 2006, defensive end Leonard Little tied for fifth in the league with 13.0 sacks, while defensive tackle La'Roi Glover was sixth among NFC defensive tackles with 5.5 sacks.

From 2001-05, Baker worked in various capacities for the Minnesota Vikings, serving as defensive line coach in 2001 and 2004-05 and as linebackers coach from 2002-03. He helped defensive tackle Kevin Williams earn his first of six Pro Bowl selections following the 2004 season. In that 2004 campaign, Williams recorded a career-best 11.5 sacks and was selected to the Associated Press All-Pro team.

Baker was the Detroit Lions' defensive line coach from 1997-2000, spearheading defensive linemen Robert Porcher (1997 and 1999) and Luther Elliss (1999 and 2000) to Pro Bowl selections. In 1999, Porcher registered 15 sacks, the most by any Lion in a single-season since sacks became official in 1982. Baker made his NFL coaching debut as the defensive line coach with the San Diego Chargers in 1996.

He spent nine years as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech from 1987-95, coaching linebackers in each of those years and coordinating the defense in 1995. The 1990 team at Georgia Tech claimed the national championship with a win over Nebraska in the Citrus Bowl to finish 11-0-

1. He coached Marco Coleman to All-America honors and the No. 12 overall pick in the 1992 NFL Draft. Baker served as Army's running backs coach in 1986 after two seasons at Maryland in 1984-85 as a student assistant and graduate assistant.

A native of Baltimore, Md., Baker played outside linebacker at the University of Maryland from 1980-83 and helped the Terps win the ACC in 1983. He earned a degree in marketing from Maryland in 1985.

Baker and his wife, Nevada, have three daughters, Nicole, Jade and Jasmine.

JEFF BANKS

Special Teams Coord./TE

Second Year

WASHINGTON STATE, 1999

Jeff Banks is in his second season on head coach Nick Saban's staff as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach after spending the previous five years in the same role at Texas A&M.

In his first season in Tuscaloosa, Banks saw his punt return defense rank fifth nationally (2.67 ypr) and his punt return unit finished 12th in the country (14.71 ypr). The Tide was also third in the SEC in kickoff returns with an average of 23.77 yards per return. Freshman Jaylen Waddle was named the SEC Freshman of the Year while ranking second in the SEC in punt return average at 14.6 yards per return with one touchdown. Placekicker Joseph Bulovas connected on 14-of-18 field goals with a long of 49 yards with 44 touchbacks on kickoffs.

His tight ends Irv Smith Jr. and Hale Hentges also excelled with Smith earning second team All-America honors. Smith caught 44 passes for 710 yards and seven touchdowns, which was a school record for tight ends. Hentges hauled in three touchdown passes while proving essential to the Tide's rushing attack.

Banks came to Alabama after five years as the tight ends and special teams coordinator for Kevin Sumlin at Texas A&M. The Aggies boasted one of the nation's top special teams units in 2017, ranking third nationally in net punting (42.29 ypp) and second nationally in punt returns with a 17.1 average and two touchdowns. Punter Shane Tripucka ranked sixth nationally in punting with an average of 45.5 yards per punt. Banks' units were No. 1 nationally with eight blocked kicks a season ago.

In 2016, the Aggies led the nation in punt returns average at 25.39 yards per return with four touchdowns. Returner Christian Kirk led the nation individually in punt return touchdowns with three while averaging 21.7 yards on 13 returns. Texas A&M also ranked seventh nationally in net punting in 2016 with a 41.58 yard average.

The highlight of his first season with the Aggies in 2013 was the development of punter Drew Kaser and placekicker Josh Lambo. Kaser broke the A&M single-season record with a 47.4 punt average while being named a first-team All-American and being selected as a finalist for the Ray Guy Award. Kaser was a sixth-round NFL Draft pick of the Chargers in 2016. Lambo connected on 80 percent of his field goal kicks and was 50-of-51 on PATs. The Aggies also blocked an SEC-high three kicks, ranked third in net punting (39.4) and second in kickoff return defense (18.3).

Prior to arriving at Texas A&M in 2013, Banks had a brief stint as the running backs coach and special teams coordinator at Virginia after having coached running backs and coordinated special teams for nine years at UTEP (2004-12).

During his time in El Paso, Banks oversaw one of the top special teams units in Conference USA as the Miners led the league in special teams statistics in 2011 and 2012. In 2012, UTEP led the conference in net punting with a 40.1 average and punt return defense with a 3.1 yard average. The Miners allowed just 65 yards on 21 opponent punt returns. UTEP also ranked No. 3 in kickoff returns (23.8 avg.) and No. 4 in punt returns (10.1). That same season, UTEP blocked four kicks and returned a pair of kickoffs for touchdowns.

The 2011 season saw UTEP led C-USA in punting (40.5 avg.), rank second in kickoff returns (26.3 avg.) and third in kickoff coverage (44.4 avg.). The Miners rated fourth nationally in kickoff returns and sixth in net punting, and the team blocked three punts and also executed successful fake kicks for first downs on the road on three occasions.

In 2009, a Banks pupil, Donald Buckram, broke UTEP's season rushing record that had stood for over 60 years by rushing for 1,594 yards.

Banks served as an assistant coach at Idaho State from 2000-03, where he was the special teams coordinator, recruiting coordinator and running backs coach. Idaho State led the nation in net punting twice in his three seasons.

Banks got his coaching start as a graduate assistant under Mike Price at Washington State from 1998-2000, where he worked with the offense and the punters and kickers.

As a player, Banks was a two-time all-conference punter for Washington State, posting a 42.8 yard average as a junior and 43.4 yard average as a senior. In his final season, he led the Pac-10 and was No. 15 nationally while helping the Cougars go 10-2 and earn an invitation to the Rose Bowl. Banks was also selected to participate in the Senior Bowl.

Banks has a daughter, Sydnei, and two sons, Gage and Tanner. Banks earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Washington State in 1999.

KYLE FLOOD

Offensive Line

First Year

IONA, 1993

Kyle Flood joined the Alabama coaching staff in January of 2019 to coach the Crimson Tide's offensive line.

Flood takes over Alabama's offensive front after two years on the Atlanta Falcons' staff coaching the offensive line. He also boasts four years of head coaching experience, guiding the Rutgers Scarlet Knights from 2012-15.

In Tuscaloosa, he welcomes back a bevy of talented offensive linemen, but will have to replace All-Americans Jonah Williams (left tackle) and Ross Pierschbacher (center). Juniors Alex Leatherwood and Jedrick Wills Jr. anchor the returners along with redshirt junior Deonte Brown and redshirt senior Matt Womack.

Flood, who is entering his 25th year of coaching, spent the 2017-18 seasons helping Chris Morgan coach a Falcons offensive line that only allowed 24 sacks in 2017 – tied for the third lowest amount in the NFL. Flood's assistance in his first year was also shown by the group's ability to sustain blocks as the Falcons line helped create 230 big plays (plays that are 10-plus yards). In 2018, the offense finished in the top 10 in the NFL in passing yards (fourth – 4,653 yards), total yards (sixth – 6,226 yards) and 10th in scoring (25.9 ppg).

He guided the Rutgers football program for four seasons from 2012-15 and spent 11 seasons on staff in Piscataway. Flood became the first head coach in school history to lead the program to three bowl appearances in his first three seasons at the helm and finished with a 27-24 overall record.

Flood's first year as head coach of the Rutgers football program was as memorable as any in Scarlet Knights football history. Flood guided Rutgers to its first BIG EAST Championship, earned BIG EAST Coach of the Year honors and won more games (nine) than any rookie head coach in RU history.

He led Rutgers through their transition to the Big Ten conference in 2014 and a win in the 2014 Quick Lane Bowl. Flood guided Rutgers to eight wins that season – the program's first year as a member of the Big Ten Conference. Rutgers won all five of its non-conference games and earned Big Ten victories over Michigan, Indiana and Maryland. The Knights were also honored in 2014 with the first-ever Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy, which goes to the top team in the East in the Bowl Subdivision.

In 2015, Flood had six different players earn All-Big Ten accolades. That included Leonte Carroo, who left as the program record holder with 29 receiving touchdowns. That campaign included a 25-point comeback victory at Indiana. The 2013 season saw the Scarlet Knights earn a trip to the Pinstripe Bowl in New York's Yankee Stadium, as Rutgers finished with a 6-7 record.

Before becoming the head coach at Rutgers, he spent seven years (2005-11) on head coach Greg Schiano's staff. He oversaw the offensive line all seven years while adding run game coordinator to his duties in 2007, assistant head coach in 2008 and co-offensive coordinator in 2010.

During his time at Rutgers, the offensive line consistently produced top-level talent, including several players who went on to the NFL. All-American Anthony Davis became the highest player ever drafted in Rutgers history as the 11th overall pick of the 2010 NFL Draft.

Flood arrived at Rutgers after three seasons at the University of Delaware, where he helped the Blue Hens to a 30-11 record, including a 15-1 mark in 2003 en route to the NCAA FCS National Championship and a share of the Atlantic 10 title in 2004. He also served as assistant head coach and recruiting coordinator during his stint.

Prior to his time at Delaware, Flood was offensive line coach at Hofstra from 1997-2001. While at Hofstra, he helped the Pride earn berths in the NCAA FCS playoffs in 1997 and 1999-2001. The Pride were among the top offensive teams in the nation during his tenure, ranking second in total offense, fourth in passing and fifth in scoring in 2001.

Flood, a 1993 graduate of Iona College, was a four-year letterwinner for the Gaels. He earned first team All-Liberty Conference honors in 1991 and served as team captain of the Gaels in 1992.

His first college coaching position came in 1995-96 as offensive line coach at Long Island University-C.W. Post. While coaching at C.W. Post, he helped the team to the ECAC Division II Eastern title in 1996.

A native of Bayside, N.Y., Flood and his wife, Amy, have three children, Kyle, Isabella and Joseph.

PETE GOLDING

Defensive Coord./ILB

DELTA STATE, 2005

Pete Golding begins his second year on head coach Nick Saban's staff coaching the inside linebackers and his first as the Crimson Tide's defensive coordinator after serving as the co-defensive coordinator in 2018.

The inside linebackers at Alabama in 2018 were led by a pair of second team All-Americans in junior Mack Wilson and sophomore Dylan Moses. Both players started all 15 games at the mike and will spots, combining for 157 tackles. Moses was a finalist for the Dick Butkus Award in 2018 and returns for his junior season in 2019 after leading all tacklers with 86 stops. He added 10 tackles for loss (-41 yards), 3.5 sacks, a pass breakup and a forced fumble. Wilson, who was a semifinalist for the Butkus, registered 71 tackles, two interceptions, five pass breakups and six quarterback hurries.

In 2019, Moses anchors a unit that returns Joshua McMillon, Markail Benton, Ale Kaho and Jaylen Moody who will all challenge for a starting role and provide quality depth in the middle.

The Tide's defense finished the 2018 season ranked third nationally in scoring (18.1 ppg) and 16th in total defense (319.5 ypg). The rushing defense was 19th nationally (121.3 ypg) while the pass efficiency defense ranked 23rd. Alabama also ranked 10th nationally in sacks per game at 3.0.

Golding came to Tuscaloosa after coaching defensive backs and handling the defensive coordinator duties at the University of Texas-San Antonio in 2016 and 2017.

Golding's 2017 defense at Texas-San Antonio ranked seventh in the Football Bowl Subdivision, allowing just 287.8 yards per game. The Roadrunners finished eighth in scoring defense (17.0 ppg), second in first downs defense (166) and 19th in pass efficiency defense (112.19). UTSA's improvement during Golding's tenure was evident, as the defense allowed 156 less yards per game and 16.8 less point per game in 2017 compared to 2015.

In his first season with the Roadrunners in 2016, he helped lead the program to six wins and its first bowl game – the 2016 Gildan New Mexico Bowl. His defense set several school records, including single-season standards for tackles (934), tackles for loss (77), sacks (27) and quarterback hurries (38). Individually, linebacker Josiah Tauaefa broke UTSA's season record for tackles with 115 on his way to becoming the program's first Freshman All-American (Football Writers Association of America) and collecting Conference USA Freshman of the Year and first-team all-conference honors. Defensive end Marcus Davenport and safety Michael Egwuagu were named second-team all-conference and safety Jordan Moore was honorable mention.

Golding joined the UTSA staff after spending two years as an assistant coach at Southern Miss where he coached the safeties. The Golden Eagles posted a six-win improvement in his second season, finishing 9-5 overall with a trip to the Heart of Dallas Bowl while winning the Western Division of Conference USA.

Prior to his time in Hattiesburg, Golding was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Southeastern Louisiana for two seasons (2012-13). He helped guide the Lions' program to a school-record 11 wins and its first conference title (Southern) since 1961 with a 7-0 league record. Southeastern Louisiana advanced to the quarterfinals of the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs in its first appearance and Golding's defense led the Southland in both total and scoring defense.

Before heading to Hammond, he was the defensive coordinator at his alma mater Delta State from 2010-11, leading the Statesmen to the 2010 NCAA Division II National Championship Game and the Gulf South Conference title.

He also spent three years on staff at Tusculum coaching the defensive backs while coordinating the defense the final two years as the Pioneers developed into a record-setting defensive unit under his direction. In 2007, Tusculum intercepted a program-record 14 passes and produced conference-leading marks in sacks and forced turnovers on their way to an appearance in the NCAA Division II playoffs.

Golding has tutored six All-Americans during his 10-year coaching career, including 2012 FCS Defensive Player of the Year and 2013 second round National Football League draft pick Robert Alford, who was a cornerback under Golding during his senior season. He coached 18 Delta State players to All-Gulf South Conference and All-South Region teams during his tenure, while six Tusculum defenders received All-South Atlantic Conference accolades.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Delta State in 2006 after starting four seasons at safety for the Statesmen (2002-05).

A native of Hammond, La., Golding and his wife Carolyn have three children, Braxton, Bentley and Bailey. Golding graduated from Delta State in 2005 with a degree in business.

CHARLES HUFF

Assoc. Head Coach/RB

First Year

HAMPTON, 2005

Charles Huff begins his first season with the Alabama Crimson Tide football program in 2019 as associate head coach and running backs coach. An elite recruiter and developer of talent, Huff brings a proven track record to head coach Nick Saban's staff.

Huff arrives in Tuscaloosa after one season as the assistant head coach, run-game coordinator and running backs coach at Mississippi State. He boasts 15 years of coaching experience on both the NFL and college levels with stops at Penn State (2014-17), Western Michigan (2013), the Buffalo Bills (2012), Vanderbilt (2011), Hampton (2010), Maryland (2009) and Tennessee State (2006-08).

He inherits a running back room that is led by juniors Najee Harris and Brian Robinson Jr. The Tide will have to replace the production of Damien Harris and Josh Jacobs, who are off to the NFL, but Najee Harris has averaged 6.5 yards per carry the past two seasons while Robinson has added 5.0 yards per tote. Alabama also welcomes the nation's top-ranked running back recruit, Trey Sanders, to the unit this fall.

Huff's one season in Starkville produced an effective rushing attack that averaged 223.6 yards per game to rank second in the SEC and 20th nationally. Kylin Hill and Aeris Williams carried the load at running back averaging 6.3 and 6.2 yards per carry, respectively, while quarterback Nick Fitzgerald led the team in rushing with 1,121 yards and 13 touchdowns.

A native of Denton, Md., Huff spent four seasons (2014-17) as Penn State's running backs coach and special teams coordinator. He recruited and developed one of the game's most electrifying players in running back Saquon Barkley, who in 2018 became the highest drafted NFL running back since Reggie Bush went No. 2 overall in 2006.

Barkley, who was called with the second overall pick by the New York Giants in the 2018 draft, produced a dynamic rookie season, rushing for 1,307 yards and 11 touchdowns. He added 91 receptions for 721 yards and four more scores to amass 2,028 yards from scrimmage on his way to Offensive Rookie of the Year honors at season's end.

Numerous records fell at the running back position and on special teams under Huff's guidance at Penn State. Barkley, a 2017 consensus All-American, became the first Big Ten running back in history to win Offensive Player of the Year honors twice. A Walter Camp National Player of the Year finalist, Barkley ranked second nationally in all-purpose yards in 2017 (2,329). He broke four school career records, including rushing touchdowns (43), total touchdowns (53), all-purpose yards (5,538) and consecutive games with a touchdown (15) in just three seasons.

The 2016 campaign saw the Nittany Lions claim the Big Ten Championship, and it was Huff who mentored two record-breakers. Barkley broke the Penn State sophomore record for rushing yards (1,496), all-purpose yards (1,972) and points scored (132), while junior kicker Tyler Davis collected All-Big Ten first team honors after tying the league's single-season record for kicking points (128) and breaking the school record for field goals by a junior (22) and consecutive field goals made (18).

Huff recruited Barkley to Penn State, and his freshman season of 2015 was spectacular. The Freshman All-American broke the school's single-season freshman rushing record with 1,076 yards. He was named the Big Ten Network's Big Ten Freshman of the Year in the process.

He spent the 2013 season at Western Michigan as the running backs coach and helped the unit nearly double its rushing yards from 2012. The Broncos ran for 1,394 yards in 2013 after running for just 735 yards the year before.

Huff spent the 2012 season in the NFL as the assistant running backs coach for the Buffalo Bills. He helped C.J. Spiller to his first career 1,000-yard rushing campaign and a Pro Bowl invitation.

In 2011, Huff was on James Franklin's 2011 staff at Vanderbilt as the offensive quality control coach. Huff and Franklin also worked together at Maryland in 2009, when Huff was the assistant offensive line coach. Huff mentored NFL first-round pick Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie as the tight ends and special teams coach at Tennessee State from 2007-08.

Huff graduated in 2005 from Hampton University where he served as a team captain, starting 12 games at center as a senior in 2005. He also played guard, fullback and tight end in his career.

CHARLES KELLY

Assoc. DC. /Safeties

First Year

AUBURN, 1990

Charles Kelly brings his defensive expertise to Alabama head coach Nick Saban's defensive staff in 2019 as the associate defensive coordinator and safeties coach.

Kelly, a native of Ozark, Ala., joins the Crimson Tide's staff after one season as the special teams coordinator and safeties coach at Tennessee. Prior to Knoxville, he coached five seasons at Florida State (2013-17), including the final four years as the Seminoles' defensive coordinator.

Kelly has coordinated defenses and coached the secondary at Jacksonville State (1994-98), Henderson State (1999), Nicholls State (2005), Georgia Tech (2012) and Florida State (2014-17). He has a decorated background on special teams, directing those units at Georgia Tech (2006-07), Florida State (2013) and Tennessee (2018).

Overall, Kelly has coached 16 All-Americans and won four conference championships, including three ACC titles, in his career. As a special teams coordinator, he has coached a Ray Guy Award winner and a Lou Groza Award winner.

He will be tasked with finding a replacement for All-American safety Deionte Thompson in his first year in Tuscaloosa, but the veteran coach of 25 years will have tools at his disposal. Junior Xavier McKinney returns after starting 15 games a season ago along with safeties and nickel backs Shyheim Carter, Jared Mayden and Daniel Wright.

At Tennessee, Kelly's special teams were solid, blocking five kicks (No. 5 nationally), ranking fourth in the country in punt return defense (2.00 yards per return) and fourth in the league in punt returns (12.80 ypr). His safeties Nigel Warrior and Micah Abernathy turned in solid seasons with Warrior second on the team at 64 tackles while Abernathy made 38 stops with three tackles for loss.

Kelly spent five years at Florida State, serving as the defensive coordinator the final four years on Jimbo Fisher's staff after taking over for former Alabama defensive coordinator Jeremy Pruitt in 2014. His defenses in Tallahassee ranked in the nation's top 25 his final three years, including No. 18 in 2017, after allowing only 331.1 total yards per game. FSU finished 22nd nationally in total defense in 2016 (349.1 ypg) and his 2015 unit ranked ninth in scoring defense (17.8 ppg).

He coached 10 NFL Draft picks as the coordinator for the 'Noles, including first round defensive backs Jalen Ramsey (No. 5 overall) and Derwin James (No. 17). He also mentored several first team All-Americans, including Tarvarus McFadden and Ramsey.

The Seminoles led the nation in sacks in 2016 (3.92 per game) behind 16 sacks from defensive end DeMarcus Walker. FSU also finished 22nd nationally total defense (349.1) that season. The 2015 squad's defense ranked ninth in the nation in scoring defense (17.8 points per game) and No. 19 in total defense (336.9). Kelly's defense in 2014 led Florida State to the first-ever College Football Playoff and helped the Seminoles produce a program-record 29-game win streak.

Kelly traveled to Florida State after seven seasons at Georgia Tech where he coached special teams, defensive backs and served as the interim defensive coordinator during his tenure. He was elevated to defensive coordinator for the Yellow Jackets in the sixth game of the 2012 season when Georgia Tech had a 2-4 record. Kelly helped GT finish out the season 5-3, including a Sun Bowl victory over Southern California, where Kelly's defense held the high-powered Trojans' offense to just 205 yards and seven points.

In 2011, Kelly's defensive backs led a pass defense that finished No. 2 in the ACC. In 2009, Kelly's unit helped Georgia Tech win the ACC Championship and go to the Orange Bowl, finishing 11-3. He served as the Yellow Jackets' special teams coordinator in 2006 and 2007, coaching punter Durant Brooks to the Ray Guy Award in 2007.

Kelly coached at Nicholls State from 2002 to 2005, serving as defensive backs coach for two seasons before being promoted to defensive coordinator. They captured the Southland Conference title in 2005 and ranked No. 17 in the nation (FCS) in total defense. He was instrumental in developing two-time All-America cornerback Chris Thompson, who went on to be drafted by Jacksonville in 2004.

He spent two years at Eufaula (Ala.) High School after five years as a defensive coordinator at Jacksonville State (1994-98) and Henderson State (1999). He coached running backs and defensive backs at Jacksonville State and defensive backs at Henderson State. Kelly began his coaching career at Phenix City (Ala.) Central High School (1990-92) before returning to Auburn as a graduate assistant in 1993.

He is a 1990 graduate of Auburn with a degree in secondary math education. He then earned his master's degree in education from Troy in 2002. Kelly and his wife Kristy have three daughters, Caroline, Kathleen and Charli Grace.

COACHES/STAFF

Steve Sarkisian returned to head coach Nick Saban's staff at Alabama as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in January of 2019 after two years coordinating the Atlanta Falcons offense.

Sarkisian served as the Crimson Tide's offensive coordinator for the 2017 College Football Playoff National Championship Game after spending the 2016 season with Alabama as an analyst prior to being promoted.

In 2019, Sarkisian inherits a deep and talented quarterback room in Tuscaloosa, led by Maxwell Award winner and Walter Camp Player of the Year Tua Tagovailoa along with redshirt sophomore Mac Jones and incoming freshmen Taulia Tagovailoa and Paul Tyson. Tua, the Heisman Trophy runner-up, threw for an Alabama record 3,966 yards and 43 touchdowns in 2018 while accounting for 4,156 yards of total offense and 48 scores.

In Atlanta, Sarkisian's 2018 offense finished in the top 10 in the NFL in passing yards (fourth – 4,653 yards), total yards (sixth – 6,226 yards) and 10th in scoring (25.9 ppg). Quarterback Matt Ryan was third in the NFL in passing yards (4,924 yards) while tossing 35 touchdowns. Wide receiver Julio Jones caught 113 passes for 1,677 yards and eight touchdowns and Calvin Ridley added 64 catches for 821 yards and a team-high 10 scores. Jones led the league in receiving yards in 2018 while Ridley paced all rookies in receiving yards and touchdowns.

In 2017, two pieces of the Falcons offense, center Alex Mack and Jones, were selected to the Pro Bowl. Atlanta led the NFL in third-down percentage his first season while finishing eighth in the league in passing offense (249.4) and third in yards per play (5.93).

Sarkisian not only boasts play-calling experience at the highest levels of football, but seven years as a Football Bowl Subdivision head coach. He guided the Southern California program in 2014-15 and the Washington Huskies from 2009-13. He posted a head-coaching record of 46-35 over those seven seasons while leading his teams to five bowl appearances.

During his time as head coach at Southern California, Sarkisian led the Trojans to a 12-6 overall record including a second-place finish in the Pac-12's Southern Division in 2014. His 2014 offense at USC ranked in the top 25 nationally in passing efficiency (fourth – 165.35), passing offense (15th – 296.6 ypg), third down conversions (19th – 46.6 percent) and scoring offense (22nd – 35.8 ppg).

At Washington, Sarkisian inherited a program in 2009 that had won just 12 games during the previous five seasons, including a winless season the year prior. Despite that challenge, he guided the Huskies to bowl games his last four seasons. His eight victories in 2013 were the most at UW since 2000. His overall Washington record was 34-29. His tenure in Seattle resulted in eight wins over Associated Press Top 25 teams (No. 3 USC, No. 19 California in 2009; No. 18 USC, No. 18 Nebraska and No. 24 Oregon State in 2010; No. 7 Oregon State and No. 8 Stanford in 2012; No. 13 Boise State in 2013).

Among the UW players Sarkisian coached were nine NFL draftees, including quarterback Jake Locker, cornerback Desmond Trufant, linebackers Donald Butler and All-American Mason Foster, defensive end Daniel Te'o-Nesheim and tailback Bishop Sankey, plus All-Pac-12 tailback Chris Polk.

Sarkisian arrived at Southern California as an assistant in 2001 and took over as the quarterbacks coach in 2002, where he tutored quarterback Carson Palmer to the Heisman Trophy and the No. 1 overall pick in the 2003 NFL Draft. After spending the 2004 season as the quarterbacks coach for the Oakland Raiders, Sarkisian returned to the Trojan staff in February of 2005 as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach for four seasons (2005-08). He added the offensive coordinator role to his duties in 2007 and 2008 at USC.

At USC, Sarkisian coached Heisman Trophy-winning quarterbacks Carson Palmer and Matt Leinart, along with NFL signal-callers Mark Sanchez, John David Booty and Matt Cassel. The Trojans went 23-3 during his tenure as the offensive coordinator.

Sarkisian starred at the quarterback position at the prep, collegiate and pro levels. He spent time with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League for three seasons (1997-99) following his collegiate career at BYU.

While with the Cougars from 1995-96, he completed 549-of-824 passes (66.6 percent) for 7,755 yards and 55 touchdowns. His 162.0 career passing efficiency rating was third on the all-time NCAA list when he finished playing. As a senior in 1996, he led the nation in passing efficiency (173.6, the fourth-best mark in NCAA history at the time), leading the Cougars to the WAC championship and a win in the 1997 Cotton Bowl. He was the WAC Offensive Player of the Year in 1996 and earned second team All-America honors.

Sarkisian earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from BYU in 1997 after getting his associate's degree in general studies from El Camino College in 1994.

He has two daughters, Ashley and Taylor, and a son, Brady.

Cornerbacks

Second Year

McMURRY (TEXAS), 2007

Karl Scott begins his second year as Alabama's cornerbacks coach.

In 2018, Scott was charged with replacing five starters in the defensive secondary from the Tide's 2017 national championship team with Minkah Fitzpatrick, Ronnie Harrison, Anthony Averett, Levi Wallace and Tony Brown all off to the NFL.

The completely overhauled secondary turned in a quality season, ranking 26th nationally in pass efficiency defense (115.79) and 33rd in pass yards allowed (198.3). Led by consensus All-America safety Deionte Thompson, the Tide allowed just 22 passing touchdowns while intercepting 15 passes. Thompson was second on the team in tackles with 79 while picking off two passes and breaking up six more. Safety Xavier McKinney also excelled at safety with 73 stops, six tackles for loss, three sacks and two interceptions. At cornerback, true freshman Patrick Surtain II earned freshman All-America honors with 37 tackles and an interception while Shyheim Carter played the nickel and added 44 tackles, two interceptions and 3.5 tackles for loss.

Scott spent the previous two seasons as the secondary coach at Texas Tech before being named the defensive coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette in late December of 2017. His secondary at Texas Tech in 2017, posted an impressive turnaround, helping produce 29 turnovers, including 14 interceptions. He mentored two All-Big 12 selections in Jah'Shawn Johnson and Justus Parker.

Prior to his time at Texas Tech, Scott spent one season as the safeties coach at Louisiana Tech under head coach Skip Holtz. He helped the Bulldogs to a 9-4 record in 2015 and a second-place finish in the Western Division of Conference USA. Louisiana Tech defeated Arkansas State in the New Orleans Bowl as the Bulldogs finished eighth nationally in defensive touchdowns after forcing 22 turnovers, including 13 interceptions.

Scott worked at Southeastern Louisiana for three years, serving as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 2014 and linebackers coach in 2012-13. During his tenure with the Lions, he helped lead the program to back-to-back Southland Conference championships (2013-14) and two NCAA Football Championship Subdivision playoff appearances.

His 2014 defense at Southeastern led the Southland Conference in total defense while ranking seventh in the FCS. The Lions also led the nation in pass efficiency defense (94.3), and ranked fifth in red zone defense, eighth in scoring defense (17.7 ppg) and 11th in turnovers gained (28).

Isiah Corbett and Harlan Miller were two mainstays on Scott's defense at Southeastern Louisiana, both earning All-America honors in 2014, while seven other defenders – Denzel Thompson, Jacob Newman, Tyler Stoddard, A.J. Bowen, Drew Misita, Jordan Batiste and Micah Eugene – joined the pair on the All-Southland Conference teams.

Scott's linebacker unit was a key factor in Southeastern's 2013 Southland Conference championship campaign. His corps benefited from the emergence of Cqulin Hubert, who was named Southland Defensive Player of the Year after recording a team-leading 90 tackles, including 11.0 that went for a loss.

Before his time at Southeastern Louisiana, Scott served as recruiting coordinator, defensive backs coach and linebackers coach for four years at Tusculum College from 2008-11.

He made an immediate impact at Tusculum, as he mentored two all-conference selections in Justin Scott and Jarvis Littlejohn. Scott collected all-region honors following the 2008 season, establishing new school records for single-season (22) and career (51) tackles for loss while finishing the season with 113 tackles and 277 for his career.

Scott's coaching career began at Delta State as a graduate assistant in 2007. He coached with Pete Golding, who joined the Tide's staff in December of 2017, at Southeastern in 2012-13 and at Tusculum from 2008-09.

A native of Houston, Texas, Scott played at McMurry University in Abilene, Texas, where he earned his degree in exercise and sports studies in 2007. Scott and his wife Taron have a daughter, Kina Bailey.

Outside Linebackers

Fourth Year

PITTSBURGH, 1982

Sal Sunseri, a former All-American linebacker at Pittsburgh, returned to the Alabama coaching staff in 2019 after seven years away to begin his fourth year of coaching outside linebackers for head coach Nick Saban.

In Tuscaloosa, he inherits a talented group of outside linebackers led by redshirt senior Anfernee Jennings along with Terrell Lewis, Christopher Allen, Eyabi Anoma and Jarez Parks.

Sunseri returns to Tuscaloosa after making an immediate impact on the Florida defensive line in 2018. His front wreaked havoc on opposing teams' backfields as the Gators forced 11 fumbles and totaled 37 sacks in 2018, marking the first time the program achieved those combined totals since 2015. He helped Jachai Polite to an All-America caliber season with 45 tackles, 17.5 tackles for loss and 11 sacks while Jabari Zuniga added another 45 tackles, 11 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks.

He arrived in Gainesville after three seasons as the Oakland Raiders' linebackers coach (2015-17) tutoring the likes of Navarro Bowman, Bruce Irvin and Malcolm Smith.

Prior to Oakland, he worked on Jimbo Fisher's staff at Florida State in 2013 and 2014. Sunseri coached defensive ends and was promoted to defensive head coach in 2014. The Seminoles were 28-1 during Sunseri's tenure, winning the BCS national title at the end of the 2013 season and qualifying for the first College Football Playoff in 2014. The 2013 defense led the nation in scoring defense and ranked No. 3 in total defense.

Sunseri left Alabama following the 2011 season to serve as Tennessee's defensive coordinator. With the Vols, Sunseri coached two of the nation's top defensive players in linebacker A.J. Johnson and corner Byron Moore. Johnson was fourth in the nation and led the SEC with an average of 11.5 tackles per game while Moore led the SEC in interceptions and ranked 11th nationally.

The Crimson Tide's 2011 defense proved to be one of the best in college football history, leading the nation in numerous defensive categories, while Courtney Upshaw was named a finalist for the Butkus and Lombardi Awards. Sunseri was also named a finalist for the Broyles Award, presented to the nation's top assistant coach. In 2010, linebacker Dont'a Hightower played a number of roles on his way to earning second team All-SEC honors while Upshaw led the Tide with 14.5 tackles for loss and seven sacks.

In first season at Alabama, Sunseri helped guide the Crimson Tide to the national championship behind a dominant defense that ranked second nationally in four major categories – rushing defense, pass efficiency defense, total defense and scoring defense.

Before his time with the Crimson Tide, Sunseri coached a defensive line with the Carolina Panthers that was regarded as one of the best in the NFL from 2002-08. Defensive ends Julius Peppers and Mike Rucker along with defensive tackle Kris Jenkins earned Pro Bowl honors during Sunseri's tenure. He produced at least one Pro Bowl defensive lineman in five of six seasons as defensive line coach. The Panthers were among the top 10 in the NFL in terms of fewest yards allowed in four of his seven seasons and made three playoff appearances.

Prior to his time at Carolina, Sunseri worked as the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Michigan State in 2001 after spending 2000 at LSU under head coach Nick Saban in the same capacity. He coached at Alabama A&M in 1998 and 1999 as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach following three seasons from 1995-97 at Louisville as linebackers coach.

Working his way up the coaching ladder, Sunseri spent one year each at Illinois State as defensive coordinator in 1994 and Iowa Wesleyan as assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and special teams coach in 1993. He broke into coaching at his alma mater, Pittsburgh, in 1985 and coached the defensive line and linebackers before being named assistant head coach in 1992.

Sunseri was a walk-on at Pitt in 1978 and ended his career as a team captain and consensus All-American in 1981. He was drafted in the 10th round by the Pittsburgh Steelers but had his pro career cut short by a knee injury in training camp. He received a bachelor's degree in communications from Pittsburgh in 1982.

He is married to the former Roxann Evans, who was a varsity gymnast at Pittsburgh. The couple has two daughters, Jaclyn and Ashlyn, and two sons, Santino and Vinnie, who are both graduate assistants for the Crimson Tide.

Wide Receivers

First Year

NEW MEXICO, 2003

Holmon Wiggins begins his first season at Alabama on head coach Nick Saban's staff as the Crimson Tide's wide receivers coach.

Wiggins comes to Tuscaloosa after three years (2015-18) coaching wide receivers at Virginia Tech under head coach Justin Fuente. He also worked for Fuente at Memphis for four seasons (2012-15).

At Alabama, Wiggins inherits one of the best wide receiving corps in the nation with Biletnikoff Award winner Jerry Jeudy, in addition to Henry Ruggs III, DeVonta Smith and Jaylen Waddle. The quartet combined to catch 201 passes for 3,597 yards and 38 touchdowns in 2018 as part of one of the most prolific offensive seasons in Crimson Tide history.

Wiggins oversaw the development of Tech's wide receivers over the past three years, highlighted by Cam Phillips, who established himself as Tech's career leader in receptions and receiving yards. Phillips caught 76 passes for 983 yards as a junior and then followed that with 71 catches for 964 yards as a senior.

A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Wiggins had four wide receivers catch at least 26 passes in 2018. Damon Hazelton led the group with 51 catches for 802 yards and eight touchdowns, while Eric Kumah caught 42 balls for 559 yards and seven scores. Tre Turner averaged 20.6 yards per catch while Hezekiah Grimsley hauled in 31 passes for 382 yards.

The 2017 corps at Tech was led by senior Cam Phillips who caught 71 passes for 964 yards and a career-best seven touchdowns. Phillips earned first team All-ACC honors in 2017 and earned a spot on the Buffalo Bills roster in 2018. Phillips became Virginia Tech's career leader in receptions and receiving yards by the end of his time in Blacksburg.

Wiggins was part of a staff that helped guide Tech's offense to 10 single-season records during their first year in 2016, including points (490), passing first downs (172), touchdown passes (31), total offense (6,223), completion pct. (62.1 percent), passing yards (3,660) and pass completions (279).

He helped continue the ascent of Isaiah Ford, who broke his own Tech single-season record with 79 receptions in 2016, registering 1,094 yards and seven touchdowns in the process. Phillips, who earned Belk Bowl Most Valuable Player honors in 2016, concluded his junior campaign by setting personal bests in receptions (76) and receiving yards (983).

Wiggins was an integral component of Fuente's staff that helped lead Memphis to 19 victories and back-to-back bowl appearances in 2014-15. Memphis receivers registered 148 receptions, 1,687 yards and four touchdowns in 2013 and upped that total to 205 receptions for 2,422 yards and 14 scores in 2014 before hauling in 255 passes for 3,277 yards and 19 touchdowns in 2015.

He drastically improved the production of the wide receivers corps at Memphis when he arrived in 2012, with the receivers accounting for 125 receptions and 1,417 yards. The Tigers registered 53 receiving touchdowns in 2014-15, compared to only 24 in the two seasons before Wiggins' arrival.

Wiggins joined the Memphis program after a one-year stint tutoring the running backs at Tulsa in 2011. The TU running backs combined for 2,006 rushing yards, while H-Back Willie Carter led Tulsa with 868 receiving yards that season, meriting a spot on the All-Conference USA second team.

Prior to Tulsa, he enjoyed a five-year tour of duty coaching running backs at Illinois State from 2006-10, helping guide the Redbirds to the FCS quarterfinals in his initial season on the staff. Under his tutelage in 2006, running back Pierre Rembert earned All-America accolades and rushed for a school-record 1,743 yards. From 2006-08, Illinois State averaged 187.7 rushing yards per game and racked up 76 rushing scores.

Wiggins began his coaching career at his alma mater the University of New Mexico, after an outstanding playing career with the Lobos. He was a three-year starter at running back, finishing his career with 1,833 rushing yards while setting the Lobos' single-season record for punt returns (46) and punt return yards (392). He is a 2003 graduate of the University of New Mexico.

Wiggins and his wife Dominique have four daughters, Justyce, Karyn, Brooklyn and Journye and two sons, Kingston and Legend.

Strength & Conditioning

13th Year

COACHES/STAFF

The booming voice you hear leading a pre-practice stretch or encouraging a Crimson Tide player to finish a workout session strong is that of Head Strength and Conditioning Coach Scott Cochran. The high-energy coach, who is a two-time national strength coach of the year, joined the Alabama staff in 2007 after spending three seasons with the New Orleans Hornets of the NBA as an assistant strength coach. Cochran has been on Nick Saban's staff for all six national titles, as he served as an assistant at LSU in 2003.

Cochran, in his 13th year at Alabama, is nationally regarded as one of the best in the area of strength and conditioning – and the performances of Alabama's players on the field prove that to be true. He received one of the highest honors in his field when he was named the 2011 Samson Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year, as featured in American Football Quarterly. He earlier was named the Samson Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year following the 2008 season.

Prior to the start of spring drills, Cochran implements Coach Saban's offseason workout plan, which includes the well-known "Fourth Quarter Program" – a very important step in helping Alabama players develop physically and prepare for the upcoming practices.

It is no coincidence that with improvements off the field in strength and conditioning, Alabama is known as one of the most physically dominant teams in the country. The main goal of the program is to win the fourth quarter and wear down the opponent as the game goes on. On the way to the 2009 national championship, Alabama did just that as they won the fourth quarter by an astounding scoring margin of 121-32. The Tide continued the trend of finishing in 2011, as it again dominated the fourth quarter en route to the program's second national championship in three years with a 111-18 fourth-quarter scoring margin. A third title in four years proved strong in the fourth quarter as well posting a 118-47 advantage. The 2015 team won the fourth quarter 138-80 while the 2017 title team boasted 97-47 advantage.

Cochran oversees Alabama's 37,000-square-foot weight room that is one of the largest venues of its kind in the country. The $9-million facility features 21,000-square feet on the first level and 16,000-square feet on the second level. The ground level comprises a weight room, highlighted by 20 combination racks that feature platforms built into the ground for a level surface that provides a safer training environment. The weight room has a state-of-the-art performance nutrition center to fuel Alabama student-athletes, plus physicians' offices and strength and conditioning offices.

While in the NBA with the Hornets from 2004-06, Cochran's duties included assisting with the exercise and strength conditioning programs to help players achieve and maintain optimal fitness throughout the NBA season. With the Hornets, he worked with NBA standouts Chris Paul, Baron Davis, David West and Tyson Chandler.

Prior to joining the Hornets staff, Cochran worked for his alma mater Louisiana State as an assistant strength coach in 2003 (13-1, BCS national champions) and 2004 (9-3, Capital One Bowl). He was a graduate assistant in Baton Rouge from 2001-03. Cochran returned to LSU after starting his career in the strength and conditioning field at University Laboratory High School in Baton Rouge, La. He held that position from 1998-2001 before returning to LSU as a graduate assistant for all sports from 2001-03. Cochran then was hired on to the full-time staff for the 2003-04 season.

A native of New Orleans, Cochran received a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2001 and added a master's degree in sports management from LSU in 2003. Cochran was born on March 21, 1979, and is married to the former Cissy Schepens. They have three children, including one son, Beau, and two daughters, Savannah and Lucy.

Ellis Ponder is in his third year as Alabama's Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations and his fourth year with the program. He was elevated to the director's role in February of 2017 after spending the 2015 and 2016 seasons as the Crimson Tide's associate director of football operations.

His primary role with the Crimson Tide is to oversee all day-to-day organizational and operational aspects of the Alabama football program. Ponder provides oversight and direction for the football program in all off-field areas including the management of football operating budget, operations and all team travel. Ponder also serves as the football program's liaison to athletic administration.

During his two years as associate director of football operations, Ponder also assisted with all team travel, logistics and the day-to-day operations of the football program.

BURTON BURNS

Assistant AD, Football

NEBRASKA, 1976

Burton Burns begins his 13th season with the Alabama Crimson Tide football program in 2019 and his second as the assistant athletics director for football. He previously served as the associate head coach and running backs coach for 11 seasons (2007-17).

Over his 20 seasons as a college assistant, Burns produced versatile running backs who were effective in every phase of the game. His players proved to be equally effective on the ground and in the passing game. Few in college football can say they have coached a Heisman Trophy finalist, but Burns can claim a trio dating back to the 2009 season, including the 2009 recipient Mark Ingram, 2011 finalist Trent Richardson and 2015 winner Derrick Henry.

The New Orleans native was regarded as one of the best assistant coaches in college football and was named the Football Scoop Running Backs Coach of the Year following the 2008 season. Burns was also named one of the nation's top recruiters in all of college sports in 2011 by ESPN The Magazine.

In 2017, Burns' backfield boasted Damien Harris, Bo Scarbrough, Josh Jacobs, Najee Harris and Brian Robinson Jr. The group combined to gain 2,415 yards and tally 25 touchdowns.

Burns developed a trio of talented backs in 2016 with Damien Harris leading the team with 1,037 yards while averaging 7.1 yards per carry.

In 2015, Henry stepped into the starting role and flourished with an SEC-record 2,219 yards on 395 carries and 28 rushing touchdowns. His 2,219 yards were the fifth-most in a single season in college football history. Henry also became the second Tide player to win the Doak Walker and Maxwell Awards and the first Tide player to capture the Walter Camp Player of the Year.

He turned in another masterful coaching job in 2013 with T.J. Yeldon cracking the 1,000-yard barrier as the back accumulated 1,235 yards and 14 touchdowns while backup sophomore Kenyan Drake accounted for 694 yards and eight scores.

As injuries hammered away at the Tide's depth at running back in 2012, Eddie Lacy and Yeldon stepped to the forefront and combined to rush for 2,430 yards and 29 rushing touchdowns (32 total touchdowns). The pair became the first Alabama running backs to rush for more than 1,000 yards in the same season. UA ranked 16th nationally in rushing and second in the SEC with an average of 227.5 yards per game.

Under Burns, the 2011 Crimson Tide rushing offense ranked 16th in the nation and first in the Southeastern Conference, collecting 214.5 yards per game. In addition to being a Heisman Trophy finalist, Richardson became the first Alabama player to win the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. He was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Year, ranking fifth in the nation and first in the league with 129.2 yards on the ground per game.

Under Burns' guidance in 2009, Ingram was awarded Alabama's first Heisman Trophy and earned unanimous All-America honors. Ingram set the school's single-season rushing record with 1,658 yards and 17 touchdowns while adding 32 receptions for 334 yards and three scores.

Burns also developed one of the nation's strongest running games in 2008, as Alabama finished third in the SEC and 30th nationally with an average of 184.6 rushing yards per game. Glen Coffee, a first team All-SEC selection and third-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers, led the way with 1,383 yards.

An assistant coach at Clemson for eight seasons before coming to Alabama, Burns was a major factor in producing six of the top-10 offenses in Clemson history. As running backs coach for the Tigers, Burns tutored star runners such as 2005 ACC Rookie of the Year James Davis, 2006 freshman record-setter C.J. Spiller, Reggie Merriweather, Travis Zachery and Duane Coleman at Clemson, plus former New York Jets back Jerald Sowell at Tulane.

Burns spent eight seasons with head coach Tommy Bowden at Clemson, after a four-year stint at Tulane that concluded with a 12-0 season in 1998. He logged nine seasons as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Saint Augustine High School in New Orleans. Burns helped lead Saint Augustine to district titles in 1987, 1992 and 1993 in his second stint at the school. His first experience as a coach also was at Saint Augustine, where he served as an assistant from 1977-79 and helped the school win three other district championships on the way to consecutive state titles in 1978-79. Burns also coached at Booker T. Washington High School in 1980 before a five-year stint as an assistant coach at Southern University in Baton Rouge, La., from 1981-85.

As a player, Burns played fullback (1971-75) at Nebraska under head coach Tom Osborne. A member of three Cornhusker teams that won at least nine games, Burns participated in the Orange Bowl, Cotton Bowl and Sugar Bowl. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska in 1976. Burns is married to the former Connie Winder. The couple has three daughters, Amber, Christy and Erin, and a son, Damon. A 30-year veteran of higher education, Dr. Bell had previously served at the Capstone for 16 years as a faculty member and then department head of mechanical engineering. He founded and directed UA's Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies, an interdisciplinary research center producing new generations of engineers and scientists

Since his return to the Capstone, Dr. Bell has led the University to develop and implement a strategic plan, Advancing the Flagship, which promotes institutional progress with scholarship and teaching, research and creative activity, inclusion and diversity, and the recruitment and retention of highly qualified faculty and staff. Three years after the plan's launch, UA has seen an increase in both student retention and graduation rates, has increased faculty headcount to support the University's instruction, research and service goals, and has witnessed the growth of sponsored program awards crucial to the direct learning and experience opportunities for students, and experienced two consecutive historic fundraising years. New interdisciplinary research centers have also been established and join many other centers on campus focused on solving critical, real-world challenges. Under Dr. Bell's guidance, UA is steadfastly expanding campus facilities and bolstering academic and co-curricular programs, all of which continue to draw exceptional students to Alabama.

Prior to becoming UA's president, Dr. Bell was executive vice president and provost at Louisiana State University and served as both the chief academic officer and the chief operating officer. Before his time at LSU, Dr. Bell served the University of Kansas as dean of the School of Engineering. He joined UA in 1986 as an assistant professor in the department of mechanical engineering. He was later named department head, where he led the development of academic programs until accepting the Kansas deanship in 2002.

An Abilene, Texas native, Dr. Bell earned a degree in nuclear engineering from Texas A&M in 1979. He earned his master's and doctoral degrees in mechanical engineering from the same university in 1981 and 1986, respectively. With research interests in combustion engines, he has expertise in fuels for engines, innovative engine designs and modeling of engine and engine processes.

It was also at Texas A&M that Dr. Bell met his wife, Susan. They are the proud parents of three adult children, Stuart, Stacy and Stephen and two delightful granddaughters. Both of Dr. Bell's sons followed his example and are engineers. His daughter Stacy is a UA graduate.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Greg Byrne, one of the most acclaimed and respected administrators in collegiate athletics, began his tenure as Alabama's Director of Athletics on March 1, 2017. His role at Alabama is his third venture at the helm of a major collegiate athletics program.

Since taking over, Byrne developed and implemented The Crimson Standard, a five-year strategic plan outlining the mission statement and core values of Alabama Athletics as well as benchmarks in the areas of academics, student-athlete welfare, athletics success, financial resources, facilities, staffing and operating with integrity. In addition, The Crimson Standard, a 10-year, $600 million capital initiative focused on the renovation of facilities and development of an infrastructure that will drive future success was created.

Alabama Athletics celebrated its highest finish in program history in the Learfield Directors' Cup at the conclusion of the 2017-18 season, placing 14th thanks to a national championship in football, runner-up finishes in men's and women's golf and NCAA postseason appearances by men's basketball, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's tennis, men's and women's cross country, men's and women's indoor track & field and men's and women's outdoor track & field. The Tide also continued its run of excellence in the classroom, leading the nation in Academic All-Americans with 11.

Prior to coming to Alabama, Byrne was Vice President for Athletics at the University of Arizona from 2010-17 and was Director of Athletics at Mississippi State University from 2008-10. With more than 20 years of experience as an athletics administrator, Byrne has fashioned an impressive administrative career hallmarked by consistent success in fundraising, innovative strategies and competitive success with a strong emphasis on academic excellence.

Throughout his career, Byrne has been consistently more impactful and successful with each step up the administrative ladder. As a fundraiser, he has been directly involved in raising more than $200 million in gifts during his career. As a leader of competitive athletics programs, he has fostered major improvements across the spectrum of sports at both programs he has led. A proponent of developing student-athletes into productive people after college, Byrne has led programs that have attained academic success at levels not reached prior to his tenure.

He also has deep experience working in the Southeastern Conference (SEC), having spent 2002 to 2005 at the University of Kentucky as Associate Athletics Director for Development and Fundraising before a four-year stint at Mississippi State (2006-10). From 2006-08, Byrne served as Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at MSU before becoming Director of Athletics.

Under Byrne's leadership, Arizona Athletics underwent more than $140 million in construction and renovation of athletics facilities. That work was highlighted by the $72 million Lowell-Stevens Football Facility, the addition of two video boards in Arizona Stadium (football), and a new scoreboard in the McKale Center (basketball). Additionally, Byrne oversaw a $30 million renovation of the McKale Center, a project that included upgraded locker rooms, seating, restrooms, concessions, enhanced lighting and a new playing floor.

At Mississippi State, where he was the youngest athletics director in the SEC and the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level, Byrne oversaw the hiring of head football coach Dan Mullen and former head baseball coach and current Director of Athletics John Cohen.

In addition to his role as Director of Athletics, Byrne serves on several committees at both the conference and national levels including the United States Olympic Committee Collegiate Advisory Council, the Division I Football Oversight Committee and the Southeastern Conference Security Committee. He is currently also serving his one-year term as president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

As the son of veteran athletics administrator Bill Byrne, one of the nation's most prominent college sports administrators with 30 years of experience as an Athletics Director, Greg Byrne has been around the enterprise of running successful athletic programs for most of his life.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona State University in 1994 and his master's degree from Mississippi State University in 2009. Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two sons, Nick and Davis.

THE BEAR

"I ain't never been nothin' but a winner."

PAUL W. "BEAR" BRYANT
Alabama Head Coach, 1958-82

LEGEND HAS IT

A young Bryant goes to the Fordyce Theatre in Arkansas where anyone who will wrestle a bear can win a dollar. Bryant wrestles the bear but the owner and the bear escape without paying. Bryant didn't get the buck that day, but he earned a nickname, Bear.

Paul William Bryant retired from coaching as the game's all-time winningest coach with a 323-85-17 (.780) overall record. He spent 25 of his 37 years on the sidelines at The University of Alabama, where he returned the Crimson Tide football program to national prominence.

During his time in Tuscaloosa, Bryant compiled a 232-46-9 (.824) record and directed Alabama to six national championships. He also led the Crimson Tide to 13 SEC titles, was the national coach of the year three times and the SEC coach of the year on eight occasions.

In 1958, Bryant returned to his alma mater and the rebuilding process was underway. In his second year back at the Capstone, he beat Auburn and took the Tide to its first of 25 straight bowl appearances. In 1961, Bryant's first recruiting class, highlighted by quarterback Pat Trammell, linebacker Lee Roy Jordan and lineman Billy Neighbors, helped the Tide capture the first of Bryant's six national titles.

Two more titles followed in 1964 and 1965 and despite an 11-0 record the Tide missed out on a third in 1966. Bryant installed the "wishbone" offense in 1971 to revamp the Tide program. Over the next 10 years, Alabama dominated the college football scene, winning 108 games, three more national titles and placing Bryant atop college football's all-time leaderboard for career wins.

In 1934, the first year of the Southeastern Conference, Bryant helped the Crimson Tide win the initial SEC championship and a national championship as a player. Bryant became known in football folklore as the 'other end' to Don Hutson as Alabama went 10-0 and knocked off Stanford 29-13 in the Rose Bowl to claim the school's fourth national crown.

Bryant's head coaching career began in 1945 at Maryland. The following year he made the move to Kentucky for eight years and followed that with a four-year stint at Texas A&M. Bryant guided teams to 15 conference titles, including 13 at Alabama, across his illustrious coaching career.

BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM

"Bryant-Denny Stadium is one of the most iconic football facilities in the nation and certainly one of the crown jewels of The University of Alabama campus. The passion, support and excitement provided by all Crimson Tide supporters is second to none, making for a truly special experience for all in attendance."

Greg Byrne
Director of Athletics

With renovation projects of $47 and $65 million to renovate and expand the north and south end zones, Bryant-Denny Stadium truly is one of the top football facilities in the nation. The current seating capacity of 101,821 makes Bryant-Denny Stadium one of the nation's largest on-campus football stadiums.

The most recent renovation not only pushed capacity to 101,821, but it gave Bryant-Denny Stadium an additional 36 skyboxes and 1,700 club seats. The 2010 renovation marked the fourth expansion since 1988 of this magnificent edifice and was the seventh time Bryant-Denny Stadium has been expanded since it was originally constructed in 1929. Other expansions were completed in 1946, 1961, 1966, 1988, 1998 and 2006.

Since those early games, a number of projects have expanded Bryant-Denny Stadium to its current capacity. When Alabama and Hawai'i met to open the 2006 season, a sellout crowd marked the largest crowd to view a college football game in the state of Alabama. That record fell when 101,821 fans filled the seats for the Crimson Tide's 2010 season opener against San Jose State.

The 2006 expansion project, which began immediately following the 2004 football season, also added three levels of premium seating, a pair of large video scoreboards in the north end zone, and state-of-the-art, wrap-around display boards situated on the facades of the east and west upper decks.

A unique aspect of the "new" stadium is a plaza connecting the stadium with University Boulevard. The plaza, which quickly became a focal point on game day Saturdays, honors Alabama's national championship coaches and commemorates the Tide's 17 national and 27 SEC titles.

The 2006 expansion added 38 luxury skyboxes, bringing the total number of skyboxes in the stadium to 123. The most recent expansion (2010) increased that number to 159 skyboxes. Other additions included a club level area and traditional upper-deck seating. Office space was included, as well as a home team locker room located in the north end zone. A state-of-the-art sound system was installed before the start of the 2015 season.

The 1998 east side expansion added 10,000 bleacher seats and two spiral walkways to give the stadium a more symmetrical appearance. A total of 81 skyboxes, on two levels, also were added. The skyboxes were built in two sizes, 24-seat capacity (18) and 16-seat capacity (64). In 1999, four additional skyboxes were added and a scoreboard with video replay capabilities was installed in the south end.

Other additions to Bryant-Denny Stadium include two east side reception areas for Scholarship and A-Club level patrons. These areas are located above the center entrance on the east side and include rooms large enough to host receptions and pre-game meal functions. A bank of lights was also added on the east side.

The 2018 season was only the 18th time in the stadium's history that Alabama has played all of its home games at Bryant-Denny. From 1900 until 2003, Alabama played at least one home game at Birmingham's Legion Field.

The Crimson Tide owns an impressive 266-53-3 (.831) all-time record at Bryant-Denny Stadium and a 352-66-3 (.840) mark in all games played in Tuscaloosa. Dating back to the 1988 renovation of Bryant-Denny Stadium, more than 17.8 million fans have witnessed the Crimson Tide play in 213 home games over the past 31 seasons.

TOP BOWL TEAM

The Crimson Tide earned a berth in its fifth consecutive College Football Playoff Semifinal in 2018, playing in the Capital One Orange Bowl. It was Alabama's 15th straight bowl game, second only to the school record of 25 straight bowl appearances from 1959-1983.

THE CRIMSON TIDE HAS BEEN TO MORE BOWL GAMES (66) THAN ANY TEAM IN THE COUNTRY

The Alabama football team has made an NCAA-leading 66 bowl appearances. The Crimson Tide has played in more bowl games (66) and earned more bowl wins (38) than any team in college football history. Alabama made its ninth Orange Bowl appearance at the end of the 2018 season before advancing to the College Football Playoff National Championship in Santa Clara, Calif. The Tide's 16 Sugar Bowl appearances are the most of any program in the bowl's storied history. Alabama has also appeared in eight Cotton Bowls and six Rose Bowl games in its history. The Crimson Tide has been bowling for 15 consecutive seasons, something that has not happened since Alabama played in 25 straight bowl games from 1959-83.

THE BEST IN THE SEC

ALABAMA OWNS 27 SEC TITLES

ALABAMA HAS A WINNING RECORD AGAINST EVERY SCHOOL IN THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

The Southeastern Conference begins its 88th season of play in 2019. The league began play in 1933 with 13 schools - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

Alabama won the league's first conference title in 1933 by virtue of its 5-0-1 conference record, and has won a total of 27 SEC titles in the school's illustrious history.

Sewanee left the conference following the 1940 season, while Georgia Tech left after the 1963 season and Tulane followed after the 1965 campaign. Arkansas and South Carolina entered the SEC prior to the 1992 season, and Texas A&M and Missouri began play in 2012.

ALABAMA HAS BEEN A FORCE IN THE SEC OVER THE PAST 11 SEASONS

Alabama dominated the 2008 and 2009 seasons in Southeastern Conference play with a 16-0 combined mark in the regular season, capturing back-to-back Western Division championships and the 2009 SEC championship. The 2011 season saw the Crimson Tide win the program's 14th national championship but finish second in the SEC West to LSU, who the Tide would later defeat 21-0 in the Allstate BCS National Championship Game. Alabama won its 23rd SEC championship in 2012, followed by its 15th national championship. In 2013, UA tied for the Western Division crown with a 7-1 record.

Alabama secured the program's 24th, 25th and 26th SEC titles in 2014, 2015 and 2016 becoming the first team to earn three consecutive SEC Championship Game victories since Florida won four in a row from 1993-96. In 2014, the Tide captured the trophy with a 42-13 win over Missouri, while the 2015 victory came against Florida, 29-15. Alabama defeated the Gators for the second consecutive year in 2016 by a score of 54-16. In 2017, the Crimson Tide tied for the Western Division crown with a 7-1 record on the way to an NCAA-record 17th national championship.

The 2018 season saw the Tide finish a perfect 8-0 once again on the way to a 27th SEC title thanks to a thrilling 35-28 comeback win over Georgia. The 2018 finish runs Alabama's conference record to 79-9 (.898) over the last 11 seasons.

The SEC was the first conference to split into two divisions and have its regular season culminate in a conference championship game. The first SEC Championship Game was held on Dec. 5, 1992, at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala. The SEC Championship Game moved to the Georgia Dome in 1994 and was staged there through 2016. The game moved next door to Mercedes-Benz Stadium in 2017.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL CAPITAL OF THE NATION

"When it comes to spring football spectacles, it doesn't get any bigger than Tuscaloosa, Alabama."

CHRIS FOWLER
ESPN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

A-DAY PHENOMENON

Spring games across the country have taken on a whole new meaning since Alabama's A-Day Game sparked a new phenomenon in 2007 when an amazing 92,138 fans packed Bryant-Denny Stadium. Even more impressive were the 5,000-plus fans that were turned away at the gate and spent the afternoon tailgating around the stadium just like a fall Saturday when the stadium was deemed at capacity. Schools across the nation have followed the Tide's lead and begun working to make their spring games a focal point. ESPN has taken notice of the spring game excitement and started making it part of the college football coverage each spring. The ESPN family of networks have televised eight of the last 10 A-Day Games nationally on ESPN, ESPN2 or ESPNU. The 2012 game was televised by Comcast. The last 13 spring games have seen an average of 78,485 fans pack Bryant-Denny Stadium after 62,219 took in the game in 2019. The 2008 game had 78,200 with 84,050 showing up in 2009. A crowd of 91,312 came out in 2010 and a school-record 92,310 in 2011. The 2012 game had 78,526 in attendance; 78,315 fans witnessed the 2013 event; 73,509 in 2014; 65,175 in 2015; 76,212 in 2016; 74,326 in 2017; and 74,732 in 2018. Over the past 13 years the Crimson Tide has drawn a mind-boggling 1,020,301 fans for its annual A-Day Game. Prior to the start of Alabama's A-Day Game each spring, the Crimson Tide's permanent team captains from the previous year are forever captured at the base of Denny Chimes. The captains have their handprints and footprints placed in cement to recognize their roles as team leaders. The 2018 captains were running back Damien Harris, tight end Hale Hentges, linebacker Christian Miller and offensive lineman Ross Pierschbacher.

THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

Alabama has proven to be one of the top television draws in college football due to its history, tradition, personalities and fans. The Crimson Tide was televised nationally 15 times in 2018 and has played in 143 nationally televised games since 2008. Further evidence was the presence of ESPN GameDay at four of Alabama's 2008 games, three in 2009, two more in 2010, three in 2011, four in 2012, four in 2013, twice in 2014, four times in 2015, three times in 2016, three times in 2017 and four in 2018. Alabama's popularity also has been a draw for national publications. The Crimson Tide has been represented on the covers of many of those publications in recent years. The Tide has appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated 26 times since 2009, including two times in 2018, four times in 2017, two times in 2016, three times in 2015, twice in 2013 and 2014, four times in 2012, three times in 2011, once in 2010 and three times in 2009. In 2008, head coach Nick Saban was featured on the cover of Forbes. Saban became the first college football coach to be featured on the cover of Forbes since the publication began in 1917.

NATIONAL TITLES

From the roaring 1920s and Wallace Wade, through legendary coach Frank Thomas, on to the dynasty that was the Paul “Bear” Bryant era, through Gene Stallings’ 1992 national championship team and, finally, Nick Saban’s five titles in Tuscaloosa, the Alabama Crimson Tide has helped define college football for nearly a century. Alabama has captured a college football-best 17 national championships and an impressive 31 conference titles, including a conference-best 27 SEC titles.

Bryant led the Tide to six national championships during his 25 years roaming the sidelines with national titles in 1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978 and 1979. Wade won Alabama’s first three titles in 1925, 1926 and 1930. Thomas then led Alabama to championships in 1934 and 1941 while Stallings’ 1992 team has proven to be one of the best in college football history.

Saban’s 2009 team carved an identity of its own with suffocating defense and an efficient and explosive offense. That 14-0 team produced the school and conference record for wins in a season, defeated No. 1 Florida in the SEC Championship Game and bested No. 2 Texas in the BCS National Championship Game to claim the title. The 2011 team avenged a regular-season loss to LSU in the BCS National Championship with a resounding 21-0 shutout of the Tigers in New Orleans. The defense was historic in 2011, leading all four major categories nationally, while the offense averaged almost 35 points per game. In 2012, Alabama beat LSU with a last-second comeback in Death Valley, escaped the SEC Championship Game with a thrilling 32-28 win over Georgia, and finished the year off by crushing then-No. 1 Notre Dame 42-14 in the BCS National Championship Game.

In 2015, the second year of the College Football Playoff, the Tide shut out Michigan State, 38-0, in the CFP Semifinal at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic and followed that up with a 45-40 win over Clemson to claim Alabama’s first CFP National Championship. Saban’s fifth title in Tuscaloosa in 2017 was punctuated with a dramatic come-from-behind 26-23 victory over Georgia in the CFP National Championship Game. Alabama trailed the Bulldogs 13-0 at halftime and made the move to Tua Tagovailoa at quarterback who helped engineer a comeback for the ages. Tagovailoa threw three touchdown passes after halftime, including a 41-yard strike on second-and-26 in overtime to DeVonta Smith to seal the victory. Alabama exacted sweet revenge over Clemson just seven days prior in the semifinal game at the Sugar Bowl with a 24-6 win.

Alabama's football history has been about champions and the 1925 team garnered the first national title by posting a perfect 10-0 record and beating powerful Washington 20-19 in the Rose Bowl. It marked the first time a southern team had been to Pasadena, and the locals appeared shocked with the Tide victory.

Senior stars Johnny Mack Brown and All-American Pooley Hubert mesmerized the crowds of the 1920s with their unique skills. Known as the "Dothan Antelope," Brown was the scourge of Bama foes. Brown scored on a 58-yard reception from Grant Gillis and a 62-yard catch from Hubert in the Rose Bowl win.

In the win over Washington, Hubert also rushed for a touchdown and starred defensively. Both Brown and Hubert would become College Football Hall of Famers. Brown and guard Bill Buckler also were All-Southern Conference selections.

PASADENA BOUND

Four teams (Alabama, Stanford, Navy and Lafayette) had been declared winners of the 1926 national championship before the Crimson Tide reached Pasadena to play Stanford in the Rose Bowl. A 7-7 tie between the Southern and Western Conference champions did not settle any scores New Years Day, 1927.

The 1926 squad featured All-Americans Hoyt "Wu" Winslett and Fred Pickhard. Three other Alabama men, backs Ernie Barnes and Herschel Caldwell and center Gordon "Sherlock" Holmes joined them on the 11-member All-Southern Conference team.

Besides the Rose Bowl standoff against Stanford, Alabama's only other challenge came in a 2-0 tiff with then-powerful Sewanee. A blocked punt that went out of the end zone by Pickhard proved to be the difference in the Sewanee contest. The very next week, Pickhard blocked two punts, both resulting in touchdowns, in a 24-0 win over LSU. Alabama clinched a Rose Bowl berth with a 33-6 victory over Georgia on Thanksgiving Day.

FRED SINGTON

PERFECTION

A 10-0 season, along with a 24-0 whitewashing of Washington State in the Rose Bowl gave Wallace Wade his third championship and ended an era of Tide football on a glorious note.

Extraordinary tackle Fred Sington finished an unmatched career as a student-athlete being unanimously picked to the 1930 All-America teams and earning Phi Beta Kappa honors for his toils in the classroom.

Halfback John Henry Suther joined Sington on the All-America list while super sophomore Johnny Cain and guard John Miller were All-Southern Conference picks. Incredibly in the Rose Bowl, Wade defied logic by starting his second unit, feeling his team was vastly superior to the West Coast Champions. Monk Campbell earned Rose Bowl MVP honors.

Alabama shut out eight of its 10 foes with Tennessee (18-6) and Vanderbilt (12-7) holding the distinction of being the only teams to score on the 1930 Tide.

"MY BEST TEAM"

Frank Thomas candidly called it his best Alabama team and the 29-13 romp over Stanford in the Rose Bowl confirmed the coach's belief that the 1934 team was special.

In an era where points were at a premium, Alabama averaged 31.4 a game while the opposition could manage but 4.5 a contest. Legendary end Don Hutson, who some 56 years later would be named to the all-time college football team, displayed the skills that would one day earn him induction into seven different Halls of Fame (Alabama, Arkansas, Green Bay Packers, NFL, College, Helms Foundation and Wisconsin).

Tailback Dixie Howell and tackle Bill Lee joined Hutson as All-Americans. The only close game all year came in the annual heavyweight thriller with Tennessee, a 13-6 Crimson Tide win. Howell, Hutson, Lee and guard Charlie Marr earned All-SEC honors.

In the Rose Bowl, Howell scored two touchdowns, one on a scintillating 67-yard scamper. He also passed 59 yards to Hutson for another score. For the game, he averaged 43.8 yards a punt, gained 111 rushing yards and 160 passing.

COTTON BOWL CHAMPS

ALL-AMERICAN HOLT RAST

Alabama received a share of the 1941 title by being named to the honor roll of the Houlgate System. The Crimson Tide team finished the year 9-2 with conference losses to Mississippi State and Vanderbilt.

The 1941 team was gifted with brilliant end Holt Rast earning unanimous All-America accolades and plaudits of being one of the best 11 players in the first 50 years of Alabama football.

Along with a 29-21 victory over SWC champion Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl, significant wins for the Tide came against Georgia, featuring future Heisman Trophy winner Frank Sinkwich, along with Tennessee, Georgia Tech and Miami. In the Cotton Bowl win, halfback Jimmy Nelson returned a punt 72 yards for one touchdown and scored on a 21-yard run for another. Rast, concluding his career, returned an interception for a touchdown and Russ Craft scored twice. After the game, Nelson, Rast and Don Whitmire shared MVP honors.

SUGAR BOWL CHAMPS

As far-fetched as it sounded back when he was recruiting his first class four years before, Paul Bryant's promise of a 1961 national championship proved as accurate as his precise demand for excellence.

Led by quarterback Pat Trammell, center/linebacker Lee Roy Jordan and two-way line star Billy Neighbors, Alabama ascended to the pinnacle of the college football world, winning all 11 games and being named the No. 1 team in America.

Alabama outscored its opponents 297-25 and after Tennessee managed a field goal in a 34-3 loss to the Tide, no one scored again until Arkansas equaled that three-point output in the Sugar Bowl.

North Carolina State, led by future NFL star quarterback Roman Gabriel, fell to the Tide 26-7. The seven points were the most yielded to an opponent during the entire season.

Neighbors was a unanimous All-America selection while Jordan and Trammell were second-team picks. It would be the first of six national title runs for Bear Bryant during his 25-year career at Alabama.

JOE NAMATH

Gimpy-legged Joe Namath aired his immense talents to a nationally televised audience in the first ever night Orange Bowl game.

Namath and his teammates contended then, and now, that the star quarterback scored what would have been a game winner on a sneak play from the Longhorn six-inch line in the fourth quarter. One official ruled him in, the other out, and in the end it was a 21-17 Texas win.

Despite the controversial loss to Texas, Alabama was the 1964 AP and UPI National Champion. Namath's knee injury vs. North Carolina State gave backup Steve Sloan the chance to lead the Tide to wins over Florida, Tennessee, Mississippi State and LSU. Namath, who came off the bench in the final minutes against Georgia Tech, sparked a 24-7 win over the Yellow Jackets that ended the bitter series for 15 years.

Roy Ogden's unforgettable 108-yard kickoff return and Namath-to-Ray Perkins touchdown pass were key plays in a 21-14 win over Auburn on Thanksgiving Day.

Namath, halfback/kicker David Ray, tackle Dan Kearley and guard Wayne Freeman were named to different All-America teams.

ORANGE BOWL CHAMPS

The 1965 edition of the Alabama Crimson Tide got off to a slow start, losing its first game of the season to Georgia 18-17. The Crimson Tide quickly rebounded with wins over Tulane, Ole Miss and Vanderbilt. Alabama finished off the season with a 30-3 thumping of in-state rival Auburn. This victory also gave the Crimson Tide the SEC title, its second in a row.

The Crimson Tide's season earned the team a No. 4 ranking and an invitation to the 1966 Orange Bowl where they would face the Nebraska Cornhuskers. The national title seemed a long shot for both teams, but with No. 1 Michigan State falling to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and No. 2 Arkansas losing to LSU in the Cotton Bowl earlier in the day, it appeared that the outcome of the Orange Bowl would decide the national champion.

The teams traded blows for much of the game but the arm of Steve Sloan proved too much for the Huskers. Sloan went 20-of-28 passing to break the Orange Bowl pass completion record set one year earlier by fellow Tide quarterback Joe Namath. Sloan finished the game with 296 passing yards, also setting an Orange Bowl standard and giving Alabama a 39-28 victory and the 1965 national championship.

CLASH OF THE TITANS

HALFBACK
WILBUR JACKSON

It was the first meeting ever between the two giants of college football and the game was promoted so heavily even the fans tired of all the advanced publicity. It was "The Game" of all-time in a lot of ways, and it certainly lived up to every inch of newspaper space and moment of radio-TV air time.

Notre Dame won, 24-23, in one of the all-time classics of college football. It had everything you could want in a football game and Notre Dame vaulted from third to first in the final AP rankings.

Alabama had finished first in both polls in the regular season and remained the UPI champion. Seldom do games live up to all the advance and frenzied billing. But when Ara Parseghian of Notre Dame and Bear Bryant of Alabama unleashed two of the finest college teams in history onto the Sugar Bowl's soggy artificial turf, this game caught the fancy of the entire football world.

GOAL LINE STAND

Coach Bryant's 1978 Alabama Crimson Tide squad started off the season with a convincing 20-3 win over the Nebraska Cornhuskers in front of a packed house in Birmingham. Alabama went on to win 11 games in 1978. The only loss of the season came at the hands of the USC Trojans in Birmingham in a 28-14 battle. Alabama then tore through eight straight opponents on its way to a No. 2 ranking and a bid to play in the 1979 Sugar Bowl against Joe Paterno's No. 1-ranked Penn State Nittany Lions.

The game was close and physical all the way to the end of the game with Alabama outgaining Penn State on the ground 208-19 and Penn State outgaining Alabama through the air 163-91. Crimson Tide running back Major Ogilvie was quoted after the game as saying, "It was, by far, the hardest-hitting game I've participated in. There's not even a close second."

Alabama secured the win and the national championship on one of the most legendary plays in Crimson Tide history. On a fourth down and inches play from the Alabama goal line, Joe Paterno called on tailback Matt Guman to take the ball up the middle into the heart of the Crimson Tide defense. Guman was met head on by a host of Alabama defenders, led by All-America linebacker Barry Krauss who stopped Guman inches shy of the goal line to lock up the 14-7 Sugar Bowl victory and the national title.

RUNNING BACK
MAJOR OGILVIE

The 1979 Alabama Crimson Tide was fierce to say the least. Alabama's defense posted shutouts against Baylor, Wichita State, Florida, LSU and Miami. Alabama outscored five of its opponents on the season by 30 points or more with the biggest margin of victory coming against Vanderbilt in a 66-3 game. Alabama capped off the undefeated regular season by beating Auburn 25-18 and Miami 30-0.

After its perfect 11-0 regular season, Coach Bryant's Crimson Tide team returned to the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans again for the second straight year. This time the Crimson Tide faced its future SEC West rival in the University of Arkansas Razorbacks, who then were a part of the Southwest Conference.

Alabama was led by running back Major Ogilvie as the Tide outgained the Razorbacks 284-97 in rushing yards. Ogilvie scored two touchdowns in a 24-9 victory that gave the Crimson Tide its 11th national title and Bryant his sixth and final championship.

HIGH TIDE

Head Coach Gene Stallings' Crimson Tide team was led in the 1992 season by a tenacious defense that held 10 of its 13 opponents under 12 points. The offense was led by the arm of quarterback Jay Barker who threw for 1,614 yards, and the legs of running back Derrick Lassie, who ran for 905 yards. The Alabama defense had 22 interceptions with defensive backs Antonio Langham and George Teague tied with six a piece.

The Crimson Tide started off the season with a 25-8 win over SEC rival Vanderbilt and continued this winning streak all the way to the Sugar Bowl. Some of the highlights of this perfect season were a 17-10 victory over Tennessee, a 17-0 win against in-state rival Auburn and a 28-21 win over Steve Spurrier's Florida Gators in the SEC Championship Game.

Alabama's perfect regular-season record led them to a No. 2 ranking and another visit to the Sugar Bowl to face 1992 Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Geno Torretta and the No. 1 ranked Miami Hurricanes. The Crimson Tide was a heavy underdog to the boisterous Miami team. However, from the opening kickoff to the final whistle Alabama dominated the Hurricanes en route to a 34-13 victory. Alabama finished the season with a 13-0 record and the program's 12th national championship.

Nick Saban's 2009 national championship team had the perfect combination of suffocating defense, a potent rushing attack, a winning quarterback and outstanding special teams. The 2009 team captured the program's 13th national championship and the school's 22nd SEC Championship with a 14-0 record. The Crimson Tide conquered every challenge placed in front of them, including a 32-13 thrashing of top-ranked Florida in the SEC Championship Game and a 37-21 triumph over Texas in the Citi BCS National Championship Game at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.

The Crimson Tide produced a record six first team Associated Press All-Americans and eight first team All-SEC selections. Mark Ingram became Alabama's first Heisman Trophy winner and Rolando McClain claimed the Butkus Award and the Lambert Award, presented to the nation's top linebacker. Ingram set a school record with 1,658 rushing yards with 20 total touchdowns while averaging 189.0 all-purpose yards and nine touchdowns in six games against nationally ranked opponents. McClain led the team with 105 tackles while accounting for 14.5 tackles for loss, four sacks, two interceptions, four pass breakups and 14 quarterback hurries. First-year starting quarterback Greg McElroy completed 61 percent of his passes for 2,508 yards with 17 touchdowns. His 81.25 pass attempts for every interception thrown in 2009 was the second-best mark in SEC history, behind only Peyton Manning.

Alabama knocked off six top-25 opponents on the way to the national championship with wins over No. 7 Virginia Tech, No. 16 Ole Miss, No. 22 South Carolina, No. 9 LSU, No. 1 Florida and No. 2 Texas. Maybe the Tide's toughest wins came in hotly contested games with rivals Tennessee and Auburn. UA used two blocked field goals by Terrence Cody against the Vols to escape with a 12-10 win and then used a fourth-quarter drive, engineered by McElroy, for a 26-21 win over the Tigers on the Plains.

DOMINATION IN THE DOME

The 2011 Crimson Tide claimed the school's 14th national championship, handing the previously undefeated LSU Tigers a resounding 21-0 loss in the season's title game. It was the first shutout in Bowl Championship Series history and the first time since Miami in 1991 that a team pitched a shutout to secure the national title.

Alabama produced an astounding seven first-team All-Americans, including Mark Barron, Barrett Jones, Dont'a Hightower, Dre Kirkpatrick, DeQuan Menzie, Trent Richardson and Courtney Upshaw. Richardson became Alabama's first Doak Walker Award winner and finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting. Jones received the Outland Trophy, the Wuerffel Trophy and the ARA Sportsmanship Award. Carson Tinker accepted the Disney Spirit Award for the team's efforts following the April 27, 2011, tornado that ravaged Tuscaloosa.

Richardson set a school record with 1,679 rushing yards to go along with 24 total touchdowns and 21 rushing scores. Hightower led the team with 85 total tackles while Upshaw accounted for a team-high 18 tackles for loss (-90 yards) and 9.5 sacks (-62 yards) plus one interception return for a touchdown, two forced fumbles and 11 quarterback hurries. First-year starting quarterback AJ McCarron completed 66.8 percent of his passes for 2,634 yards with 16 touchdowns. McCarron threw only five interceptions or one every 65.6 pass attempts in 2011, which was the third-best mark in SEC history, behind only Peyton Manning and Greg McElroy.

Defensively, Alabama put together one of the best seasons in the modern era of college football. The Crimson Tide led the nation in the four major categories: scoring defense (8.2 ppg), total defense (183.6 ypg), rush defense (72.2 ppg) and pass efficiency defense (83.69) while also leading the nation in pass defense at 111.46 ypg. Alabama was only the second team to lead the nation in all four defensive categories and the first since Oklahoma in 1986. On the offensive side of the football, the Tide averaged 429.6 yards per game while scoring 34.85 points per game, statistics that ranked fourth and fifth, respectively, in school history.

The Alabama football team established its dominance early against Notre Dame on its way to an overwhelming performance as the Crimson Tide earned the programs 15th national championship in football with a 42-14 victory over Notre Dame in the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game.

Alabama's 2012 senior class won a school record 49 games over a four-year span while losing only five contests. The 49 wins tied Nebraska for the most in college football history and ranks among the best four-year totals in Southeastern Conference history (Florida won 48 games from 2006-09 and Alabama won 48 from 2008-11).

Alabama produced four first team All-Americans in 2012, giving them 22 All-America honors by 19 different players from 2008-12. The 2012 first team All-Americans included Barrett Jones, Dee Milliner, C.J. Mosley and Chance Warmack. D.J. Fluker was also a second-team All-American and AJ McCarron garnered third-team honors. Jones also became Alabama's first William V. Campbell and Rimington Trophy winner.

McCarron led the Alabama offense with a school-record 30 touchdown passes while leading the nation with a 175.28 pass efficiency rating. He threw for 2,933 yards with only three interceptions while completing 67.2 percent of his passes. Lacy led the way on the ground with 1,322 yards and 17 scores. Yeldon added a freshman record 1,108 yards and 12 rushing touchdowns. Cooper led all receivers with a freshman-record 59 receptions for 1,000 yards and 11 scores.

Defensively, Alabama put together another outstanding season, leading the nation in three major categories: scoring defense (10.9 ppg), total defense (250.0 ypg) and rush defense (76.4 ppg). Alabama pitched four shutouts, the most since the 1979 team had five. On the offensive side of the football, the Tide averaged 445.5 yards per game while scoring 38.7 points per game. UA's 542 points in 2012 was a school record.

In a top-ranked matchup of contrasting styles, the Alabama Crimson Tide showed incredible resourcefulness and resilience to earn its 16th national championship against the Clemson Tigers in the College Football Playoff National Championship by a score of 45-40.

The title, Alabama's fourth in the last seven seasons, concluded a 14-1 year for the Tide while Clemson suffered its first loss of the 2015 campaign. It was head coach Nick Saban's fifth national title, four of which came at UA, joining Paul "Bear" Bryant as the only two coaches in college football history to win at least five national championships during their tenure.

Tight end O.J. Howard caught five passes for a career-high 208 yards on his way to Offensive MVP honors in the season's final game. Jake Coker passed for a career-best 335 yards, while running back Derrick Henry rushed for 158 yards and three scores. Senior Kenyan Drake returned a kickoff for 95 yards and a score to lift the Tide to the 45-40 win in front of 75,756 (capacity: 71,000) at University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz.

Alabama's 2015 senior class won a school record 50 games over a four-year span while losing only six contests. The 50 wins were the most in college football history. The 2014 Crimson Tide seniors and the 1997 Nebraska Cornhuskers, who posted a 49-2 record and three national championships, previously held the record for wins by a senior class. Alabama recorded 62 victories from 2011-15, the most in a five-year span in major college football history, surpassing the previously held record of 61 wins by the Tide from 2008-12.

The Crimson Tide had four first team All-Americans in 2015, including unanimous selections in Derrick Henry and Reggie Ragland, to go with consensus choices Ryan Kelly and A'Shawn Robinson. Eddie Jackson was chosen as a second- and third-team honoree, while first-year standouts Minkah Fitzpatrick and Ross Pierschbacher were each freshman All-Americans. Henry cleaned up on the awards circuit, highlighted by winning Alabama's second ever Heisman Trophy. The junior tailback was also selected as the Maxwell Trophy and Doak Walker Award winner, and the Walter Camp Player of the Year. Kelly brought home the Crimson Tide's second Rimington Trophy, awarded to the nation's top center. The conference also recognized a trio of Alabama players with its top honors, as Henry was the Offensive Player of the Year, Ragland the Defensive Player of the Year and Kelly the Jacobs Blocking Trophy winner as well as the Scholar Athlete of the Year.

Henry was the catalyst for the Alabama offense, recording school records in yards (2,219), rushing touchdowns (28), attempts (395) and all-purpose yards (2,310). His 2,219 yards led the nation and shattered the SEC single-season rushing record previously held by Herschel Walker (1,891). First-year starter Jake Coker finished his career at Alabama a perfect 14-0 as the starting quarterback and recorded 3,110 yards through the air along with 21 touchdowns by season's end. His favorite target, Calvin Ridley, set the freshman record for yards with 1,045 receiving, eclipsing the previous freshman record of 1,000 held by Amari Cooper (2012). Ridley hauled in a team-leading 89 catches for a team-high 1,045 yards in 15 games (11 starts) and added seven touchdown catches. In total, the Crimson Tide's offense averaged 199.9 rushing yards per game and 227.1 yards through the air per contest.

Defensively, Alabama checked in as the nation's top-ranked rush defense, third in total defense and scoring defense, and eighth in pass efficiency defense. Possibly the best defense during the Saban era, the Tide recorded 49 sacks, the most by a Saban-coached team and the third-most sacks in program history. The defense also forced and SEC-leading 27 turnovers, 19 of which were interceptions which also led the conference. The 442 return yards on those picks led the nation, while the four pick-sixes by Alabama's secondary ranked second in the NCAA. Senior linebacker and defensive captain Reggie Ragland led the Tide in tackles with 102, while defensive lineman Jonathan Allen paced the defense with 12.0 sacks (-80 yards) and 14.5 tackles for a loss (-92 yards). Eddie Jackson, in his first year as the starting safety, picked off six passes for an Alabama all-time record 230 return yards, including two scores.

The Crimson Tide won 14 games by an average of 20 points per game and outscored all opponents by a margin of 526-227. Alabama beat the likes of No. 20 Wisconsin in Arlington, No. 8 Georgia in Athens, ninth-ranked Texas A&M in College Station, No. 2 LSU and 17th-ranked Mississippi State in Starkville. Alabama downed No. 18 Florida, 29-13, to earn the program's 25th Southeastern Conference championship, before defeating No. 3 Michigan State, 38-0, in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the 2015 Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic.

The No. 4-ranked University of Alabama football team defeated third-ranked Georgia, 26-23, on a game-winning 41-yard touchdown pass from freshman Tua Tagovailoa to fellow freshman wide receiver DeVonta Smith in the 2018 College Football Playoff National Championship Game at Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta.

The Crimson Tide won its 17th national championship and fifth in the last nine seasons with the win over the Bulldogs. Alabama head coach Nick Saban improved to 12-0 against his former assistants with the win over UGA's Kirby Smart.

Tagovailoa was named Offensive MVP, after going 14-of-24 for 166 yards, three scores through the air and 27 yards on the ground, all in the second half.

On defense, junior Da'Ron Payne was named the Defensive MVP with six tackles in the game. Sophomore linebacker Mack Wilson led the team with 12 tackles, including two tackles-for-loss. Senior defensive back Tony Brown and sophomore defensive lineman Raekwon Davis each had an interception in the win.

Georgia received the ball first in the overtime period, starting at the UA 25-yard line. The Alabama defense pushed Georgia back nine yards to the 34-yard line, where the Bulldogs netted a 51-yard field goal attempt to go up 23-20.

Lining up on the UGA 25-yard line in Alabama's first overtime possession, Tagovailoa was sacked on the first play for a 16-yard loss to the 41-yard line. On the next play from scrimmage, Tagovailoa found Smith sprinting down the field for a 41-yard touchdown reception to give Alabama the 26-23 win in thrilling fashion.

The game opened with a scoreless first quarter before Georgia took a 3-0 lead on a 41-yard field goal with 14:14 left to go in the first half. The Bulldogs extended the lead to 6-0 on the next drive, going 70 yards on 13 plays to set up a 27-yard field goal.

Georgia found the end zone late in the first half to go up 13-0 following a one-yard touchdown run with just seven seconds left in the first half of play.

The Tide began the second half with freshman Tua Tagovailoa in at quarterback. On the second drive of the half, UA faced a third-and-seven from its own 47-yard line when Tagovailoa escaped multiple Bulldog defenders and scrambled for nine yards to keep the drive alive. Alabama capitalized with Tagovailoa completing four-straight passes, including a six-yard touchdown pass to freshman Henry Ruggs III, capping a seven-play 56-yard scoring drive that cut the lead to 13-7 with 8:52 left in the third quarter.

Georgia quickly responded with an 80-yard touchdown pass to put the Bulldogs up 20-7 with 6:52 remaining in the third quarter.

But following that score, the Crimson Tide defense stiffened, limiting the Bulldogs to just 71 yards of offense and a single field goal the rest of the way to end the UA rally.

UA comeback started on the next Georgia drive when sophomore defensive lineman Raekwon Davis intercepted a Bulldog pass and galloped 19 yards to the UGA 40-yard line. The Tide capitalized on the turnover, with a 43-yard Andy Pappanastos field goal to cut the deficit to 20-10 with 5:15 remaining in the third quarter.

Alabama cut the lead to 20-13 with 9:24 left in the fourth quarter as Tagovailoa engineered an eight-play, 71-yard drive that ended with a 30-yard Pappanastos field goal. Freshman running back Najee Harris provided a spark off the bench with a 16-yard scramble to begin the drive, followed by a 35-yard run two plays later to put the Tide in position for the score.

Alabama then came up with a big stop on defense, stuffing Georgia on a third-and-two to force a three-and-out and the Tide took over on its own 34-yard line with 1:10 remaining in the game. Tagovailoa drove UA down the field where the offense was faced with a fourth-and-four from the UGA seven-yard line. The freshman scrambled around in the backfield before finding junior wide receiver Calvin Ridley in the end zone for the seven-yard touchdown. Pappanastos extra point tied the game at 20-20 with 3:56 left in the game.

After a Georgia three-and-out, Alabama was wide left on a field goal attempt at the end of regulation to send the game into overtime.

HEISMAN

Derrick Henry brought home Alabama's second Heisman Trophy in 2015 after rushing for an SEC record 2,219 yards and 28 touchdowns, as he led the Crimson Tide to its 16th national championship.

Alabama boasts a rich and storied football history. Alabama has won 17 national championships, 31 conference championships, produced 131 first team All-Americans, 25 members of the College Football Hall of Fame and numerous national award winners. But, until 2009, Alabama had never laid claim to the most celebrated and sought-after award in college athletics – the Heisman Trophy. The Heisman is a national symbol of the collegiate football experience and unmatched competitiveness. The Crimson Tide had been represented by numerous finalists over the years, but none of the first 74 Heisman Trophies found a home in Tuscaloosa.

All of that changed as a sophomore from Flint, Mich., burst into the nation's consciousness in 2009, breaking tackles all the way to the Nokia Theater in New York City's Times Square where Mark Ingram became Alabama's first Heisman Trophy winner. He edged Stanford's Toby Gerhart by 28 points to capture the most coveted award in college football, tallying 1,304 points and 227 first-place votes in the closest Heisman Trophy vote in the award's history.

The Crimson Tide collected its second Heisman Trophy in 2015 as Derrick Henry, a native of Yulee, Fla., set the SEC rushing record with 2,219 yards on his way to victory. Henry earned 1,832 points to capture the Heisman, including 378 first-place votes that outdistanced Stanford's Christian McCaffrey by 293 points with Deshaun Watson third (1,165 points).

Ingram and Henry are among 12 players in Southeastern Conference history to win the Heisman Trophy as the SEC has produced five in the last 12 years, joining 2007 winner Tim Tebow (Florida), 2010 winner Cam Newton (Auburn) and 2012 winner Johnny Manziel (Texas A&M). Other SEC winners include Frank Sinkwich (Georgia, 1942), Billy Cannon (LSU, 1959), Steve Spurrier (Florida, 1966), Pat Sullivan (Auburn, 1971), Herschel Walker (Georgia, 1982), Bo Jackson (Auburn, 1985) and Danny Wuerffel (Florida, 1996).

Ingram produced a 2009 season that was one for the Alabama football history books. He rushed for a then-school-record 1,658 yards with 20 total touchdowns in 14 games for a 118.43 yards per game average to rank 11th nationally and second in the SEC. Ingram added 30 receptions for 322 yards and three scores. His 1,992 all-purpose yards is the third-highest single-season total in school history. Ingram also gained an astonishing 1,075 yards - or 54 percent of his all-purpose yards - after contact. His numbers climbed even higher when the Crimson Tide's opponent were ranked in the top 25, accounting for 1,134 all-purpose yards or 189.0 ypg, six games against top-25 foes, including four against top-10 teams.

Henry's 2,219 yards in 2015 was the fifth-best rushing total by a running back in the history of the Football Bowl Subdivision. He also set school records for rushing touchdowns (28), rushing yards per game (147.9), all-purpose yards (2,310), carries (395) and points scored (168). He seemed to play even better against the best competition, averaging 138.8 yards per game (10 games) against teams with rush defenses ranked in the top 50 and 166.6 ypg against teams ranked in the top 25 (nine).

Known as the DAC Trophy when it first was presented to Jay Berwagner, the legendary "one man gang" of the University of Chicago on Dec. 9, 1935, the bronze statue depicts a football player side-stepping and straight arming a tackler. Cast in the highly artistic method known as the lost wax process of bronze medal molding, the statue weighs 45 pounds and is 14 inches long, 13 and a half inches in height and six and a half inches in width. It was designed by New York sculptor Frank Eliscu, who was commissioned by the Downtown Athletic Club to create a figure of a football player in imperishable bronze to serve as an annual trophy award. Eliscu used his friend, Ed Smith, a starter on the New York University Football team, as the player model for his initial creations.

However, reference to the award as the DAC Trophy was only used once. Following the death of John Heisman in October, 1936 (Heisman at the time was the Director of Athletics at the Downtown Athletic Club), the award was renamed the Heisman Memorial Trophy. Today, the annual award involves the use of two statues. One is presented to the college football player selected for excellence and this remains the permanent possession of the winner. A second trophy is awarded to the school represented by the winner.

He is wearing a light-colored patterned shirt, a paisley tie, and a dark suit jacket. He is holding two large college football trophies. The trophy in his right hand is the Maxwell Award, featuring a football player in a dynamic pose. The trophy in his left hand is the Walter Camp Award, also featuring a football player. Begun in 1970, the Lombardi Award is hosted by the Rotary Club of Houston and benefits the American Cancer Society. The award goes annually to the college football lineman on offense or defense that, in addition to outstanding performance and ability, best exemplifies the discipline of Vince Lombardi. As the legendary coach of the Green Bay Packers, Lombardi first made a name for himself as the smallest but toughest member of Fordham University's "Seven Blocks of Granite," renowned in their day (1934-37) for being the most unyielding line in college football.

LOTT TROPHY

The Lott Trophy is presented annually to the college football Defensive IMPACT Player of the Year. IMPACT is an acronym for: Integrity, Maturity, Performance, Academics, Community and Tenacity. The award recognizes the personal character of the winning player as well as athletic excellence and is named in honor of Ronnie Lott, a defensive back who starred at Southern California and for the NFL's San Francisco 49ers. Lott is a member of both the College Football Hall of Fame and the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

MAXWELL TROPHY

The Maxwell Football Club presents the Maxwell Award for the College Football Player of the Year. This award is presented in honor of Robert W. (Tiny) Maxwell, legendary college player, official and sports columnist. The award has been given annually since 1937 when Yale's Clint Frank was honored. The Maxwell Award is voted on by head coaches, members of the Maxwell Football Club and sportswriters and sportscasters from across the country. Tua Tagovailoa became Alabama's third winner in 2018, joining AJ McCarron (2013) and Derrick Henry (2015).

JOE MOORE AWARD

The Joe Moore Award, presented by the Joe Moore Foundation for Teamwork, awarded Alabama the inaugural trophy in 2015. It will now be given annually to college football's best offensive line unit. The award is designed to preserve the legacy of Joe Moore, who coached most notably at Pittsburgh and Notre Dame. Moore was responsible for developing the skills of several All-Americans throughout his storied career, including Bill Fralic, Mark May, Russ Grimm, Jimbo Covert, Mark Stepnowski, Aaron Taylor, and Andy Heck. Coach Moore sent 52 players on to the NFL, several of whom are in the Pro and College Football Hall of Fame.

BRONKO NAGURSKI TROPHY

The Bronko Nagurski Trophy has been awarded annually since 1993 to the top defensive player in college football as voted on by the membership of the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA). The award is presented by the Charlotte Touchdown Club and the FWAA and is named for Bronko Nagurski, who played football for the University of Minnesota and the Chicago Bears.

OUTLAND TROPHY

The Outland Trophy is awarded to the best United States college football interior lineman by the Football Writers Association of America. It is named after John H. Outland, one of a select few players ever named All-America at two positions. Outland earned consensus All-America honors in 1898 at tackle and consensus All-America honors at halfback in 1899 for the University of Pennsylvania. Quinnen Williams became Alabama's fifth winner in 2018, joining Cam Robinson (2016), Chris Samuels (1999), Andre Smith (2008) and Barrett Jones (2011).

RIMINGTON TROPHY

The Rimington Trophy was created to recognize the most outstanding center in the Football Bowl Subdivision. The trophy is named after former Nebraska center Dave Rimington, who won the Outland Trophy in consecutive years, was a two-time first team All-American and the 1982 Big Eight Offensive Player of the Year. The trophy is presented by the Boomer Esiason Foundation, which was created when his son, Gunnar, was diagnosed with cystic fibrosis. The Rimington Trophy has played a major role in raising money to support the CF community and is essential in honoring one of the most pivotal roles on the football field. Ryan Kelly became Alabama's second winner in 2015 after Barret Jones was the first Crimson Tide player honored in 2012.

JIM THORPE AWARD

Created in 1986, the Jim Thorpe Award is annually presented to the top defensive back in college football. Winners are judged on their performance on the field, athletic ability and character. The award is named for Jim Thorpe, an Olympic gold medalist in 1912 who also played professional football, baseball and basketball. His football prowess enabled tiny Carlisle College to become a national college football power early in the 20th century. Thorpe was widely considered the world's greatest athlete of the first half of the 20th Century.

DOAK WALKER AWARD

Created in 1989 to recognize the nation's premier running back for his accomplishments on the field, achievement in the classroom and citizenship in the community, the Doak Walker Award is the only major collegiate football award that requires all candidates to be in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate within one year of other students of the same classification. Named for famed SMU running back Doak Walker, a three-time All-American and the 1948 Heisman Trophy winner. Trent Richardson became the first Alabama player to win the award in 2011 after rushing for 1,679 yards and 21 touchdowns. Derrick Henry was the second Crimson Tide player to see his name etched on the trophy in 2015 after rushing for an SEC-record 2,219 yards and 28 touchdowns.

WUERFFEL TROPHY

The Wuerffel Trophy is presented by the All Sports Association of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., to the college football player who best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement. It is named for former University of Florida quarterback Danny Wuerffel, the 1996 Heisman Trophy winner.

POLYNESIAN AWARD

The Polynesian College Football Player of the Year Award recognizes the most outstanding player of Polynesian ancestry who epitomizes great ability and integrity. The Polynesian Football Hall of Fame honors Polynesia's greatest players, coaches and contributors. It also serves as a resource for Polynesian football history, provides academic scholarships and supports educational programs for Polynesian youth. Its permanent home is located at the Polynesian Cultural Center (O'ahu's North Shore) and was established in 2013 by Super Bowl Champions Jesse Sapolu and Ma'a Tanuvasa.

DERRICK THOMAS
2014

Former Alabama linebacker Derrick Thomas was named to the 2014 class of the College Football Hall of Fame the National Football Foundation.

Thomas, a native of Miami, Fla., and one of the Crimson Tide's all-time great linebackers, played for head coaches Ray Perkins and Bill Curry from 1985-88. A unanimous All-America selection in 1988 and a two-time All-SEC selection in 1987 and 1988, Thomas was the 24th Alabama player or coach to be selected to the College Football Hall of Fame.

Thomas set Alabama and, per the National Football Foundation, NCAA records for sacks and tackles for a loss in 1988 on his way to winning the Butkus Award, CBS' Defensive Player of the Year and the Washington Pigskin Club's Defensive Player of the Year.

As a senior in 1988, Thomas recorded 88 tackles with 39 tackles for a loss of 250 yards while registering 27 sacks for a loss of 204 yards. He recorded 18 sacks for 142 yards as a junior in 1987 along with 67 tackles. He finished his career with 204 tackles, 68 tackles for loss (465 yards), 52 sacks (408 yards), 10 forced fumbles and five fumble recoveries.

Thomas led the Crimson Tide to a 35-15-1 record during his four years at the Capstone with four bowl berths, including wins in the 1985 Aloha Bowl and the 1986 and 1988 Sun Bowls. He was also a finalist for the Lombardi Award and finished in the top 10 in the Heisman Trophy voting while being named the 1988-89 Athlete of the Year across all sports by the Southeastern Conference. He served as a defensive captain for the 1988 team and was selected to the Tide's Team of the Century and the Defensive Player of the Decade of the 1980s.

The Kansas City Chiefs selected Thomas with the fourth overall pick of the 1989 NFL Draft. He spent his entire 11-year career with the Chiefs and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2009. Thomas was the 1989 Defensive Rookie of the Year and was elected to the Pro Bowl every year from 1989-97. Thomas was also named the 1993 Walter Payton Man of the Year. He holds the NFL record for sacks in a game with seven and was a member of the 1990s NFL All-Decade team. Thomas was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame in 2001. He was active in the community, starting the 3rd and Long Foundation in Kansas City to teach low-income children to read. Thomas passed away on Feb. 8, 2000, at the age of 33, following complications from a car accident.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

when dealing with student-athletes.

WHO IS A REPRESENTATIVE OF ATHLETICS INTERESTS?

SOMEONE WHO:

- Has ever made any type of financial or in-kind contribution to the athletics department, to a specific sport program or to an athletics booster organization, including purchasing donor seating to athletics events (e.g., Tide Pride Football or Tide Pride Basketball);
- Is or has been a member of any organization or agency promoting University of Alabama athletics (e.g., Red Elephant Club, Grand Slammers, etc.);
- Has ever helped to arrange - or has provided employment for - an enrolled student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or their parents or relatives;
- Has ever assisted in any manner in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes;
- Has ever provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families or to prospective student-athletes or their families;
- Has otherwise promoted the institution's athletics program in any manner.

WHO IS A PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE?

NCAA rules stipulate that a prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth (9th) grade, regardless of his/her athletic ability.

A prospective student-athlete remains a prospect even after he or she has signed a National Letter of Intent or accepts an offer of financial aid to attend The University of Alabama until he /she reports for the first day of classes for a regular term (fall or spring), registers, enrolls and attends summer school prior to initial full time enrollment, or participates in a regular squad practice or competition before the beginning of any term.

WHAT ABOUT STUDENT-ATHLETE APPEARANCES & PROMOTIONS?

Student-athletes are prohibited from being involved in the advertisement, recommendation or promotion of sales or use of any commercial product or service of any kind. All charitable, educational and nonprofit promotional activities involving student-athletes must have prior approval from the athletics department. All student-athlete appearances for such events are coordinated through the UA Athletics Student-Athlete Enhancement Office. For information, please call (205) 348-4621.

NCAA legislation expressly prohibits University supporters from providing "extra benefits" to student-athletes. An extra benefit is any special arrangement to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. In general, you may not provide anything or make special arrangements for student-athletes or prospective student-athletes that are not available to the general student population:

- providing cash or loans, or signing for a loan;
- a guarantee of bond;
- the use of an automobile;
- gifts of any kind, including birthday cards;
- gift of clothing or equipment;
- providing loans to relatives or friends;
- any tangible items, including merchandise;
- free or reduced-cost services, rentals or purchases of any type;
- free or reduced-cost housing;
- gift of cash or like items;
- providing special discounts for goods and services (e.g., car repairs, haircuts, etc.);
- purchasing complimentary admissions from a student-athlete;
- providing an honorarium to a student-athlete for a speaking engagement.

WHAT ABOUT STUDENT-ATHLETE EMPLOYMENT?

Student-athletes receiving athletics grants-in-aid are eligible for employment during the regular academic year. Student-athletes will continue to be eligible for employment during the University's official vacation periods (e.g., Christmas, Spring Break) and during the summer. Very detailed rules regarding which student-athletes may be employed, when and how much money they can earn must be followed. In addition, the Compliance Office keeps written records verifying all student-athlete employment. If you have an interest in hiring a student-athlete, you must first contact the University's Compliance Office prior to employing the student-athlete. Failure to contact the Compliance Office prior to employing a student-athlete could jeopardize the student-athlete's eligibility to participate in intercollegiate athletics at Alabama and could result in an NCAA violation for the student-athlete's sport.

WHAT ARE THE RULES GOVERNING GAMBLING?

A student-athlete, coach and/or employee of The University of Alabama may not provide information to individuals involved in any type of organized gambling concerning sporting events. In addition, student-athletes, coaches and employees of The University of Alabama may not solicit or accept any wager on any intercollegiate or professional athletics contest.

WHAT ABOUT RECRUITING?

As a representative of Alabama's athletics' interests, you may not:

- Contact a prospect's coach, principal or counselor in an effort to evaluate a prospect;
- Visit the prospect's institution to pick up film or transcripts pertaining to the evaluation of the prospect's academic eligibility or athletic ability;
- Contact a prospect, his/her parents, legal guardians or spouse on or off the Alabama campus;
- Contact a prospect by telephone, letter, e-mail, or interaction on social media;
- Make special arrangements for entertainment for recruiting purposes;
- Provide reduced cost products or services to a prospect.

If you any questions or concerns, contact the Athletics Compliance Office at compliance@ia.ua.edu.

CTSM

Crimson Tide Sports Marketing

From opening day on August 31 through the bowl game, Alabama fans will hear all the action of Alabama football on the Crimson Tide Sports Network (CTSN). Nearly 90 radio stations across the country, including Hawai'i, will broadcast Alabama football games during the 2019 season.

Eli Gold is in his third decade as the voice of the Tide and has called the action of every Crimson Tide game since 1989. A nationally known sportscaster, Gold's broadcasting career includes play-by-play for NFL, Arena Football League and NHL games on radio and television.

Chris Stewart will anchor the radio broadcast for a second season as his portfolio expanded to hosting the Pregame Tailgate Show and the Halftime Show in 2018, while continuing to provide in-game updates and hosting The Nick Saban Show. A member of the crew since 1999, Stewart also is the voice of Alabama men's basketball and baseball.

John Parker Wilson enters his second season as the color analyst after joining the crew in 2018. Wilson, who was a three-year starter at quarterback for the Crimson Tide from 2006-08, finished as the school's all-time leader in completions, passing yards, attempts, passing touchdowns and total yards.

Now in his second season, Rashad Johnson will continue his sideline duties after taking over for Stewart in 2018. Johnson joined the broadcast team after an eight-year stint in the NFL with the Arizona Cardinals and Tennessee Titans. He originally came to Tuscaloosa as a walk-on running back who made the move to the defensive side of the football, earned a scholarship and capped his senior season by earning first team All-America honors as a player for the Crimson Tide.

Starting in 1984, Tom Stipe has produced the CTSN football broadcasts and he also serves as president of the Southeastern Conference Broadcasters Association. Butch Owens has stood behind Gold every week as the spotter since 1989. Jim Carabin oversees the Alabama broadcasts in his role as Vice President/General Manager of Crimson Tide Sports Marketing.

A | THE CRIMSON STANDARD

A CAPITAL INITIATIVE FOR ALABAMA ATHLETICS

Last August, Alabama unveiled plans for what's next for the athletics department - a massive fundraising and facility initiative that's beyond ambitious and will dramatically change the look of the program over the next decade. The Crimson Standard is a $600 million capital initiative that will transform Alabama Athletics over the next 10 years. As of mid-June, gifts and pledges in support of the project totaled over $245 million, including a $1 million commitment from Nick and Terry Saban.

Overall, it's by far the biggest athletic initiative in the history of the university. When former athletics director Mal Moore launched his plans for a five-year facilities and endowment initiative roughly two decades ago, the Crimson Tradition Fund evolved into a $150 million campaign.

The current administration now carries the torch for what was former athletic director Mal Moore's dream for Alabama's athletic facilities. The plan includes upgrades to Bryant-Denny Stadium, making it more fan-friendly while improving the student-athlete and recruiting areas, and a renovation of Coleman Coliseum. Numerous other sports will see improvements as well, including softball and golf.

Based on the current timeline, the initial work on Bryant-Denny Stadium would begin upon the conclusion of the 2019 season. In phase I, new skyboxes will be inserted on the east side of the stadium, with premium Founders Suites on the west side, and three new premium areas will be created. All four videoboards will be replaced with 60% larger screens and a new student concourse will be added. Furthermore, the team tunnel will now flow directly into the game-day locker room, which is getting an overhaul, and the recruiting area will be renovated and enlarged. Also during the initial phase, the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility will receive improvements to every area that impacts the training and health of our student-athletes, including the addition of a state-of-the-art Sports Science Center.

Future phases of The Crimson Standard will see even more exciting renovations and changes including a renovation to Coleman Coliseum that will benefit our Men's & Women's Basketball and Gymnastics teams and additional upgrades to Bryant-Denny Stadium that will continue to enhance the game-day experience for all fans.

If you are interested in securing seats in the new Champions Club, Terrace Club or loge boxes, there is still limited inventory remaining. To learn more, secure your seats, or to support the future of Alabama Athletics with a gift to The Crimson Standard, visit crimsontidefoundation.org or call 205-348-9727.

THE NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

With the three selections, Alabama has produced multiple first round draft picks in eight of the last 11 drafts with single first-round selections in 2009, 2015 and 2016. The Crimson Tide's 12 selections from the 2018 draft is a school and Southeastern Conference record for a single draft. A year prior, Alabama set an NFL record with seven players selected in the first 55 picks of the 2017 draft. The Crimson Tide had five players taken in the first 35 picks in the 2012 and 2017 NFL Drafts and four selected in the first two rounds in 2013 and 2019. In 2016, six Tide players were selected in the first 60 picks.

HALL OF FAME

GREEN BAY PACKERS 1935-45

Don Hutson could outmaneuver and outrace virtually every defender in the league. He led the NFL in receiving in eight of his 11 seasons and in scoring five straight years. Twice, in 1941 and 1942, he was named the league's MVP.

When Hutson retired in 1945 after 11 superb seasons, he held 18 NFL records, including 488 career receptions.

BART STARR

GREEN BAY PACKERS 1956-71

Bart Starr was a 17th-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1956. Three years later, his playing time still was limited and his football future appeared in doubt. That's when Vince Lombardi took over as the Packers coach, an event that may have saved Starr's NFL career.

Lombardi, in tireless study of films, found that he liked Bart's mechanics, his arm, his ball-handling techniques and, most of all, his decision-making abilities. Under Lombardi's careful nurturing, Starr gained the confidence to become one of the NFL's great field leaders.

JOE NAMATH

NEW YORK JETS 1965-76

Joe Namath is best remembered for his performance in the New York Jets' stunning 16-7 upset of the heavily favored Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III. However, during his 13-year tenure from 1965 through 1977 he was one of the game's most exciting, proficient and publicized quarterbacks.

Namath earned all-league accolades four times in his career (1967, 1968, 1969, and 1972) and was named to the all-time AFL honor team in 1969. He also was elected to four AFL all-star games and one AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

JOHN HANNAH

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS 1973-85
ALABAMA 1970-72

John Hannah, a 6-2, 265-pound guard from Alabama, was the first-round pick of the New England Patriots and the fourth player selected in the 1973 National Football League Draft. He was an eight-letterman star in football, track and wrestling and a two-time gridiron All-America at Alabama.

Hannah finished his career after the 1985 season on a high note. His final campaign had produced an AFC championship and Super Bowl XX appearance for the Patriots, and All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl invitation for the veteran lineman.

DWIGHT STEPHENSON

MIAMI DOLPHINS 1980-87

Dwight Stephenson was born Nov. 20, 1957, in Murfreesboro, N.C. He was a quiet, intense, hard-working and competitive offensive lineman out of the University of Alabama. He was an exceptionally quick blocker and possessed an explosive charge off the snap. Stephenson was the Dolphins offensive captain and his presence as the anchor of the offensive line was a major factor in the Dolphins' record of allowing the fewest quarterback sacks in the NFL for six straight years.

OZZIE NEWSOME

CLEVELAND BROWNS 1978-90

Throughout his 13-season, 198-game NFL career with the Cleveland Browns from 1978 to 1990, Ozzie Newsome was a fixture at tight end, a true team leader in every respect, and one of only five players in Browns history to play in parts of three decades.

Nicknamed the "Wizard of Oz," Newsome became the leading tight end receiver in NFL history with 662 receptions for 7,980 yards and 47 touchdowns. He ranked as the fourth-leading receiver when he retired. Newsome is now the general manager of the Baltimore Ravens.

DERRICK THOMAS

KANSAS CITY CHIEFS 1989-99

Derrick Thomas displayed extraordinary pass-rushing skills throughout his 11-season career that tragically was cut short by his death following an automobile accident shortly after the 1999 NFL regular season.

No player amassed more sacks during the decade of 1990s than the 116.5 sacks by Thomas. He finished his career with 126.5 sacks, which was the fourth-highest total by a linebacker in NFL history. Thomas had 10 or more sacks in a season seven times and recorded multi-sack games 27 times during his 169-game career.

KENNY STABLER

OAKLAND RAIDERS 1970-79

A four-time Pro Bowl selection and two-time AFC Player of the Year, Kenny Stabler led the Oakland Raiders to their first Super Bowl championship with a victory over the Minnesota Vikings in Super Bowl XI.

Stabler was named the NFL's MVP in 1974 when he led the Raiders to a 12-2 record and a berth in the AFC Championship game. He remains Oakland's career leader in victories, passing yardage, completions and touchdown passes.

Notes: 1951 was the fourth losing season in Alabama school history, and the first since 1903. The Tide's four-game losing streak from September 29th thru October 20th tied the record for the longest losing streak in school history. The October 20th matchup with Tennessee was the first Alabama game ever shown on network television. Alabama did appear in the second-ever known televised American sporting event in 1939 when they travelled to New York to play Fordham, but that was shown exclusively in New York City. The Tide's 89-point victory over Delta State was UA's 2nd-largest margin of victory in school history, second only to their 110-point margin over Marion Military in 1922.

Notes: A year after claiming the national championship, the 1962 version of the Alabama Crimson Tide came within a failed two-point conversion against Georgia Tech from having a chance to repeat. UA posted its eighth 10-win season in school history. Alabama's trip to the Orange Bowl was the Tide's 16th bowl appearance in school history. The victory over Oklahoma gave UA its ninth bowl win, and linebacker Lee Roy Jordan turned in a performance for the ages recording 31 tackles. President John F. Kennedy was in attendance in Miami. Jordan was named consensus All-American. The Tide beat Mississippi State for the fifth straight time in 1962 and shut out Auburn for the fourth straight year. The loss to Georgia Tech snapped a 26-game undefeated streak, a 19-game winning streak, and a 15-game conference winning streak for Alabama, all dating back to 1960.

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant. Assistant Coaches: Carney Laslie, Sam Bailey, Pat James (AHC), Gene Stallings (DC), Howard Schnellenberger (OC), Dude Hennessy (Ends), Clem Grysky, Jim Blevins, Ken Meyer, Dee Powell, Jimmy Sharpe, Charley Pell.

Usual Lineup: Offense (Pro Set Base) - LE Jimmy Dill, LT Jim Simmons, LG Al Lewis, C Gaylon McCollough, RG Steve Allen, RT Dan Kearley, RE Butch Henry, LH Benny Nelson, FB Eddie Versprille, QB Joe Namath, RH Ray Ogden. Specialists - P Buddy French, PK Tim Davis.

Notes: Alabama's trip to the Sugar Bowl was the Tide's 17th bowl appearance and its fifth consecutive. The victory over Mississippi gave UA its 10th bowl win, despite starting quarterback Joe Namath being suspended for the game. It was also the first and only time the Tide has faced a fellow member of the SEC in a bowl game. Alabama had not played the Rebels since 1944 even though they were in the same conference, and the win ran the Tide's overall record against UM to 18-2-2. Halfback Benny Nelson was named All-American. After losing to Florida, Alabama would not lose another game in their Tuscaloosa home until 1982, a streak of 57 games. The Tide ran their all-time record against Houston to 5-0-0 and beat Mississippi State for the sixth straight time in 1963.

The loss to Colorado was the Tide's third straight bowl loss. In Alabama's 33-32 win over Mississippi on national television, both Alabama's Scott Hunter and Mississippi's Archie Manning launched an assault on the record book. The two qb's combined for an NCAA record 55 completions. Hunter broke his own school record for single-game pass completions, yards passing, and total offense. *-conference game; #-Alabama home game played at Legion Field in Birmingham; ^-neutral site game played at Legion Field in Birmingham; +-Sun Bowl played at the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas (bowl game stats did not count in final team or individual stats before the 2002 season).

Head Coach: Bill Curry. Assistant Coaches: Homer Smith (OC/QB), Don Lindsey (AHC/DC), Tommy Bowden (WR), Andy Christoff (DB), Jim Fuller (OL), John Guy (OLB/ST), Mac McWhorter (OL/AA), Larry New (DL), Chip Wisdom (RB), Rich Wingo (S&C). Notes: 1988 was the year of Derrick Thomas. Number 55 was named to the first team of no less than 11 All-American teams, won the Butkus Award, and was named the SEC Athlete of the Year. Thomas was honored by both the Pigskin Club of Washington D.C. as well as the Birmingham Touchdown Club and finished 10th in the Heisman Trophy balloting. He also rewrote the Alabama record book in the sack category, breaking his own single-season record with 27 and 52 sacks in his Alabama career. The Crimson Tide's game in College Station against Texas A&M was postponed from week 2 of the season to December 1 due to the threat of Hurricane Gilbert. Mississippi spoiled the homecoming dedication of the Paul W. Bryant Museum, defeating the Tide for the first time ever in an Alabama home game. In that game, UA was held without a completed pass for the first time since 1971. The Tide's trip to the Sun Bowl was their 41st bowl game and 23rd bowl victory. It was also the first time Alabama played a service academy. Safety Kermit Kendrick and offensive guard Larry Rose joined Thomas as All-Americans.

It was the first losing season on the field for the Tide since 1984. The October 4th game in Lexington was historic for two reasons. It was the first overtime game in Alabama school history and it was the first win for the Wildcats versus Alabama since 1922. The November 1st loss to Louisiana Tech was the first non-conference loss for Alabama since the 1991 Fiesta Bowl loss to Louisville and the first homecoming loss for the Tide since 1990, when the Tide lost 9-0 to Penn State. UA was shutout for the first time since the 35-0 loss at Florida in 1991 with the 27-0 loss to LSU. It was the first time UA had been held scoreless at home since the before mentioned Penn State game. Defensive end Chris Hood was named second-team All-American and first-team All-SEC.

Televised Games

Below is a summary of football games involving Alabama that have been televised nationally or regionally by a major network. This list dates back to 1951, when the first Alabama game on network television occurred – a 27-13 loss to Tennessee at Legion Field in Birmingham. That ABC telecast was the first of 418 Crimson Tide football games telecast via networks through the 2018 season. Alabama has a record of 280-134-4 (.675) in those games. Actually, the first Alabama football game ever televised occurred on October 7, 1939, when the Crimson Tide visited Fordham in New York City. That game was televised exclusively in New York City (only a few hundred television sets were in existence at that time in the city), the second known sporting event ever carried on American television. One week earlier, Fordham's game with Waynesburg College was televised, the first sporting event in American history known to have been televised. The following season, on October 5, 1940, the first commercially televised game between Maryland and Pennsylvania was broadcast by Philco.

Key to Abbreviations - W-L-T – Game won, lost or tied; H – Home game; A – Away game played at opponent's home stadium; N – Game played at a neutral site; see footnote for city; Nt – Night game; HC – Homecoming game; t – Tie in rankings; * - Southeastern Conference game; # - SEC Championship Game.

Alabama Football At Legion Field

Like much about the history of the football program at the University of Alabama, the home venue playing situation for the Crimson Tide has been a unique one.

Since the inception of the football program at UA in 1892, the Tide has called many venues home. Until 1954, Alabama played home games in Montgomery and Mobile in addition to contests in Bryant-Denny Stadium in Tuscaloosa. The Tide hosted games in Mobile until 1968.

But for the bulk of nearly a half-century of the most glamorous years of the Tide's heritage, including the 25-year career of legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, the biggest games of the year were reserved for Legion Field in Birmingham, the Tide's other home field.

The Tide played its first home game at Legion Field on November 24, 1927, against Georgia. The Bulldogs came out on top that day, 20-6, in what was the first of just UGA's five wins over Alabama at Legion Field through the next 60 years.

But beginning in the mid-1950's and increasing even more during Bryant's tenure from 1958-82, Legion Field was the site to see the Tide in action against the nation's most illustrious programs.

The stadium itself was built in 1926 by the city of Birmingham. Its original capacity of 21,000 was expanded over the years, reaching a maximum capacity of 83,091 in the 1970's. The legendary venue got its name from the American Legion in honor of those who gave their lives in the United States armed forces.

Legion Field hosted a myriad of events throughout the years, including contests between NFL, USFL and World Football League teams in addition to the various collegiate gridiron clashes played there. In 1996, the stadium served as the host of soccer competition as a part of the 1996 Olympic Games hosted by the city of Atlanta.

None, however, drew the fan interest or media attention as when Coach Bryant brought his powerful Crimson Tide units to the Magic City.

The site was selected as the primary hosting stage for a variety of reasons. First, Legion Field was simply bigger than Bryant-Denny Stadium. With the Tide winning SEC Championships and contending for the national title on a regular basis under Bryant, the need for larger accommodations was a prime reason for Legion Field's importance.

Secondly, Birmingham was the media capital of the state as well as a hotly contested recruiting ground for teams from around the league. Hosting some of the most anticipated games in the nation each season certainly didn't hurt Bryant's chances in landing the state's most coveted athletes.

In addition, the school's alumni base centered in Birmingham and the iron and steel mills that drove the economy in the 1950's and 60's. Playing in the home city of the program's most influential boosters had its benefits as well.

For those reasons, and many more, Legion Field became the Mecca for Tide fans throughout much of Bryant's reign. Alabama played nearly all of its most important games on the turf at Legion Field, including annual wars against league rivals against Tennessee, LSU and Ole Miss, in addition to non-conference battles against some of the most prestigious programs in college football, including Penn State, Notre Dame, USC and Nebraska.

Birmingham played host to the most memorable battles of all, helping give the name to the annual Alabama-Auburn game in late November that most fans know best as the "Iron Bowl."

Alabama's tenure at Legion Field dwindled over time. Bryant coached his last game there on Nov. 27, 1982, losing to Auburn on that day, 23-22. He finished with an amazing record of 78-15-5 (.821) as a head coach at the stadium.

Beginning in 1988, the University began scheduling more and more of its high-profile games at Bryant-Denny Stadium in Tuscaloosa. Throughout the next decade, attention was diverted to the on-campus field for the Tide, with millions of dollars in renovations and upgrades providing Alabama with one of the finest facilities in the nation.

In 2003, in what was former head coach Mike Shula's first game with the Tide, Alabama played its final game within the confines of Legion Field, closing out its nearly 80 years of dominance at the venue with a 40-17 victory over South Florida.

When all was said and done, the Tide had an all-time record of 160-52-12 (.741) at Legion Field including a 32-15 (.745) mark against Auburn in 47 meetings with the Tigers.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Alabama in the College Football Hall of Fame

Located in Atlanta, Ga., the College Football Hall of Fame has enshrined 24 members of the Crimson Tide football family.

Cornelius Bennett

•2005 Inductee •

A three-time All-American, Bennett was a unanimous selection in 1986, the year he also won the Lombardi Trophy. He was selected as SEC Player of the Year in 1986 after earning All-America honors in 1984 and 1985. Cornelius was Defensive Player of the Game in the 1985 Aloha Bowl and the 1986 Sun Bowl and finished 7th in the Heisman Trophy balloting that year. He was selected to the Tide's Team of the Century and was the Player of the Decade for the 1980s. He went on to a stellar career in the NFL, including four Super Bowl appearances with the Buffalo Bills and one with the Atlanta Falcons.

Johnny Mack Brown

Halfback, 1923-25
•1957 Inductee •

A two-year all-Southern Conference player, Brown is best remembered for his role in Alabama's 20-19 win over Washington in the 1926 Rose Bowl. He was on the receiving end of two long passes—a 58-yarder from Grant Gillis and a 62-yarder from Pooley Hubert—which fueled Bama to its victory. Inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1957, his performance in that '26 Rose Bowl earned him a spot on the all-time Rose Bowl team. Known as the "Dothan Antelope" during his playing days, he was the first of four brothers to play for the Tide. He died of a kidney disease Nov. 15, 1974 in Beverly Hills, Calif.

Paul Bryant

Right End, 1933-35
Fordyce, Ark.
•1986 Inductee •

Often forgotten in the legend of Paul Bryant was his prowess as a football player for the Crimson Tide in his 1933-35 career. Known as the other end because of the superstar status of Don Hutson, Bryant did not live in total anonymity. He was a second team All-SEC selection in 1934 and a third team choice in 1935. Only 11 players were picked to the squads back then and the SEC had 13 members instead of today's 12. Known for his unquestioned toughness, Bryant played in the 1935 Tennessee game with a broken leg, a contest won by Bama 25-0.

Johnny Cain

Fullback, 1930-32
Montgomery, Ala.
•1973 Inductee •

Known best as a powerful left-footed punter, Johnny "Hurri" Cain was the only sophomore starter on Alabama's 1931 Rose Bowl Championship team. A two-time All-America selection, Cain was named to the all-time Alabama team and in 1973 received the ultimate honor for a college football player when he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame. His most famous game as a punter was against Tennessee, the 1932 game which was played in a driving rainstorm, when he punted 19 times for an average of 48 yards a punt. He was a three-time member of the All-Southern Conference team.

Harry Gilmer

Quarterback/Defensive Back, 1944-47

One of the all-time football legends at Alabama, Harry Gilmer's deftness in passing, running, tackling, returning kicks and kicking highlighted an extraordinary career. An All-America and SEC Player of the Year in 1945, Harry was voted MVP of the Rose Bowl after leading Bama to a 34-14 victory over Southern California. His 16 career interceptions rate as second-best in Alabama history, while his 436 punt return yards in 1946 are the best in Bama annals. Gilmer accounted for 52 touchdowns in his Crimson Tide career, an Alabama school record. In 1946, he led the team in passing, rushing, interceptions, punt returns and kickoff returns.

John Hannah

•1999 Inductee •

Considered the finest offensive lineman to play the game of football, John Hannah was a unanimous All-America selection in 1972. He was also named to some All-America teams in 1971 and was an All-SEC pick in 1971-72. He was a member of Alabama's Team of the Century, was selected to ESPN's all-time college football team in 1989 and was a member of Alabama's team of the decade for the 1970s. He is also a member of the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

Frank Howard

Barlow Bend, Ala.

During his playing days at the Capstone, Howard was known as the "Little Giant of the Tide's Herd of Red Elephants." Those were productive years for Bama, especially Howard's senior year when Alabama claimed a national title and defeated Washington State 24-0 in the Rose Bowl. Howard coached at Clemson from 1940-69 and while a head coach he compiled a record of 165-118-2. Clemson's football stadium is named after him. He was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 1989.

In the first two years of the Southeastern Conference's existence, Millard Howell, better known as Dixie, led Alabama to a pair of conference titles and one national championship. An All-America choice in 1934, he is best remembered for his record-setting performance in Alabama's 29-13 win over Stanford in the 1935 Rose Bowl. He rushed for 111 yards, completed 9-of-13 passes for 160 more, and punted six times for a 43.8 average. Voted to the all-time college football team in 1969 and to Sports Illustrated's Silver Anniversary Team, Hutson left the Capstone to become the NFL's first superstar receiver while playing for the Green Bay Packers. His college coach Frank Thomas said of Hutson, "He was the best player I ever coached." Hutson, who came to Alabama on a partial baseball scholarship, also starred as a sprinter on the Tide's track team. He was selected to the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1993.

Lee Roy Jordan
Linebacker, 1960-62

In 1925, he led the Tide to an undefeated record and to its first bowl game, a trip to Pasadena to play Washington in the Rose Bowl. Alabama won 20-19, clinching a first national title and forever establishing the Crimson Tide among the nation's football powers. Alabama also appeared in the 1927 and 1931 Rose Bowls under Wade. After Alabama beat Washington State 24-0 on January 1, 1931, Wade left the Capstone for Duke. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1955. Wade died October 6, 1986.

Alabama 20, Washington 19

PASADENA, Calif. (Jan. 1, 1926) — Trailing 12-0 at halftime, Coach Wallace Wade's Alabama team battled back in the second half to capture a thrilling 20-19 win over Washington in the Crimson Tide's first bowl outing. It was a game that was long remembered as one of the best contests in Rose Bowl history and Alabama's victory brought new and permanent national respect for Southern football.

Washington's great halfback, George Wilson, lived up to his pregame billing. He rushed for 134 yards and completed five passes for 77 yards and two touchdowns. But injuries put him out of the game for 22 minutes. It was during those 22 minutes that the Crimson Tide scored all of its points.

During the 38 minutes that Wilson was healthy and on the field, the Huskies scored three touchdowns and gained 300 yards. During the 22 minutes he was on the sidelines nursing an injury, Washington gained just 17 yards and failed to score, giving up all three scores that Alabama would need to win in the third quarter in what many considered the greatest Rose Bowl Game played to that point.

"As George Wilson went, so went Washington," wrote famed sports-writer Damon Runyan. "If there was ever a one-man football team, George was it. When Wilson was on the field it was a ball game."

Wilson was named the game's most outstanding player, but his greatness was not enough to prevent an Alabama victory. Alabama had some stars of its own as quarterback "Pooley" Hubert and halfback Johnny Mack Brown wreaked havoc on the Washington defense, especially when Wilson was not on the field.

"He is a great football player, this George Wilson – one of the very greatest," Runyan wrote. "His brief absence probably made a big difference to Washington, but, still 'Pooley' Hubert was always on hand for Alabama. It was a great team that the South sent to California to take its part in the Tournament of Roses, probably the greatest that ever came out of the South."

Wilson missed the third quarter, and that's when Alabama scored its 20 points, all in seven minutes. First it was Hubert scoring from the one with Bill Buckler kicking the point after. After holding Washington and forcing a punt, Grant Gillis faded back from his own 41 and found Johnny Mack Brown at the Husky 25, who eluded one tackler and continued untouched on a 59-yard touchdown pass and run.

A fumble gave Alabama another chance at the Washington 30. On first down Hubert told Brown to run as fast as he could for the goal. "When I reached the three, I looked around," said Brown. "Sure enough, the ball was coming down over my shoulder. I took it in stride, used my stiff arm on one man and went over carrying somebody. The place was really in an uproar."

Washington scored a final time in the fourth quarter, but couldn't overcome the Alabama lead.

Alabama 7, Stanford 7

PASADENA, Calif. (Jan. 1, 1927) — Alabama head coach Wallace Wade's Crimson Tide was invited to return for the 1927 renewal after another perfect season. His great backs of 1925 were gone and he was not wealthy in reserves. But it was a team wealthy with colorful nicknames: "Lovely" Barnes, "Goofy" Bowdoin, "Snake" Vines and "Rosy" Caldwell.

The game matched two of college football's legendary coaches: Wallace Wade of Alabama and Glenn "Pop" Warner of Stanford. As usual, the Rose Bowl stadium was packed with record crowd of 57,417. Gross receipts were $218,047 – the highest ever. Approximately $100,000 was refunded.

Both teams entered the game undefeated and would end the game there, as well, with Stanford finishing 10-0-1 and Alabama 9-0-1 and sharing the national championship. Stanford was the No. 1 team in the nation under the Dickinson System, and awarded the Rissman Trophy, while Alabama was No. 1 in the Helms System (The Associated Press poll would not begin until 1936).

For Stanford, it was All-American Ted Shipkey doing most of the damage against the Crimson Tide. Stanford dominated the game statistically (305 total yards to 98) but played "stale" as one writer described it throughout. Fumbles were frequent and Stanford missed on two chances to score inside the 10-yard line. Stanford scored first on a 20-yard pass play from George Bogue to end Ed Walker, who ran the final 15 yards for the touchdown. Bogue, who had missed an 18-yard field goal earlier in the first period, then kicked the point-after and Stanford had a 7-0 lead that would last until the game's final moments.

After scoreless second and third quarters, it appeared Stanford was on its way to a shutout but Alabama center Clarke "Babe" Pearce blocked a punt by Stanford's Frankie Wilton, giving Alabama the ball on the 14-yard line. Into the game went 170-pound Jimmy Johnston at halfback. A dislocated shoulder had prevented him from playing much that season, but he had been regarded as one of the finest backs in the South prior to the injury.

Wu Winslett started the march with a run for three yards, then Johnson raced forward for seven to the Stanford four-yard line. Winslett smashed for three yards to the one. Then Johnson banged into right guard, the resistance crumpling under his charge. It was 7-6 now and a ruse was coming up next.

As the teams lined up for the crucial extra point attempt with the crowd respectfully hushed, captain Emile Barnes barked signals. Suddenly, someone shouted "signals off." Stanford's line stood at ease in anticipation of another signal sequence. At that moment center Gordon Holmes snapped the ball to Winslett, who touched it down. Unrushed and with plenty of time. Herschel Caldwell smoothly kicked it through the posts and over the bar.

The 7-7 game ended three plays later.

Alabama 24, Washington State 0

PASADENA, Calif. (Jan. 1, 1931) — Head Coach Wallace Wade's last Alabama team before he left for Duke typified the personality of the coldly efficient strategist. Alabama crushed Washington State, 24-0, before a crowd of 60,000. Wade announced on New Year's Eve that he planned to start his second team. The sportswriters were incredulous. But Wade, who felt Alabama was two touchdowns better, meant it and, in fact, did open with his second unit.

The Cougars entered the field dressed completely in red from head to toe. Their helmets, jerseys, pants, socks and shoes were red. The play seemed to work early on, as the Cougars held the upper hand most of the first quarter but didn't come close to scoring.

Late in the period Wade inserted his first string and things began to pop. The Crimson Tide rushed for 21 points in the second quarter — much like its 20-point third quarter in 1926 that spelled defeat for a stunned Washington team — and another field goal in the third to win, 24-0. Much of the damage was done in a wild, six-minute stretch.

After 13 straight plays on the ground, from its own 39, Alabama left end Jimmy Moore returned and sped into his own backfield when the march reached the WSU 43-yard line. He received the ball from fullback Johnny Cain, took a few steps and spiraled a long pass downfield. Left halfback John "Flash" Suther gathered it in full stride on the Washington State 22 and raced untouched to the end zone to complete the 43-yard scoring play.

Crimson Tide center Jess Eberdt intercepted a Cougar pass on the WSU 47. From the WSU 41, Moore again passed, hitting end Ben Smith on the Cougar one where he outfought three Cougar defenders to make the catch. "Monk" Campbell powered in for the score from a yard out on the next play.

Lightning struck quickly the next time Alabama got the ball. Campbell, on a beautifully setup fake to Moore, shot through left guard, wriggled free of a State man's clutches and bolted 43 yards to score. In that quick stretch, the Crimson Tide had settled the issue for the day.

Wade's second team was on the field in the third quarter when the final points were registered. Guard J. B. "Ears" Whitworth, later head coach at Alabama, kicked a 30-yard field goal for the game's final points.

It was a dominant victory for the Crimson Tide. Alabama ran for 232 yards and passed for 101 for a total of 333 yards of total offense. Washington State only mustered 204 total yards and only once seriously threatened to score, fumbling its only real scoring chance on the Alabama 1-yard line.

Alabama 29, Stanford 13

PASADENA, Calif. (Jan. 1, 1935) — “Dixie Howell, the human howitzer from Hartford, Ala., blasted the Rose Bowl dreams of Stanford today with one of the greatest all-around exhibitions football has ever known,” was the lead written by legendary sportswriter Grantland Rice. Alabama blasted Stanford, 29-13, with Howell teaming with the incomparable pass catching end, Don Hutson, to electrify the crowd of 84,474 with a 22-point second quarter explosion.

Stanford’s “Vow Boys,” named for their vow as freshmen to never lose again to USC after a loss to the freshman team in 1932, were now juniors. They’d lost to Columbia, 7-0, the previous year in one of the biggest up-sets in Rose Bowl history when Columbia used a trick play that year for the only score of the game. In contrast, there was nothing tricky about Alabama’s game this day – the Crimson Tide relied on the lethal, immortal connection of Howell and Hutson to pass for 214 yards.

In the entire calendar year of 1934 – including the 1934 Rose Bowl game – this Stanford team had given up a total of 21 points. In the 13 minutes before halftime in the 1935 Rose Bowl game, Alabama scored 22. In those 15 minutes, Alabama completed eight of nine passes for 150 yards and gained another 106 yards on the ground. Howell himself gained 96 yards in the air on four completions to Hutson and three more to end Paul “Bear” Bryant. Howell also had a sensational 67-yard sprint for a touchdown.

Alabama had the ball for four plays in the first quarter and made four yards. Stanford actually opened the scoring. Recovering a fumble on the Alabama 29-yard line, Stanford – carried by Bobby Grayson, “Bones” Hamilton and “Buck” Van Dellen – thundered through the Alabama defense and marched straight to a 7-0 lead. Then came the Crimson Tide’s reinforcements.

Howell completed a 17-yard pass to Hutson, then threw completions of 12 and 15 yards to other receivers before Howell scored from the five early in the second quarter to tie the game. As rules allowed in those days, Stanford chose to kickoff as if to show Alabama’s score was a fluke. Howell started the ensuing possession with a 25-yard pass to Hutson, then passed to Bryant for 18 and then back to Hutson for five more. On fourth down with the ball on the Stanford six, Hutson held while Riley Smith kicked a 22-yard field goal for a 9-7 Alabama lead. Still not convinced, Stanford stubbornly kicked off again.

On the second play following the kickoff, Howell swung to his right and swerved for the sidelines and raced 67 yards for a touchdown that sent the crowd to its feet, agog at this masterly piece of running. Alabama now led, 16-7.

Joe Riley replaced Howell at quarterback, but the results were similar. He hit Hutson with a 54-yard pass for a touchdown on Alabama’s next possession to end the half and seal the verdict with a 22-7 Crimson Tide lead.

The Howell to Hutson battery remained dormant until early in the fourth quarter. From the Alabama 41, the duo struck again. Hutson caught Howell’s long spiral on the Stanford 30 and sprinted in from there for his second touchdown, this one spanning a total of 59 yards to close the scoring.

When Howell left the game in the fourth quarter after a 52-yard punt, he had accounted for 239 yards of total offense (71 yards rushing, 160 yards passing) while completing nine of 12 pass attempts, had punted six times for an average of 43.8 yards, and had returned four kickoffs for 74 yards. All told, he amassed 313 all-purpose yards (rushing, passing, and return yards). Hutson finished the day with eight catches for 164 yards and two touchdowns.

“No team in the history of football, anywhere, anytime, has passed the ball as Alabama passed it today,” wrote Ralph McGill in the Atlanta Constitution. “And no man ever passed as did Dixie Howell, the swift sword of the Crimson attack.”

(2) California 13, (4) Alabama 0

PASADENA, Calif. (Jan. 1, 1938) — Head Coach Frank Thomas' 1937 Alabama team was not one of his best, but none was better coached or accomplished quite so much with what it had. After four previously victorious trips to Pasadena, Alabama finally faced the other side of the outcome in its fifth Rose Bowl appearance as the Golden Bears of California dominated the Crimson Tide, 13-0.

This Crimson Tide team had experienced several close calls in the season on the way to this Rose Bowl berth. Sandy Sanford literally kicked his team to Pasadena, winning two crucial games with field goals. In the Tulane game, Sanford booted a 32-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter when Alabama had only six men on the line of scrimmage. The illegal formation was undetected by officials and the Tide won, 9-6. Later in the season, Sanford beat Vanderbilt, 9-7, with another late-game field goal. In the Rose Bowl, however, there was no opportunity for Sanford's heroics.

California, coached by Leonard B. "Stub" Allison, demonstrated too much power and speed, better balance, and some exceptionally skilled and rugged players in center Bob Herwig, end Perry Schwartz, quarterback Johnny Meek, guard Vard Stockton, and halfback Sam Chapman, the latter soon to become a major league outfielder.

But the star of the game was Vic Bottari, a junior tailback who started his career as a virtual nonentity on the Golden Bear squad. Bottari scored both touchdowns against Alabama on almost identical plays in the second and third quarters, quick, well-escorted trips around right end of three and five yards, respectively. Bottari rushed for 137 yards and both touchdowns in the game.

The scoring started soon after California's Sam Chapman punted to Alabama's safety, who was hit so hard by end Perry Schwartz that the ball squirted to the turf, and Schwartz recovered. California punched over the first touchdown to culminate a 63-yard, 13-play land march. Alabama couldn't check driving, brutal power smashes accompanied by paralyzing blocking. Bottari scored from four yards out to give the Golden Bears a lead they would never lose.

The second scoring drive, this one in the third quarter, was an uncanny resemblance of the first. California took over on Alabama 48-yard line, and Chapman and Bottari led another hard-charging ground march that took nine plays (no passes) to reach paydirt. Bottari again punched it in, this time from 5 yards out. Chapman missed the extra point, but it wouldn't matter.

Alabama threatened twice in the game, reaching the Bears' 2- and 7-yard lines, but they fumbled both times. In fact, because of the four fumbles Alabama lost, the Cal victory was criticized as one wrought with bad breaks for the Tide that, inversely, were good breaks for the Bears. But the consensus was that those "breaks" were actually forced fumbles caused by strong, hard tackling by the Cal defenders.

(20) Alabama 29, (9) Texas A&M 21

DALLAS (Jan. 1, 1942) — It was the early days of World War II, so the nation's attention certainly wasn't focused on football, but what the crowd at the Cotton Bowl Stadium witnessed on the first day of 1942 would be long remembered as one of the most unlikely football games ever played. Alabama's opportunistic Crimson Tide whipped Texas A&M, 29-21, under very bizarre circumstances.

The Crimson Tide made only one first down while A&M had 13. Alabama gained only 75 yards total offense, as opposed to 309 for the Aggies. The Tide completed just one pass while A&M completed 13 and Alabama ran just 33 plays, as opposed to 81 by the Aggies. Yet the Tide led 29-7 midway in the fourth quarter, and held off an Aggie rush at the end to wind up with what remains to this day one of the most amazing bowl wins in history.

In spite of all the statistical anomalies previously noted, the only significant statistics were seven Alabama pass interceptions and five fumble recoveries, for a total of 12 turnovers by A&M. Perhaps only one fact made the difference in this game — Alabama had Jimmie Nelson while the Aggies didn't. Almost single-handedly, Nelson was the difference in the game.

The Aggies scored first. Leo Daniels set up the touchdown on his first play in the game by returning a punt 44 yards to the Alabama 18-yard line. Three plays later — on the second play of the second quarter — Daniels pitched a pass to end Herman Cowley for a 12-yard touchdown. Jake Webster's kick gave A&M a 7-0 lead.

Alabama responded less than three minutes later. Daniels fumbled and Alabama tackle Don Whitmire recovered the ball on the Aggie 25. Nelson connected with Holt Rast on a 17-yard pass to the Aggie 8. On third down, Nelson crossed up the Aggie defense on a beautifully executed reverse as he started to the right, then handed the ball to halfback Russ Craft, who raced to the left to go the eight yards for a touchdown. George Hecht's extra point kick knotted the score at 7-7.

Nelson stopped an Aggie threat with an interception in the end zone at the end of the first half to preserve the tie. Nelson then put the Tide ahead for good on the second half kickoff. He took Derace Moser's low line drive kick at the Alabama 28, slipped off a tackler at the 30, then followed a convoy of blockers to complete a 72-yard kickoff return for a touchdown and a 13-7 Crimson Tide lead. Hecht's try for the extra point was blocked.

Late in the third quarter, Nelson again scored. Daniels fumbled a Nelson punt and Alabama end Sam Sharp recovered at the Aggie 21. On the first play, Nelson started to the right, cut back through the Aggie left tackle and managed to avoid six Leading Tacklers on a 21-yard touchdown run. Hecht's conversion gave the Tide a 20-7 lead.

Early in the fourth quarter, an interception led to a 31-yard field goal by Hecht for a 23-7 Alabama lead. A Nelson punt that rolled dead on the Aggie 4-yard line enabled the Tide to the margin a short time later. Passing from his own 10-yard line, A&M's Moser fired a pass to Aggie end Jake Webster, who tipped it into the hands of Rast, who promptly returned the intercepted pass 12 yards for a touchdown. Hecht's conversion kick was blocked.

The Aggies managed to punch over two late touchdowns in the final period, but it was not enough as Alabama claimed its fourth victory in six bowl games. Alabama coach Frank Thomas clearly had his team prepared for the Aggies, the nation's leading passing team. The victory was a typical Alabama bowl victory as the Tide simply wasted few scoring opportunities, seizing every break and making them pay off.

(10) Alabama 37, (8) Boston College 21

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 1943) — Stung by two first quarter Boston College touchdowns, Alabama's All-American center Joe Domnanovich called his team into a huddle as they awaited a kickoff. "Don't give up," he said, simply but firmly. "We haven't had a chance to go with the ball yet. We're going to receive and we're going to run them into the ground."

Twenty minutes later, at halftime, Alabama was in front, 22- 21, and won the game, 37-21.

Mike Holovak, the Eagles' swift-striding right halfback, scored on runs of 65 and 35 yards to put Boston College in front early. Then Alabama went to work.

Russ Craft, Dave Brown, Johnny August and Russ Mosley tore off big chunks of turf and the Eagle defense caved in. Bobby Tom Jenkins raced 40 yards for one score. Boston College made a comeback effort and went ahead 21-19 just before halftime, but George Hecht booted a 25-yard field goal to put Alabama on top, 22-21, at intermission. The Tide added 15 more points in the second half.

Wheeler Leeth scored on a 14-yard pass from Mosley, Ted Cook grabbed a 17-yard scoring aerial from August, Jenkins scored twice on runs of 40 and one, and August faked a pass and ran around right end for a 15 yard score. Hecht kicked a field goal and two extra points and Domnanovich even put two points on the board by tackling an Eagle in the end zone for a safety.

Bill Cullingham, a columnist for the Boston Post, wrote, "When you're beaten as clearly and as splendidly as was Boston College today, the only thing to do is stand and salute as the victors go by. It was a fine game, played in the truest tradition of sportsmanship, brilliantly won and gallantly lost in a magnificent setting, so in taste with the times that none who saw it will ever forget it."

1945 SUGAR BOWL

(11) Duke 29, Alabama 26

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1945) — To say that the 1945 Sugar Bowl game was charged with drama every minute, it wouldn't be much of an exaggeration. The lead changed four times. The outcome was uncertain until the last second.

The heart-throbbing finish pulled 72,000 people out of their seats. In the final analysis, it was the power and experience of Duke's Navy trainees that prevailed over Alabama's inspired wartime civilian group, 29-26.

Harry Gilmer hit the tough Duke line hard for important gains and made many tackles, personally downing the Blue Devils ball carrier after every kickoff. One of Gilmer's passes stood out. Forced far back, Gilmer tripped over one Duke man. Two more Blue Devils got a piece of him. Suddenly, he broke loose for an instant, leaped high, and whipped the ball 41 yards to Ralph Jones, a big end.

On the game's final play, Gilmer fired another long pass to Jones, who just missed scoring a touchdown on a 33-yard gainer to Duke's 25. It was written and said that, at the time, never had one so young performed so brilliantly in a bowl game.

Duke led early, 7-0, but Gilmer's aerial attack set up three Crimson Tide touchdowns before Duke could score again, making it 19-13 at halftime.

Trailing 20-19 early in the fourth quarter, Alabama threw back the Blue Devils on the Tide 12. But the Crimson Tide surged forward again, this time with Hugh Morrow intercepting a Cliff Lewis pass and running 78 yards for the score.

Duke took the kickoff and drove to the Alabama 1-yard line before the Crimson Tide held on a goal-line stand, getting the ball back on downs.

With three minutes remaining, Alabama coach Frank Thomas took a calculated risk and sent in orders to give up two points through an intentional safety. Thomas hoped for a long, high punt from the 20 by John Wade, who would have plenty of time.

The strategy backfired. The punt sailed 40 yards. Duke's George Clark returned it 20 yards to Alabama's 40, from where the Blue Devils cracked the Tide defense for the winning touchdown in two inspired runs.

(3) Alabama 34, (11) Southern California 14

PASADENA, Calif. (Jan. 1, 1946) — This was Alabama's sixth trip to the Rose Bowl and, although the Crimson Tide had enjoyed great success against the West Coast powers, a lot of that region's news media and fans had always said, "You've never played Southern Cal." There wasn't much of that commentary after the outcome of this one as Alabama won, 34-14.

At halftime, Alabama led 20-0. Troy's 21 plays had resulted in a net loss of 24 yards. Not until the score was 27-0 in the third quarter did Southern California make a first down.

Alabama's "wooden horse" toppled the men of Troy like no team ever before. USC had won eight straight Pasadena battles since 1923. Fortunately, Alabama head coach Frank Thomas was merciful. For Thomas it was his last bowl trip as a coach. His health began to fail in 1946 and he was forced to give up coaching in 1947. He died May 10, 1954.

Alabama outgained USC 351 to 41. Troy's running offense netted just six yards.

Harry Gilmer, the Crimson Tide's extraordinary passer, threw only 11 times, resulting in one touchdown. But he ran for 116 yards on 16 carries. Hal Self scored twice, sneaking over from the one and on a 24-yard Gilmer pass. Gilmer went over from the one, and Lowell Tew hit left guard from the two for points and Norwood Hodges scored up the middle on a one-yard plunge. Hugh Morrow kicked four extra points.

The resounding victory assured Thomas a place among the all-time coaching greats. Some 15 years later, Alabama team captain Tom Whitley remarked: "Coach Thomas's system would go today. He used innovations no scout could capture with notes and against which no defense could be surely set."

(5) Texas 27, (6) Alabama 7

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1948) — It is a peculiar fact that some of the most celebrated backs in the Southeastern Conference came to grief in New Orleans in their final game. Names coming to mind of those so ill-fated are Billy Cannon (1960), Johnny Majors (1957), Hank Lauricella (1952), and Harry Gilmer (1948).

Three years before, Gilmer, the Alabama sharpshooter, had heard the multitudes' roar of applause in the Sugar Bowl. It was a far cry from the reaction of 72,000 fans who saw Texas thwart Gilmer and the Crimson Tide, 27-7. He completed only three of his 11 passes and ran for a mere five yards. Loudest cheers went to Texas quarterback Bobby Layne. He sent the ball aloft 24 times and made connections ten times for 183 yards.

Both ground attacks were virtually ineffective as Alabama rushed for 41 yards and Texas to 59.

The Tide was not outplayed to the extent the score would indicate. The difference could have been a touchdown. The first half ended in a 7-7 standoff. Texas' last three touchdowns were achieved by defensive alertness. Or, to say it another way, Alabama committed three expensive errors — having a punt blocked, having a pass intercepted and run back for a touchdown, and fumbling deep in its own territory.

The left side of the Longhorns' line swarmed into the backfield when Norman Mosley tried to punt from Alabama's 25 in the third quarter. Left tackle George Petrovich blocked the kick and left guard Vic Vasicek recovered in the end zone for a touchdown.

Alabama appeared to wilt after that but displayed the heart to stall Texas drives twice within its 10. Then, with six minutes left and the Tide gambling to tie or win, Gilmer was rushed hard and threw desperately over oncoming Longhorns' upraised arms. End Lewis Holder intercepted the soft, short, high pitch. He raced for the red flag at the corner of the field 18 yards away, just making it in.

A few plays after that, Holder pounced on a Gilmer fumble five yards from another touchdown. Layne scored that one on a sneak.

In addition to the times they reached the promised land the Longhorns, in writing a brilliant finale to Blair Cherry's first season as head coach, missed the boat on several other occasions. In the second quarter Texas went from the Alabama 46 to the 12 where Rebel Steiner knocked down Layne's fourth down pass intended for Billy Pyle, who was a great back all afternoon.

Again in the third quarter, Texas went from the Alabama 45 to the 27 where another passing attack died. But the Steers came back knocking and went to the seven before bogging down. Layne finally attempted a field goal from the 15, but it was partially blocked. Texas also missed a third score in the fourth period when a 65-yard drive carried all the way to within one foot of the Crimson Tide goal. But there the center of the Crimson forward wall rose up and smacked down Jimmy Canady on a try through the middle.

The result was a shock to Alabama followers who expected the large senior contingent, stars of freshman and sophomore appearances in bowl games, to finish in grand fashion. Texas was faster, more powerful, and deserved to win.

(9) Alabama 61, (14) Syracuse 6

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 1953) — New Year’s Day 1953 was the first on which football fans could see, through the medium of television, bowl games in Pasadena, Dallas, New Orleans, and Miami. Receipts increased greatly with bigger checks for competing schools and their conference brethren.

Meanwhile, Alabama crushed Syracuse, champion of the East, 61-6, in the Orange Bowl. Many in the crowd of 66,280 left in the third quarter so they could see more of other bowl games on TV at home.

Because the game was lasting so long, an Orange Bowl committee man reportedly approached the timekeeper and suggested the game, nearly three hours old at the time, might be sped up because it was about to be cut off the network.

Fifteen records were set in the fiasco, televised nationally by CBS. Even the deepest Alabama substitutes among the 46 Crimson Tide players were record-minded. “We didn’t want to leave any still standing,” explained tackle Van Marcus.

Alabama rushed for 286 yards and passed for 300. Its total offense of 586 yards and the sum of 818 for both teams were Orange Bowl records.

It was a close contest for a quarter when Alabama led, 7-6. After two periods the score was 20-6. And in the second half, “I just couldn’t stop them,” said Coach Harold (Red) Drew, a native of Maine who came to Alabama as end coach under Frank Thomas and developed Don Hutson, Paul Bryant, and Holt Rast, among others.

Soon after the game the Orange Bowl committee signed contracts with the Big Eight (then Big Seven) and the Atlantic Coast Conference. Their representatives met for the next five years.

(6) Rice 28, (13) Alabama 6

DALLAS (Jan. 1, 1954) — Rice's Dicky Moegle rolled back the Crimson Tide with one of the greatest exhibitions of football history, scoring touchdowns on runs of 79, 95 and 34 yards while gaining a total of 265 yards as the Owls swamped Alabama, 28 to 6, in the Cotton Bowl.

On Moegle's second touchdown run, one of the weirdest events in bowl history occurred when Alabama fullback Tommy Lewis leaped off the bench as Moegle was roaring past, along the 45-yard line, and downed him with a fierce block. At the time, Moegle was steaming along with only one man having a chance — and that a doubtful one — of stopping him.

Rice was leading, 7-6, midway in the second quarter. The Owls were in possession on their own 5. Alabama had just muffed a scoring opportunity. Then, Moegle's signal was called. Taking a handoff from quarterback LeRoy Fenstermaker, he turned right end as his blockers did their job efficiently and headed for the Alabama goal line.

As Moegle approached midfield near the sidelines in front of the Alabama bench, it appeared no player could stop him. No one, that is, except Lewis, who was on the bench, and suddenly ran onto the field bareheaded, and threw his body into Moegle's legs. Moegle was felled on Alabama's 41. Then the alternate captain of the Tide retreated quickly to the spot he had vacated and sat there with his head down in embarrassment as Coach Red Drew stood before him and looked at Lewis in disbelief. Referee Cliff Shaw ruled that Moegle should be credited with a touchdown. The play had started on the Owl 5-yard-line and thus was good for 95 yards.

Although Tide coach Harold (Red) Drew said the Lewis incident had no demoralizing effect on his team, the Southeastern Conference champions were never the same again. A letdown was evident.

It was Lewis who plunged the final foot for a touchdown on a 47-yard advance in the first quarter. Rice went ahead on a 79-yard run by Moegle followed by Fenstermaker's extra point. Moegle scurried 34 yards for another touchdown in the third period as he gained 265 yards of his team's whopping 379 rushing yards. He carried the ball only 11 times, averaging 24.1 yards. After this game, Moegle held four Cotton Bowl records and three all-time major bowl records.

In the third quarter, Moegle sizzled through right tackle and went 34 yards to score. In the final period, he almost did it again as he raced 20 yards down the right side line. Center Ralph Carrigan caught Moegle by a heel to prevent him scoring again. The Owls gained a total of 448 yards to Alabama's 225. Moegle was the difference in the game. Except for his unbridled running, the affair might have been close. Rice was hampered by the early loss of its All-American fullback Kosse Johnson, who went out in the first period when his ailing ankle was sprained again.

The scoring action began when quarterback Bart Starr stole a Rice pass to put the ball in Alabama's possession on the Owl 49. Lewis surged through the middle of the line for 15 yards. On a keeper play, Starr got 12 through left tackle. Lewis got 13 more in two tries to put the ball on the 5. Rice was offside on the next play. With the ball on the 1, Lewis managed to get the ball to within inches of the goal line and then leaped high for the touchdown. The Rice line rolled him back but he had crossed the line with his forward motion. The extra point try of Halfback Bobby Luna was blocked and Alabama led 6 to 0.

After the game, Lewis sorrowfully trudged off the field. "I'm too emotional," he told a reporter. "I kept telling myself, 'I didn't do it. I didn't do it.' But I knew I had. I'm just too full of 'Bama. He just ran too close. I know I'll be hearing about this the rest of my life."

1959 LIBERTY BOWL

(12) Penn State 7, (10) Alabama 0

PHILADELPHIA (Dec. 19, 1959) — Quarterback Galen Hall led Penn State to a 7-0 victory over Alabama in the first Liberty Bowl game. Hall's pass to Roger Kochman on a fake field goal was good for 18 yards and the touchdown on the last play of the second period. Sam Stelletella added the extra point by placement and that was the ball game.

Fumbles plagued both clubs, each team losing the ball four times. In addition, Alabama recovered three of its own. The rash of fumbles was attributed to the 42-degree temperature that seemed colder because of a brisk wind.

Penn State completely dominated the first half, but fizzled on three scoring chances before finally breaking through. The Nittany Lions fumbled and lost the ball on the Alabama eight in the first period. In the second quarter, they got to the one, but Hall's fourth down pass misfired. A field goal attempt by Stelletella from the Alabama 12 was blocked by Billy Richardson.

After a four-yard punt against the stiff wind by Tommy White, Penn State had one more chance on the Alabama 22 with less than a minute to go. They ran off one play, gaining four yards, and then came Hall's scoring pass to Kochman. This was the trickery coach Rip Engle had promised. It was Penn State's first fake field goal of the season.

Hall took over early in the second period after Lucas left the game because of a hip injury. Penn State's talented triple threat quarterback never got back into the ball game. While he was in, Lucas gained 54 yards in nine carries and completed one of four passes for 23 yards. Lucas, however, was the leading ground gainer.

On the fake field goal, Hall appeared to be ready to hold the ball for Stelletella's kick. Instead, he bounced up and pitched to Kochman, who made his way through the startled Alabama defense. It was Alabama's first defeat since its opening loss to Georgia, and Penn State's ninth victory in 11 games.

Two beautiful quick kicks by Gary O'Steen that carried 61 and 64 yards with the help of a following wind, kept Penn State penned up most of the first period. Still the Nittany Lions managed an 89-yard march to the Alabama 1 before Don Cochran, who recovered two fumbles, pounced on a ball jarred loose from Kochman.

Jay Huffman was named the outstanding lineman of the day for his fine center play and excellent linebacking. Engle's Penn State club, which has used a variety of formations in a successful season, leaned heavily to the unbalanced line with both ends on the same side of the center. In the dressing room, Alabama coach Paul "Bear" Bryant had this comment: "We just got a good old sound thrashing."

It was Penn State's first bowl victory in three attempts. In the dressing room, Coach Engle smiled as he said, "We beat them at their own game - defense."

A crowd of 36,211 braved the elements at cavernous Philadelphia Municipal Stadium (later named John F. Kennedy Stadium).

1960 BLUEBONNET BOWL

(9) Alabama 3, Texas 3

HOUSTON (Dec. 17, 1960) - A pair of linemen provided all the scoring as Texas and Alabama battled to a 3-3 deadlock in the second annual Bluebonnet Bowl played in Rice Stadium. A crowd of 68,000 saw Alabama End Tommy Brooker boot a 30-yard field goal in the third period to put the Crimson Tide out front. Then Texas tackle Dan Petty kicked a 20-yard field goal with just 3:44 left to play as the underdog Longhorns tied the score.

Alabama, with a 7-1-1 season record, went into the game as a slim one-point favorite. Except for one strong Alabama threat in the fading seconds of the first period, the game was one of booming punts by Texas' Bobby Nunis and Alabama's Laurien Stapp. The defenses played a mighty role in the game. Texas contained one Alabama drive on the one-yard line, and the Tide blunted Texas' offense and kept the Longhorns bottled up in there own end of the field most of the game.

Alabama got its score midway in the third period. Texas was forced to punt. Nunez' kick was taken on the Tide 40 by Bill Piper, who returned all the way to the Texas 34. Pat Trammel and Mike Fracchia worked to the 28 on two plays. Skelton hit and Norbie Ronsonnet with a pass on thee 14. Wilson carried to the 13 and then the Tide lost two downs on incomplete passes.

With fourth down and seven needed for a first down, the Tide elected to try a field goal. The ball was spotted on the 20-yard line and Brooker neatly toed it through the uprights with 7:21 remaining in the period,

Texas took the following kickoff and marched from the 23 to the Alabama 19 and bogged down. Petty came in for a field goal try. The ball was spotted on the 25, but Petty's kick was wide to the left. The big gainer in the Texas march was a 38-yard pass play from Mike Cotton to James Saxton. Texas finally broke into the scoring deep in the last period.

The Longhorns took over on a punt on the 26 and marched to the Tide three in 13 plays. A personal foul against Alabama aided the Texans in a key spot.

Texas pulled a fake field goal on the seven. Petty went in to boot, but instead of kicking, Cotton flipped a pass to Jack Collins on the four. Texas kicked its game-tying field goal on a fourth down and three situation. The ball was spotted on the 10 and Petty kicked good.

Alabama tried to come back via passes, but only got as far as the Texas 35. Texas mustered enough drive to move back into Bama territory and Petty attempted his third field goal try of the day from the 25. The kick was made just as the final gun sounded, but the kick was wide.

Statistics showed Texas had the best offense of the day, picking up 11 first downs to four and outgaining the Tide 124 yards to 65 on the ground. Alabama picked up 151 yards passing to 108 for Texas.

(1) Alabama 10, (9) Arkansas 3

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1962) - Alabama's defense proved to be the difference once again as the national collegiate football champs carved out a 10-3 victory over stubborn Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl classic.

Alabama wasted no time in lighting up the scoreboard. With only eight minutes gone in the opening period, the Crimson Tide moved 79 yards, with Fullback Mike Fracchia's 43 yard dash to the Porker's 12 highlighting the march. Quarterback Pat Trammell, who called a near perfect game, carried the remainder of the way on a rollout.

A record crowd of 82,910 watched as Tim Davis booted a 32-yard field goal in the second period to put Alabama out in front, 10-0.

Coach Frank Broyles' Razorbacks, finding it hard to puncture Bama's granite like defense, cut the Tide's lead to seven points when Mickey Cissell split the uprights with a 23 yard field goal in the third period. Alabama Head Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant, who guided the Crimson Tide to a perfect season (11-0), was bubbling with joy.

"I thought it was a great game," Bryant said with a smile. "I'm as proud of them as if the score had been 100-0. Wee came to play. Our boys rose up real well and stopped them on the big plays."

"Fracchia didn't let them catch their breath with his shots up the middle and Trammell, like always, did whatever he had to do. Our boys did a good job stopping Lance Alworth. He's a good competitor, but we just didn't give him a chance today. If we had, it could have been a different ball game."

Trammell, the Southeastern Conference total offensive leader in 1961, repeatedly picked up yardage with his seemingly slow style of running. However, the decisive factor was the hot pursuit of the Alabama line. The Crimson Tide, champions of the SEC, showed why they had the best defensive record in the country in 1961. They swarmed into the Arkansas backfield all afternoon. At the end of the first half, Alabama halted a Razorbacks drive on its own 10 and in the third period, halted the Hogs on the seven.

"We knew when we went into the game that we were going to have trouble grinding out yardage against this team," Broyles said. "But, we never thought it would be this hard. We just couldn't get our offense going. I guess the main reason was Alabama's great defense. Bama's offense was just what we expected - tough and aggressive. Our boys were tight and uneasy in the first half. That didn't help, but when you're playing the number one team in the nation, you expect that. In the second half, I thought we did a respectable job."

The game ended almost like it started, on a note of high drama. It started when Arkansas surged down the field with Alworth catching a 31-yard pass from quarterback George McKinney on the Alabama 43, only to fumble. After failing to move, Alabama punted to the Razorbacks' 20. Two plays later, Arkansas was the beneficiary of a pass interference call that gave the Razorbacks the ball on the Tide 40. McKinney immediately went to the air again, tossing one that barely eluded Alworth's hands at the goal line.

Alabama knocked down another pass and then Butch Wilson jumped high to intercept a third and stepped out of bounds inches short of the goal. Trammell butted up the middle three times and failed to budge the Razorbacks' line.

"We planned to give them a safety on fourth down," Bryant said after the game. But, it proved unnecessary. Time ran out before the ball could be put into play again.

(5) Alabama 17, (8) Oklahoma 0

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 1963) - In the Alabama dressing room after the Crimson Tide's 17-0 Orange Bowl victory over Oklahoma, a photographer asked Coach Paul Bryant to spell the name of a player whose picture he had just taken.

"That's Namath, son - N-A-M-A-T-H," Bryant said. "But don't worry about it. You'll learn how to spell it in the next couple of years."

If the photographer was unfamiliar with the name, the crowd of 73,380 that attended the 1963 Orange Bowl game - and millions more watching on television - were not.

Long before that game, Bryant said the precocious young man from Pennsylvania was ahead of Babe Parilli (whom he coached at Kentucky) as a sophomore. He rated Namath "potentially the finest quarterback I've ever coached."

Namath piloted his team 61 yards in ten plays for a touchdown in the first quarter. From the Oklahoma 5-yard line, he faked a handoff and a short pass, whirled, and sailed a long pass into end Richard Williamson's hands in the end zone.

A sleight of hand pitch-out to halfback Cotton Clark resulted in a 15-yard scoring sprint in the second period. It was the third play after Billy Piper returned a punt by Joe Don Looney to the Sooners' 34. First, Namath threw a pass to Williamson, good for 20 yards.

Next, and finally, Namath conducted a Tide surge from Oklahoma's 33 to the two-yard line. There, it was fourth down. Tim Davis, Alabama's placekicker, toed a 19-yard field goal. This third quarter opportunity arose when Looney, the nation's leading punter with an average of 43.4 yards, was hurried by guard Frankie McClendon's rush and got off a kick of only seven yards.

Lee Roy Jordan was as fine a linebacker as has ever played in the South. Perhaps no one in college football in 1962 had his almost instinctive ability to seek out the ball carrier so quickly and bring him down so abruptly. It is doubtful if Bryant ever praised a player quite as much.

Jordan finished the game with an Alabama bowl record 31 tackles.

Fifteen seniors finished the best three years (29-2-2) Alabama had ever known to that point in football. Only a matter of a few inches, the distance by which Jack Hurlbut failed to make a two-pointer after the only touchdown against Georgia Tech (Tech won, 7-6), separated the Tide from two straight national championships.

1964 SUGAR BOWL

(8) Alabama 12, (7) Mississippi 7

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1964) – This was no ordinary Sugar Bowl game. It snowed on the eve of the game and that was just the first of some unusual occurrences.

With junior standout quarterback Joe Namath suspended for disciplinary reasons, sophomore Steve Sloan, showing the poise and savvy of a veteran, guided the Crimson Tide to a 12-7 victory over the heavily favored Mississippi Rebels, but it took four Tim Davis field goals to turn the trick.

Davis's kicks of 31, 46, 22 and 48 yards earned the senior from Columbus, Ga., the Outstanding Player award. His four field goals were a bowl record and his 48-yarder was the longest in bowl history at the time.

It was 3-0 after the first quarter, 9-0 at halftime and 12-0 going into the final quarter. The Rebels finally got on the scoreboard when Larry Smith took a five-yard pass from Perry Lee Dunn. Billy Irwin kicked good and it ended just that way, 12-7, Alabama.

With snow piled on the edge of the playing field, the Tide put on a great display of how to win under adversity. The alert Crimson Tide gobbled up six Rebels fumbles and intercepted three Rebels passes. And while Mississippi piled up more yardage (248 to 194), it was Alabama that controlled the football by running 69 plays to only 48 for the Rebels.

In the final quarter the Tide defense stopped the Rebels on Alabama's 2, 9 and 28-yard lines to seal the verdict.

(5) Texas 21, (1) Alabama 17

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 1965) – Favoring a knee that he had severely injured earlier in the 1964 season, Alabama quarterback Joe Namath put on a memorable show while nearly pulling out a comeback victory, but the Texas Longhorns rose up to stop Namath inches short of the goal line late in the game to win, 21-17, over the national champion Crimson Tide.

Namath was a shoo-in for the game's Most Valuable Player honors, hitting on 18 of 37 passes for 255 yards and two touchdowns. All of this after his knee was hurting so much that he couldn't start the game.

Texas struck first, scoring with just 23 seconds left in the first quarter when big Ernie Koy sped 79 yards. In the second period, Jim Hudson fired a 69-yard bomb to George Sauer to put Texas on top, 14-0.

The Tide battled back, marching 87 yards, with Namath passing seven yards to sophomore Wayne Trimble for the score.

Texas got a couple of breaks for its next score just before halftime. The Longhorns were seemingly stopped and went for a field goal. Alabama's Creed Gilmer raced through to block it and David Ray recovered for the Tide and rambled three yards before fumbling. Texas recovered to regain possession.

On the next play Hudson went back to pass and was dumped by Jim Simmons for a loss, but on the play Alabama was guilty of holding a receiver down field and it gave the Horns a first down on the Tide 13. Three plays later, Koy went around right end from the one and it was 21-7 at halftime.

Namath then put the Tide into motion in the second half. He hit Tommy Tolleson, Wayne Cook and Ray Perkins for passes to move to the Texas 20, then hurled a perfect strike to Perkins for the score. In the fourth quarter, Namath got the offense going again, only to bog down and have to settle for a David Ray field goal to cut it to 21-17.

Jimmy Fuller intercepted a Texas pass in the fourth quarter, then Namath and Steve Bowman moved the ball within inches of the Longhorn goal, but on fourth down, linebacker Tommy Nobis and the Texas line stopped Namath and ended Alabama's hopes.

Moments later, when Alabama swarmed into the offensive again, Pete Lammons, who played a titanic role for Texas on defense, snared a pass on the Texas 32, and that was the ball game. There was less than three minutes to play and time ran out for Alabama.

Koy, son of a former major league baseball player, was the leading ground gainer of the game. He ran for 145 yards in 24 tries for a 5.5 average.

Alabama's leading ground gainer was Bowman, with 23 yards in 10 carries. This gave an indication of the might of the Texas defense, rated fifth best in the country on the ground.

Hudson, the Texas backup quarterback who went into the game when starting signal caller Marvin Kristynik failed to get the team moving, threw 13 times for 101 yards.

Steve Sloan, who started the game at quarterback for Alabama on a fragile knee hurt in the season's final game, threw seven times for 43 yards. He and Namath threw 44 passes between them - an Orange Bowl record at the time.

(4) Alabama 39, (3) Nebraska 28

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 1966) – The third ranked Nebraska Cornhuskers and the fourth ranked Alabama Crimson Tide both entered their Orange Bowl matchup with longshot aspirations at the National Championship. Things looked up by game time as number one ranked Michigan State was upset by UCLA in the Rose Bowl and number two ranked Arkansas fell victim to LSU in the Cotton Bowl. The scene was set for the winner of the Orange Bowl to claim the national crown.

The Orange Bowl featured two explosive offensive teams with different approaches to their attack. Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide used the accurate throwing arm of quarterback Steve Sloan to rebound from an early season loss to Georgia and a tie with Tennessee, while Bob Devaney's Cornhuskers hit the ground running averaging 290 rushing yards per game and 32.1 points per game.

Alabama took the first lead five and a half minutes into the game. Sloan guided the Tide on a 61-yard drive to score on a 21-yard pass play to Ray Perkins. Perkins grabbed the scoring pass at the 15 and wiggled away from a pair of defenders to skip into the end zone.

The Huskers rallied back early in the second to tie the score. The first Husker tally came on a 33-yard pass from quarterback Bob Churchich to end Tony Jeter. Alabama coach Bear Bryant gave quarterback Steve Sloan the green light to throw on any down who then opened up an offensive onslaught to bury the Huskers by halftime.

Alabama scored two touchdowns and a field goal in the second period to post a 24-7 lead by halftime. The first score followed a 39-yard Sloan to Perkins pass that took the ball down to the NU 13. Leslie Kelley took the ball over from 4 yards out for the touchdown. The second score followed a 93-yard Tide drive, capped by an 11-yard pass from Sloan to Perkins. A David Ray field goal later in the period sent the teams to the locker rooms with the Tide sporting a 17-point lead.

Nebraska pulled back into the game early in the third period on a 49-yard touchdown pass from Churchich to Ben Gregory, but the point-after kick was missed. The Tide lengthened their lead with a 1-yard touchdown run by Steve Bowman and a two point conversion to make the score 32-13 after three periods.

Nebraska wasn't ready to give up in the fourth period. Churchich scored his first touchdown of the day on a 1-yard plunge. Alabama kept the comeback in check later in the period by turning in another Bowman touchdown run, this time from three yards out. Nebraska added a late 14-yard touchdown pass from Churchich to Tony Jeter but it wouldn't be enough as the Crimson Tide claimed the National Championship with a 39-28 Orange Bowl win.

Sloan's 20 for 28 passing performance broke the Orange Bowl pass completion record, set just one year prior by fellow Tide quarterback Joe Namath. Sloan's 296 yards in the air also set a new Orange Bowl standard. Perkins finished his day with 9 completions for 159 yards.

Nebraska was held to 232 yards rushing, almost 60 yards below their average, and were victimized by four fumbles and an intercepted pass. The Huskers finished the season 10-1 and ranked number five in the nation by the Associated Press.

1967 SUGAR BOWL

(3) Alabama 34, (6) Nebraska 7

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 2, 1967) – Nebraska's hopes for a revenge victory over Alabama's Crimson Tide in the 1967 Sugar Bowl Classic ended abruptly — the first play of the game, to be exact.

The Cornhuskers, 39-28 Alabama victims in the 1966 Orange Bowl, picked the Sugar Bowl for a chance to meet the Tide again, and by doing so became the only Big 8 team to land a spot in the four major bowls. But that was the only satisfaction the Huskers could gain as The Tide struck early and quickly established dominant superiority.

On the first play after the opening kickoff, Tide quarterback Kenny Stabler blazed the ball through the soggy, leaden skies to All America end Ray Perkins sailing full speed at the NU 40. Perkins wasn't hauled down until he hit the Husker 27. Seven plays later Alabama scored and launched the rout that was to see the Tide lead, 17-0 at the quarter, 24-0 at the half and 27-0 before the Huskers could muster a fourth-quarter touchdown and avert a shutout.

It was a convincing display of Alabama speed, quickness and determination as the Tide sought to become the only major unbeaten claimant to the national title.

Stabler's pin-point passing, Perkins' amazing pass catching skills and some fine running by Stabler — he won the Miller-Digby Memorial Trophy as the outstanding player of the game — put the Cornhuskers in a huge hole early and they were never able to regain the initiative.

The heavier Cornhuskers, unable to utilize their ball-control strategy against the lighter, swifter Tide, were forced to play catch-up from the opening gong and simply couldn't master Alabama's rock-ribbed defense until the final period.

Nebraska, led by quarterback Bob Churchich, made a game try — Churchich tied a pass attempt record (34), set a new completion record (21) and passed for 201 yards — but five interceptions (two against Churchich) dashed comeback hopes at every turn.

Alabama's win was bolstered by a solid edge in statistics. The Tide out-rushed Nebraska 157-84, out-passed the Huskers 279-213 and out-downed NU, 19-16.

The Cornhuskers finally broke the scoring ice on the first play of the fourth quarter when Churchich capped a 70-yard, 9-play with a 15-yard, scoring toss to junior fullback Dick Davis. Davis took the ball at the 10 and powered in for the Husker touchdown and Larry Wachholtz kicked the point-after conversion.

Following the game, Nebraska Coach Bob Devaney confirmed what most of the fans were thinking when he said: "The Alabama team today is the best football team I've ever seen - they're No. 1, all right."

Texas A&M 20, (8) Alabama 16

DALLAS (Jan. 1, 1968) - "The big plays won for us again," said head coach Gene Stallings of Texas A&M as he reviewed his team's 20-16 triumph over Alabama in the Cotton Bowl Monday. Big plays and Alabama mistakes - the kind of mistakes that led Alabama head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant to contend earlier in the 1967 seasons that the defense can outscore the offense.

Alabama was making the mistakes and the Aggie defense was cashing in on them. Bryant, who coached Stallings at A&M in the 1950s, took the young man with him to Alabama as an assistant, lamented over his team's mistakes, but spent his time telling Stallings how proud he was that he could bring A&M out of a four-game losing streak to the Southwest Conference championship, then victory in the Cotton Bowl to run his winning string to seven.

Bryant came across the field and carried Stallings around like a football team often does a winning coach. Stallings couldn't help himself - the Bear outweighed him by about 75 pounds. "He sure is strong isn't he?" mused Stallings when Bryant finally let him down.

The Aggies took the field with a 6-4 record compared with proud Alabama's 8-1-1. The Aggies, playing in their first bowl game in 26 years while Alabama was in its 21st, cashed in on a pass interception and a recovered fumble for touchdowns, then saw Wendell Housley, who missed part of last season with a broken foot, smash 33 yards in two runs for the touchdown that sealed the Tide's doom.

Ken Stabler ran for two Alabama touchdowns, and Steve Davis kicked a 36-yard field goal for the Alabama scores. Stabler worried the Aggies throughout with his passing. He had three of his throws intercepted and was smothered repeatedly by the vicious Aggie rush. Alabama scored first on an 80-yard drive with Stabler running the last three yards. A&M's Tommy Maxwell intercepted a Stabler pass to set up the tying touchdown, made by Larry Stegent, who took a 13-yard toss from Hargett.

Davis kicked his field goal opening the second period, and Alabama led 10-7. With only 21 seconds left in the half, the Aggies scored after a 56-yard drive with Hargett throwing for 59, three of which made up for an Aggie loss. His seven-yard toss to Maxwell in the end zone brought the score. Charlie Riggs missed the extra point try when the ball hit the cross bar and A&M led 13-10 at the half.

A 28-yard kick by Davis set the Aggies up on their 48 early in the third period, and A&M, behind the passing of Hargett and the running of Housley, slammed 52 yards for the touchdown that gave A&M victory. Hargett passed for 10 and ran for one and Stegent ran for seven before Hargett turned it over to Housley, who battered the Alabama line for 13 yards and then 20 more and the touchdown.

Alabama came back fighting and surged 83 yards for a touchdown, with David Chatwood running for 28, Ed Morgan chipping in with a six-yard dash and Stabler passing for 41. Stabler got the score with a smash over tackle from the seven. There was no more scoring as the Aggies failed to cash in on a Stabler interception and again fumbled the ball away on what appeared to be another touchdown drive.

The Aggies had pushed to the Alabama 22 when Hargett fumbled and Alvin Samples recovered on the Tide 27. Alabama then started its last desperate drive with Stabler passing all over the place. The Tide was aided by a personal foul against the Aggies that put the ball on the Alabama 44. Stabler pitched to All-American Dennis Homan on the A&M but the Aggies held and took over on their 26.

Hargett, who completed 11 of 22 passes for 143 yards and two touchdowns, was named outstanding back. Housley was second in the voting by sports writers covering the game. Bill Hobbs, A&M's All-American line-backer, was selected outstanding lineman.

1968 GATOR BOWL

(16) Missouri 35, (12) Alabama 10

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (Dec. 28, 1968) - Missouri startled Alabama with a newly-installed Power I offense that the Tigers perfected in secret workouts and blunted the Crimson Tide's attack with a vicious defense that swept the Tigers to a 35-10 victory before 68,011 in the 24th annual Gator Bowl.

It was the worst beating a Paul Bryant-coached Alabama team had ever suffered and the statistics told the story. Alabama had minus-45 yards rushing and a total offensive output of just 23 yards. Missouri banged out 402 yards rushing, but didn't complete a single pass although it really wasn't necessary. Alabama made just six first downs to 21 for the Tigers.

McMillan scored three Tiger touchdowns on short runs and baffled Alabama throughout the nationally televised football battle with his deft pitchouts on the option. McMillan never completed a pass, but he never had to. He did have a pair of tosses picked off that gave Alabama its only points. Defensive back Donnie Sutton raced 38 yards with an interception for an Alabama touchdown in the second quarter, and Mike Dean's fourth quarter interception set up his 25-yard field goal.

The Missouri defense, anchored by ends Elmer Benhardt and Bill Schmitt, blunted Alabama's running and passing attack. Crimson Tide quarterbacks were thrown for losses nine times. Alabama, losing three games in a season for the first time since 1958, managed only three first downs in the first three quarters. The Tide stayed in contention until the late minutes only with the help of its two pass interceptions and a pair of Tiger fumbles.

But Roger Wehrli, Missouri's All-American safety, clinched the Tigers' fourth straight bowl triumph with a late interception that set up McMillan's third touchdown, a two-yard run. In the dosing minutes, Greg Cook ran 37 yards from scrimmage and Dennis Poppe raced 47 yards with an interception to pad the margin.

McMillan scored in the first quarter on a four-yard burst, and he gave the Tigers a 14-7 lead in the second period with a five-yard scoring run. The Tigers, who operated from the "regular I" during a 7-3 season, changed their attack during Gator Bowl workouts "to give us stronger running," Missouri head coach Dan Devine said.

The switch paid off with Cook, McMillan, Jim Harrison and Ron McBride all cracking through the Tide line. Missouri gained 404 yards rushing, with Cook collecting 179. Alabama gained only 45 yards on the ground and added but 68 through the air. Quarterback Scott Hunter was so harassed by the Missouri ends that he hit only seven of 25 throws and was thrown for losses totaling 61 yards.

Alabama, a slim favorite after its 8-2 season record, never led. The Tigers took the opening kickoff and McMillan drove the Tigers to a 7-0 lead in 11 plays. Alabama never led although the Tide did roll to a brief tie on Sutton's scoring interception.

Bryant had not lost three times in a season since his first year at Alabama in 1958. The Missouri explosion was particularly surprising because the Tigers rolled without completing a pass against a team that had given up only 104 points during the regular season.

Colorado 47, Alabama 33

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (Dec. 13, 1969) - The enthusiastic Liberty Bowl committee wanted a high-scoring football game to enhance its reputation and they certainly got it when they matched Colorado and Alabama.

All-American Bob Anderson rushed for three touchdowns and 254 yards Saturday to lead the University of Colorado to a come-from-behind 47-33 victory over Alabama in the 11th annual Liberty Bowl.

Trailing 33-31 going into the final period, Anderson, who earlier had run four yards for a touchdown, turned in scoring jaunts of two and three yards to carry the Buffaloes to victory.

Alabama's Bear Bryant had told his team "honor and pride" were awaiting them if they could win the post-season game since they had posted the worst regular season record (6-4) in more than a decade.

Colorado jumped off to a 17-0 lead and went to the dressing room at halftime leading 31-19. Colorado scored on the opening drive with Ward Walsh blasting over from the 13 to cap an 80-yard drive in eight plays. Later in the quarter, Dave Haney kicked a 30-yard field goal to extend the Colorado lead to 10-0. The Buffaloes made it 17-0 via the power running of Anderson, who barged over from four yards out to cap an 80-yard march in just eight plays.

But the Tide got in a few surprises of their own, with dropback passer Scott Hunter dashing 31 yards on a surprise run to make it 17-7. Later in the quarter Alabama's George Ranager took a pitchout and got a key block from Johnny Musso to score from the six and it was 17-13, as Alabama went for two and failed.

But it took the Buffaloes only six plays to respond with Walsh popping over from the 15. Alabama wasn't finished, however, and drove 72 yards in seven plays to score with Musso going in from the two. Again, the Tide went for two and failed, but it was 24-19 with just 46 seconds left in the first half. Jim Duke's kickoff was fielded by Bob Mastern on the Buffs' 9, where Mastern handed the ball off to Steve Engle, who raced 91 yards to score for a 31-19 Colorado lead at halftime.

Alabama received to open the second half. On second and 10 from its 45-yard line, Neb Hayden arched a long pass to Griff Langston, who gathered it in and raced home to score, to trim the Colorado lead to 31-26.

Alabama's Steve Williams intercepted a CU pass a few minutes later and the Tide was at it again. Hayden again went to the air and hit Musso with a 10-yard touchdown pass to put the Crimson Tide out in front of the hectic offensive show by a 33-31 margin.

Colorado's Anderson then slid off left tackle from the two to put the Buffs in front for good, 38-33. Alabama's Hayden was caught in the end zone later in the game for a safety to give Colorado a 40-33 lead.

With time running out and Alabama trying to make a last ditch comeback, the Crimson Tide went for it on fourth and 18 from its own 18 and could not convert. Colorado then marched down the short distance with Anderson scoring from the three with just 45 seconds left to make it a 47-33 final score.

1970 BLUEBONNET BOWL

Alabama 24, (20) Oklahoma 24

HOUSTON, Texas - (Dec. 31, 1970) - Two offensive-minded football teams battled to a 24-24 deadlock in Houston's Astrodome in the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl as Alabama and Oklahoma fought tooth-and-nail down to the wire.

There was a total of 843 yards total offense in the game but, while the defenses weren't anything to brag about, both teams did make some key stops along the way.

Alabama scored first as tight end Randy Moore gathered in a four-yard Scott Hunter pass to cap a 54-yard, eight-play drive. Oklahoma responded with a touchdown drive to tie the game with Joe Wylie scoring from the two. It was 7-7 after one quarter and things were just heating up.

In the second quarter, Alabama marched to within the shadow of the Oklahoma end zone, only to have an interception kill the drive. The Sooners came back with a 58-yard scoring run out from swift Greg Pruitt to go on top, 14-7.

After a missed field goal attempt by Alabama, Oklahoma extended its lead to 21-7 as Pruitt followed a key block from Wylie and dashed 25 yards to score. With the game in danger of getting out of hand, Alabama was able to bounce back just 14 seconds left in the second quarter as Hunter hit David Bailey with a five-yard scoring pass to narrow the deficit to 21-14 at halftime.

In the third quarter, Alabama's Richard Ciemny kicked a 20-yard field goal to narrow the gap to 21-17. That set up an intense fourth quarter.

With 7:36 left and Alabama facing a fourth down at the Sooner 25, running back Johnny Musso took a handoff and started wide to his right. He then stopped and fired a left-handed pass back to quarterback Hunter. That pass caught the Sooners napping, with Hunter making a dash to score. The play gave Alabama the lead, 24-21.

With only 59 seconds left, OU field goal specialist Bruce Derr hit on a 42-yard attempt to tie the game at 24-24. But Alabama was able to mount one final threat. Oklahoma tried an onside kick, but it was recovered by the Tide had it at the OU 40. Musso broke loose for 21 yards to the 19. Dave Brungard got two yards, then Hunter was sacked for a one-yard loss.

With just five seconds left Alabama called time out. Ciemny lined up for a 34-yard field goal try that would win the game, but Oklahoma's John Shelley get a hand on it and deflected the kick to preserve the tie.

Hunter completed 13 of 26 passes for 174 yards as the Crimson Tide rolled up a total offense of 428 yards. Oklahoma, with Leon Crosswhite gaining 111 yards in 20 carries and Pruitt adding 97 in eight carries, finished with a 415 total.

Pruitt took the game's outstanding back award while Alabama linebacker Jeff Rouzie was named the top lineman.

(1) Nebraska 38, (2) Alabama 6

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 1972) - It was billed as the National Championship Game as Nebraska entered the game ranked first with Alabama ranked second. But the Cornhuskers quickly salted away not only the game but the national title with a 38-6 victory that was greatly aided by a mistake-filled effort by the Crimson Tide.

Played before 78,151 in 70-degree weather, the Orange Bowl Classic showed no ill effects from a two-hour downpour that ended just before the game. Nebraska's incomparable Johnny Rodgers' 77-yard punt return in the opening quarter served notice that the Huskers' one touchdown favorite odds were not nearly enough.

But it was the work of the Nebraska defense that was mainly responsible for keeping the Huskers' unbeaten string going up to 32 and winning streak to 23. The Blackshirts held the Crimson Tide to a single touchdown. The unit set up three touchdowns by recovering fumbles and a fourth via an interception returned to the Tide one-yard line.

The Tide led in first downs, 16-15; rushing plays, 57-47; and yards rushing, 241-183. But Nebraska held a total offense advantage of 342 yards to 288 and passing, 159-147, on 11 completions in 20 attempts. Another statistic that revealed a great deal was the 136 yards Rodgers gained returning punts, compared to 36 for the Tide.

With Nebraska clinging to a 6-0 lead eight seconds before the end of the first quarter, the Blackshirts forced a punt by Alabama's Gregg Gantt. It was not the long, driving type of punt, beyond the defensive cover that is Rogers' favorite type. He gambled by picking up a bouncer with enemies in close at his 23. He darted to his right, shaking loose from the first foe. A key block by Jim Anderson allowed the junior sprinter to turn the corner. Another block was supplied by Jerry List, who lost his helmet in the process. From midfield on, it was no contest as Rodgers logged his fourth punt return touchdown of the season and sixth of his career. The 77-yarder was three yards short of the Orange Bowl record.

If that play didn't take the starch out of the Tide, the next play did. Steve Williams was decked by Randy Borg while returning the kickoff. The ball popped free and into the inviting arms of John Peterson 27 yards from the Tide goal. Seven plays later, the Huskers were sitting happily on a 21-0 lead. Tagge's 20-yard pass to Gary Dixon, only the second reception of the year by Dixon, carried it to the nine. Two carries by Dixon netted two yards and Tagge passed to substitute fullback Maury Damkroger, who was jolted out of bounds inches from the end zone. Tagge's fourth-down sneak for the touchdown came with 12:43 left in the half.

Alabama came back in the second half with grit and determination to earn whatever comfort can be found in statistics. The Tide's All-American halfback Johnny Musso gained a much-deserved 79 yards on 15 carries, but he, like so many other highly touted backs, toiled in the shadows of the irresistible Kinney, who rushed for 99 yards on 20 carries.

Alabama's most effective weapon was the option running and draw plays of its quarterbacks, Terry Davis during a third quarter bid and Butch Hobson after Davis was injured in the fourth quarter. After Husker cornerback Joe Blahak punted, Alabama's initial post-intermission threat ended with an end-zone interception, the Tide rolled 55 yards, with Davis stepping 28 and 10 yards before turning the left side on fourth and three and taking Blackshirts Dave Mason and John Dutton into the end zone with him. But that was the extent of Alabama's challenge until the game-ending drive that ended on Nebraska's eight.

Nebraska added three more points on a 21-yard Sanger field goal on the last play of the third quarter and a final touchdown following Anderson's interception. Nebraska's last touchdown was scored by backup quarterback Van Brownson.

That sent up a din of "We're No. 1" that engulfed the Orange Bowl.

(7) Texas 17, (4) Alabama 13

DALLAS (Jan. 1, 1973) - Billed as "The Battle of the Wishbones", this Cotton Bowl clash found Texas storming from behind in the fourth quarter to capture a 17-13 decision on a cold and blustery day in which the Crimson Tide was unable to get it together on offense.

Following Steve Wade's interception for Alabama, the Crimson Tide's Gregg Gantt kicked a Cotton Bowl record 50-yard field goal to give the Tide an early 3-0 lead. After an exchange of punts, Wade grabbed his second interception of the young game and raced 42 yards to the Texas 31. On the next play, Wilbur Jackson took a pitch wide to the right and behind Joe LaBue's clearing block, cruised untouched for the touchdown and Bill Davis quickly added the extra point to make it 10-0.

Texas drove to a field goal of 24 yards by Billy Schott to pull Texas within 10-3. A short time later, with just eight seconds remaining in the first half, Bill Davis banged through a 30-yard field goal for Alabama to push its halftime lead to 13-3.

A short Tide punt in the third quarter gave Texas good field position and the wishbone-driven Horns drove 59 yards in 15 plays. Quarterback Alan Lowry raced in from three yards out and Schott's kick cut the Alabama lead to 13-10.

Alabama reeled off an impressive fourth quarter drive from its 20 to the Texas 34 where on first down Terry Davis went for broke and tried to hit Wayne Wheeler with a touchdown pass, only to have Texas defensive back Terry Melancon intercept in the end zone.

Texas, going to the air behind Lowry, marched to the Tide 34, from where Lowry bootlegged the final 34 yards, tightrope walking the sidelines for the winning touchdown. Television replays and newspaper still photos showed that Lowry may have stepped out of bounds on his winning run, but the play stood and Schott's kick made it 17-13.

The Tide wasn't finished, though, and marched from its 10 to the Texas 43, where Jackson was stopped short on a fourth and one play, Texas taking over and hammering the final nail into the Tide's coffin.

(3) Notre Dame 24, (1) Alabama 23

NEW ORLEANS (Dec. 31, 1973) – It was the first meeting between two giants of college football – Alabama and Notre Dame. The game was the latest version of “The Game of the Century”, and it certainly lived up to every inch of newspaper space and moment of air time on radio and television.

Notre Dame won, 24-23, in one of the true classics of college football history. The game had everything – six lead changes, outstanding plays in all phases of the game, a tense finish and dramatic play calling. With the close victory, Notre Dame vaulted from third to first in the final Associated Press (AP) rankings. Alabama had finished first in both polls in the regular season and remained the United Press International (UPI) champion as that ranking did not have a post-bowl survey.

Alabama could have put the game away in the third quarter, but couldn't deliver the knockout punch. Notre Dame ran a kickoff back for a touchdown. Notre Dame dominated the early going. Led by quarter back Tom Clements, who shot passes of 19, 26 and 14 yards to split end Pete Demmerle, the Irish offense scored first in the opening period. Fullback Wayne Bullock capped a 64-yard scoring drive with a six-yard run into the end zone.

Alabama responded in the second quarter, producing three long drives that resulted in a pair of scores – the first when Randy Billingsley scored on a six-yard run and Bill Davis added the extra point that put Alabama up by one at 7-6 with 7:30 remaining. On the ensuing kickoff, Notre Dame's Al Hunter stunned the crowd with a dazzling 93-yard return, the longest in Sugar Bowl history. The Irish went for two and converted as Clements hit Demmerle in the end zone for a 14-7 Notre Dame lead.

Alabama moved deep into Notre Dame territory late in the second quarter, but had to settle for a 39-yard field goal by Davis. At the start of the second half, Alabama marched 93 yards to take the lead on Wilbur Jackson's five-yard scoring run. Again Notre Dame charged back, but a 54-yard field goal attempt by Bob Thomas was wide.

A short time later, Notre Dame linebacker Drew Mahalic recovered a Tide fumble in mid-air and took the ball to the Alabama 12-yard line. On the first play from scrimmage, Eric Penick dashed 12 yards for the score. Thomas's kick gave the Irish a 21-17 lead with 2:30 left in the third quarter.

Early in the fourth period, the game took a wild turn with three turnovers in 90 seconds. Alabama took charge with a trick play that paid off. With the ball on the Notre Dame 25, second-string quarterback Richard Todd handed off to halfback Mike Stock, then raced to the sidelines where he took a return pass from Stock and went in for the score. But Davis missed the conversion try and Bryant's Tide, which hadn't won a bowl game in its last four appearances, hung on to a slim two-point advantage, 23-21, with 9:33 remaining.

Notre Dame immediately responded by driving 79 yards in 11 plays. Runs by Hunter, Penick and Clements combined with a 30-yard pass from Clements to Dave Casper carried the drive to the Alabama 15-yard line. The Irish reached the Alabama 3-yard line and Thomas entered to kick a field goal. Thomas, who had missed two attempts earlier in the game, kicked a 19-yard field goal with 4:26 remaining to give the Fighting Irish and the Irish a 24-23 lead.

With three minutes to play, Alabama punter Greg Gantt booted a 69-yard punt that backed up the Irish to their own one-yard line. However, Gantt was run into on the play and Alabama was entitled to keep the ball with fourth down and five yards to go. But Alabama's Paul “Bear” Bryant elected to decline the penalty, hoping his defense could force an Irish turnover deep in their own territory.

Bryant's strategy almost worked. Notre Dame gained almost nothing on its first two plays, but on third down Clements lofted a 35-yard pass to tight end Robin Weber to get the Irish out of the hole and to salt away the victory.

(9) Notre Dame 13, (2) Alabama 11

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 1975) – A rematch of the previous year's national championship showdown produced another painful, close loss for Alabama as Notre Dame once again proved to be the spoiler for Alabama's national championship dreams, upsetting the Crimson Tide, 13-11.

Alabama was ranked first in the nation in the United Press International (UPI) poll and second by the Associated Press (AP) going into the game, with Notre Dame being eighth and ninth. A year before when the two had met with Sugar Bowl as the setting, Notre Dame won, 24-23, and vaulted to the national title. This time Notre Dame only ruined Alabama's chance, giving retiring head coach Ara Parseghian a retirement gift.

Notre Dame built a 13-0 lead in the first half and withstood a furious Alabama rally in the game's final minutes.

The scoring started midway through the first quarter when Alabama fumbled a Notre Dame punt and Al Samuel recovered the ball for the Irish at the Crimson Tide's 16-yard line. Three plays later Notre Dame faced a fourth-and-one play at the Alabama 7-yard line. Wayne Bullock powered his way over the left side for three yards and a first down. On the next play, he powered into the end zone on a four-yard run for the first Irish score. Dave Reeve added the extra point.

With 50 seconds left in the first quarter, the Notre Dame offense took control at its own 23-yard line and quarterback Tom Clements engineered a 77-yard scoring drive in 17 plays taking 7:21 off the clock. The Irish attempted only one pass in the march, rushing 16 times for 68 yards on the drive. The drive was slowed at the Alabama 28-yard line when the Irish faced a fourth-and-four situation, but an offside call on Alabama on a field-goal attempt revived the drive. The Irish made the most of the opportunity, with Mark McLane breaking free of Alabama defenders and going nine yards for the score. Reeve missed the point-after kick but Notre Dame had a 13-0 lead.

A Notre Dame fumble on their next possession gave the Tide the football on the Irish 40-yard line. Alabama went to the air with quarterback Richard Todd hitting Ozzie Newsome for 11 yards and Jerry Brown for 12 yards as the Tide marched to the Notre Dame eight-yard line. The Irish defense held, and Alabama scored on a 21-yard field goal by Danny Ridgeway with 1:45 left before halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter Alabama, which averaged only 11 passes a game during the season, again went to the air. Todd carried the Tide to the Irish 12-yard line but then threw an interception to John Dubenetzky, who returned the ball 16 yards to the 26. The Irish couldn't put together a sustained drive and turned the ball over to Alabama with 4:29 left.

On fourth down needing five yards for a first down, Todd threw a 48-yard touchdown pass to Russ Schamun with 3:13 remaining. The Tide added two points on a conversion pass from Todd to George Pugh to close the deficit to 13-11.

With 1:39 left, Alabama got the ball back at its own 38-yard line needing only a field goal to win. Todd tossed to Schamun for a 16-yard gain and hit Randy Billinsley for an eight-yard reception to the Irish 38. But Notre Dame's Reggie Barnett intercepted Todd's next throw to clinch the verdict in favor of the Irish.

For Alabama, linebacker Leroy Cook was the defensive standout while fellow linebacker Ronnie Robertson led in tackles with 11. Alabama out-gained the Irish in total offense, 285 to 204, but had four turnovers. Todd hit 13 of 24 passes, six of them to freshman Ozzie Newsome for 68 yards and five to Schamun for 126 yards.

A crowd of 71,801 watched this New Year's night game, with NBC-TV televising it nationwide.

(4) Alabama 13, (8) Penn State 6

NEW ORLEANS (Dec. 31, 1975) – Alabama ended its eight-year bowl losing streak in a memorable way with a hard-fought victory over an outstanding team. The Crimson Tide's first bowl victory since January 1, 1967 (a 34-7 victory over Nebraska in the Sugar Bowl) was a 13-6 victory over the Penn State Nittany Lions.

It was the first Sugar Bowl played inside the climate-controlled Louisiana Superdome, matching third-ranked Alabama (10-1) against seventh-ranked Penn State (9-2).

Richard Todd, Alabama's senior quarterback, put on an offensive show, completing 10 of 12 passes for 205 yards. In running the Tide's wishbone offense to near perfection, he was named the game's Most Valuable Player. Todd passed 55 yards to split end Ozzie Newsome to set up the game's only touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Todd, who had suffered a cut finger on Christmas Day, came out with his finger bandaged, and Penn State stacked its defense while daring him to throw. That strategy cost the Nittany Lions dearly in the early going. Joe Dale Harris, a surprise starter, ran a turn-in pattern while Todd released his throw just before being engulfed by the defense.

With State's minimal coverage, Harris broke free and turned the short pass into a 54-yard gain. That play eventually led to a 25-yard field goal by Danny Ridgeway and a 3-0 Alabama lead that held up to the half.

Penn State's Chris Bahr tied the score with a 42-yard field goal in the third quarter, but Todd brought the Tide back quickly. At the Penn State 35 following a timeout, Todd pump faked PSU freshman Bill Crummy and Newsome broke back to the sideline and caught the pass 25 yards downfield, being brought down at the 10. Todd lost four yards recovering a fumble, but Mike Stock swept into the end zone behind a ferocious block by Newsome.

Bahr cut the margin to 10-6 with a 37-yard field goal in the fourth quarter, but Ridgeway answered for Alabama with a 28-yard kick for a 13-6 lead. With 3:19 left, Penn State got its last chance. The Nittany Lions inched out to their 39 before Alabama stopped the Nittany Lions on a fourth-and-one play with 1:15 to go.

(16) Alabama 36, (7) UCLA 6

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (Dec. 20, 1976) – A Liberty Bowl-record crowd of 52,737 braved freezing temperatures and gusting winds at speeds up to 31 miles per hour at the 18th annual Liberty Bowl. This game, playfully referred to as “The Refrigerator Bowl”, was blown open by the Alabama defense, which stopped the Bruins twice on fourth down plays – once at the Crimson Tide 1-yard line, and another time by an interception on a third down at the Alabama 1.

After Bucky Berrey opened the scoring with a 37-yard field goal midway through the first quarter for a 3-0 Alabama lead, the Crimson Tide defense began asserting its dominance. Alabama sophomore linebacker Barry Krauss, the game’s most valuable player, intercepted a pass and rambled 44 yards for the Tide’s first touchdown. “Our defense was simply magnificent most of the time,” said Alabama head coach Paul “Bear” Bryant. “Not only were we stopping them, our defense put some points on the board, too.”

Late in the first quarter, running back Johnny Davis plunged one yard for the Tide’s first offensive touchdown and a 17-0 Alabama lead. The lone scoring play in the second quarter came about when Alabama used trickery to move the lead to 24-0. Quarterback Jack O’Rear handed off to running back Tony Nathan, who drifted to his right before throwing back to O’Rear on a 20-yard scoring play.

Two more field goals by Berrey in the third quarter – from 25 and 28 yards out – extended the lead to 30-0 early in the fourth quarter. The three field goals by Berrey set a Liberty Bowl record.

After UCLA notched its only score on a 61-yard run by Leotis Brown with 9:32 left in the fourth quarter, Alabama closed the scoring when Rick Watson broke through on a 1-yard run with 22 seconds left in the game for the final 36-6 margin.

(3) Alabama 35, (9) Ohio State 6

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 2, 1978) – Alabama had rebounded nicely after an early-season 31-24 loss at Nebraska, racing into its January 2 Sugar Bowl encounter with the Ohio State Buckeyes riding a strong crest of momentum that had set the Crimson Tide up for a shot at a national title if things broke their way in the other New Year's Day bowl games.

Since a thrilling 21-20 upset of top-ranked Southern Cal at Los Angeles in October, the Crimson Tide had been on a roll, winning its sixth Southeastern Conference championship in seven years and climbing to third in the national rankings entering the bowl game. The Sugar Bowl was billed as a match between the nation's two winningest active coaches – Alabama's Paul "Bear" Bryant and Ohio State's Woody Hayes.

But the game turned into a rout as Alabama won easily, 35-6, and with the upset by fifth-ranked Notre Dame of top-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl, it appeared the Crimson Tide were in position to claim another national championship. But in a controversial and tight vote, the Irish vaulted from fifth to first, with Alabama finishing a close second.

Alabama quarterback Jeff Rutledge and the Crimson Tide offense wasted no time in getting the game under their control. On the Tide's second possession, a 10-play, 76 yard march, running back Tony Nathan scored from a one-yard out.

Alabama's offensive line established its dominance from the game's first play. On the game's opening possession, 16 of Alabama's 17 plays were running plays as the Crimson Tide held the ball for eight minutes, gaining 60 yards, before the drive ended when quarterback Jeff Rutledge was stopped on a two-yard pickup on fourth-and-goal from the 5.

A short time later, Rutledge guided Alabama 76 yards on its next possession. A 29-yard pass to Ozzie Newsome, with a 15-yard roughing the passer penalty added on, put the Crimson Tide in scoring range. Tony Nathan ran into the end zone from the 1 after Bruce Bolton's six-yard run on a reverse.

Bolton also figured in the next Alabama touchdown. Rutledge and the Crimson Tide line pushed Ohio State around on an 11-play, 76-yard touchdown drive. The scoring play came when fullback Johnny Davis moved to his right on a fake at the Buckeye 27 while split end Bolton, who had lined up as a right halfback, rolled out of the backfield and raced down the sideline. Anticipating the run, an Ohio State cornerback stepped forward – and Bolton in the clear. Rutledge dropped back and handed the ball to Bolton, who was barely inbounds. The extra point was missed, but with 4:32 left until the half, Alabama led 13-0.

Quarterback Rod Gerald had the Buckeyes in position to get back in the game, guiding Ohio State to the Alabama 3 before the Tide defense held after Ohio State head coach Woody Hayes passed a potential field goal attempt on fourth down.

After the Alabama defense again stopped the Buckeyes at the Crimson Tide 28, Rutledge took the Tide 72 yards for a touchdown. He hit Richard Neal with a three-yard scoring pass for the touchdown and added another pass to Neal on a two-point conversion for a 21-0 lead late in the third quarter.

Ohio State fought back to within 21-6 on the ensuing possession, marching 85 yards in seven plays to score on a 38-yard pass from Gerald to Jim Harrell with 13:34 left in the game. A two-point conversion attempt was stopped by Alabama.

Sophomore quarterback Steadman Shealy assumed control of the Alabama offense in the final quarter and engineered two touchdown drives. The first was an 84-yard march in 14 plays that ended with a 1-yard run by Major Ogilvie with 6:30 left. A short time later, Johnny Davis capped a 24-yard drive in four plays following a Buckeyes turnover by scoring on a 7-yard run with 5:09 left.

Rutledge finished as the game's Most Valuable Player, hitting on 8 of 11 passes for 109 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Johnny Davis, the Tide's bullish senior fullback, led the Alabama ground assault with 95 yards on 24 carries.

(2) Alabama 14, (1) Penn State 7

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1979) – One vivid image was permanently etched into the minds of the 76,824 in the Superdome and the millions of television viewers who watched the 45th annual Sugar Bowl on New Year's Day, 1979. Penn State, the nation's No. 1 team, was stopped on two consecutive plays inside the one-yard line by the Alabama defense to preserve a 14-7 victory for Alabama's second-ranked Crimson Tide. The famous goal line stand won a national championship for Paul "Bear" Bryant and the Crimson Tide.

The outcome of this tight defensive battle was determined by a small number of critical decisions and crucial plays in a game in which the nation's top two teams proved to be amazingly evenly matched. The teams battled evenly for the entire first half and appeared headed for a scoreless deadlock as halftime approached.

With the ball at the Alabama 33-yard line in the half's final moments, the Crimson Tide appeared content to run out the clock with 1:11 left. But Penn State called a timeout after two consecutive plays to stop the clock, hoping to get the ball back and set up a field goal. But Alabama senior halfback Tony Nathan countered with runs of 30 and 7 yards down to the Penn State 30-yard line.

Suddenly, Alabama was within range of a score to end the half and had the time to get even closer to the Penn State end zone. Within field goal range, Alabama presumably would position itself for a go-ahead kick in the final seconds of the second quarter. But Penn State coach Joe Paterno's plan backfired enormously when Crimson Tide quarterback Jeff Rutledge dropped back and found split end Bruce Bolton wide open in the end zone for a 30-yard touchdown pass with just eight seconds left in the half. Alan McElroy kicked the extra point to give Alabama a 7-0 halftime lead.

An interception by Penn State's Pete Harris at Alabama's 48-yard line late in the third period set up Penn State's only touchdown. Nittany Lions quarterback Chuck Fusina hit Scott Fitzkee deep in the end zone for a touchdown. Matt Bahr's extra point kick tied the game at 7-7 with 4:25 left in the third quarter.

A few moments later Alabama halfback Lou Ikner ran 62 yards with a Penn State punt before being dragged down at the Nittany Lions' 11-yard line. Three plays later, Major Ogilvie rammed into the corner of the end zone, sprung by a key block by tight end Rick Neal. McElroy kicked the extra point to extend the Alabama lead to 14-7 with 21 seconds left in the third quarter.

The Nittany Lions had a chance to tie the score when the Lions' Joe Lally fell on a misdirected pitchout by Rutledge on an option play at the Tide 19 with 7:57 remaining. Penn State drove to a third down and goal at the Alabama one. But the Alabama defense sealed off its end zone in a tremendous defensive effort, climaxed by Crimson Tide linebacker Barry Krauss stopping Penn State tailback Mike Guman short of the goal line.

(2) Alabama 24, (6) Arkansas 9

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1980) – A tweak in the offensive scheme played a major role as the University of Alabama reached a new pinnacle of success by beating Arkansas, 24-9, in the 46th annual Sugar Bowl. In the process of winning its fifth straight bowl, four of them Sugar Bowls, this unbeaten Alabama team became the first Tide squad in the school's history to win 12 games in a season. A record Sugar Bowl crowd of 77,468 and millions of viewers on national television watched Alabama win.

In the weeks preceding the Sugar Bowl game, Alabama head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant installed a double wing with motion off the wishbone formation. The Crimson Tide could run its basic plays off the set, but its real value was in catching the Arkansas players and coaches off-guard.

After the Razorbacks took an early lead on a 34-yard field goal by Ish Ordonez, courtesy of a lost Alabama fumble on the opening kickoff, the Tide showed its new look. The Crimson Tide immediately embarked on a seven-play, 82-yard drive featuring a fullback in motion and plenty of counter-action movement, slowing the aggressive Arkansas defense.

Alabama's Major Ogilvie took a pitchout from quarterback Steadman Shealy and scored from 22 yards out midway through the first quarter, marking the third straight year in which Ogilvie scored a Sugar Bowl touchdown.

On the fourth play after the ensuing kickoff, another Razorback fumble was recovered by Crimson Tide linebacker Thomas Boyd on the Arkansas 22. Four plays later, Ogilvie scored his second touchdown on a one-yard run to put the Tide ahead 14-3 with 3:46 left in the first period. That deficit forced the Arkansas offense into an accelerated passing game.

When the Tide's Alan McElroy kicked a 25-yard field goal for a 17-3 lead at intermission, it appeared that Alabama was content with sitting on its lead and running out the clock.

But Arkansas quarterback Kevin Scanlon, who had been punished throughout the first half, gathered himself and found his touch, guiding the Razorbacks 80 yards to a touchdown after the second half kickoff. Split end Robert Ferrell made an over-the-shoulder catch for a three-yard touchdown, the two-point conversion fell short. Still, the score was now 17-9 and the Razorbacks were back in the game.

The crucial phase of the second half occurred after Arkansas' Mike Burchfield downed a punt on the Crimson Tide eight-yard line in the fourth quarter, Arkansas had a legitimate chance to threaten the lead if they could mount a defensive stand.

But Bryant's troops were at their best when it counted, racing 98 yards in 9 plays to the touchdown. Steve Whitman ran for six yards to start the drive. Ogilvie rushed for seven to the Tide 15. Billy Jackson's 35-yard sprint with a Shealy pitchout keyed the march, reaching the 50-yard line. Jackson came right back on the next play with a 14-yard run up the middle to the Arkansas 36. Ogilvie gained six off guard, then Shealy ran an option keeper for 22 yards at the Arkansas 11.

After two plays and a five-yard penalty on the Tide, Alabama faced third-and-11 at the Arkansas 12-yard line. Offensive coordinator Mal Moore suggested the play, "43 Read", to Shealy, who ran the option play to the right side of the line and handed to Whitman, who raced through the Arkansas defense for the clinching touchdown. The 98-yard drive, Alabama's longest of the season, sealed the outcome.

(9) Alabama 30, (6) Baylor 2

DALLAS (Jan. 1, 1981) – Alabama capped off a 10-2 season by decking Southwest Conference champion Baylor 30-2 in the 45th Cotton Bowl Classic on New Year's Day 1981. For only the second time since 1971, Alabama had failed to win the Southeastern Conference championship, finishing second behind eventual national champion Georgia. The Tide had been upset by Mississippi State (6-3) to snap the nation's longest winning streak at 28, then fell to old nemesis Notre Dame (7-0).

But against Grant Teaff's Baylor Bears, Paul "Bear" Bryant's Crimson Tide was impressive. The Alabama defense was the primary factor, as the likes of middle guard Warren Lyles, E.J. Junior and Thomas Boyd shut down Baylor's previously unstoppable running tandem of Walter Abercrombie and Dennis Gentry. The pair had combined for nearly 2,000 yards during Baylor's 10-1 regular season, but on this sunny day in Dallas, they were limited to a combined total of 54 yards.

Major Ogilvie, Don Jacobs and Mark Nix scored touchdowns for the Crimson Tide and sophomore Peter Kim added a Cotton bowl record three field goals to send Alabama to its record-tying sixth consecutive bowl victory. Baylor's offense was all but blunted by the swarming Crimson Tide defense, which helped bring Bryant his 306th career coaching victory.

Kim kicked field goals of 29 and 28 yards in the first half and added a 42-yarder in the third quarter. His three field goals equaled a Cotton Bowl record set in 1972 by Penn State's Alberto Vitiello. Ogilvie, who carried 15 times for 74 yards, scored Alabama's first touchdown of the game, going over from the 1 in the second quarter and thus becoming the first person ever to score a rushing touchdown in four consecutive bowl games.

Alabama, which finished with 241 yards on the ground, added a pair of touchdowns in the final quarter on a one-yard run by starting quarterback Don Jacobs and a three-yard run by running back Mark Nix with 1:16 to play. Baylor, shut out 45-0 by Alabama during the 1979 season could manage only a safety, that coming in the second quarter when defensive tackle Tommy Tabor tackled Alabama quarterback Walter Lewis in the end zone as Lewis was trying to throw the ball.

Alabama and Baylor both finished the season with 10-2 records and the game was never a contest after the Bears missed on their only good touchdown opportunity late in first quarter.

The Crimson Tide held only a 6-0 lead and the Bears had moved to the Alabama 15 thanks chiefly to an interference penalty against the Tide. But on first down, running back Dennis Gentry was clobbered by Jim Bob Harris and the resulting fumble was recovered by Randy Scott.

Alabama recovered four fumbles and picked off three passes, two of those interceptions coming from Jeremiah Castille. Two of the Bears' fumbles came on punt returns and both led to Kim field goals.

Two throws by Jacobs, one of 20 yards to Billy Jackson and another of 49 yards to Jesse Bendross, combined with Baylor fumbles at its own 12 and at Alabama's 9 set up the Crimson Tide's 13-2 halftime lead.

Alabama's first drive appeared to have stalled at midfield, but on third-and-9 from the Bears' 47, Jacobs, under a heavy rush, got a pass away to Jackson for 20 yards. That led to Alabama's first field goal and the second one was set up five minutes later by a fumble by Baylor's Gerald McNeil on a punt return at his own 12.

Baylor's next fumble wiped out a chance for the Bears' to go ahead following a 50-yard interference penalty against Alabama. Alabama allowed Baylor to run only 14 plays in the second quarter and produced its first touchdown early in that period after the Jacobs to Bendross 49-yard pass play that carried to the Baylor 4-yard line. Ogilvie scored two plays later.

During the opening two quarters Baylor could manage only 36 total yards, including 12 on the ground in 14 tries. Alabama was penalized for more yards in the first half than Baylor could gain on its own. Junior combined with tackles Byron Braggs and Jackie Cline along with fellow end Gary DeNiro to take away Baylor's outside running game.

(6) Texas 14, (3) Alabama 12

DALLAS (Jan. 1, 1982) – Alabama marched into Dallas as the Southeastern Conference co-champion and its head coach, Paul “Bear” Bryant, entered as the winningest man in the history of the game, but Fred Akers’ Texas Longhorns were not impressed.

Five weeks after Bryant had earned his record-breaking 315th head coaching victory against in-state rival Auburn, the Longhorns came from behind to hand Alabama a 14-12 defeat.

The Longhorns overcame a 10-0 deficit with two touchdowns in the fourth quarter, then gave the Crimson Tide an intentional safety before weathering a counter-charge. Not only did the victory by Texas keep alive a Longhorns jinx of never having lost to Alabama, but it kept Bryant from winning an NCAA record seventh consecutive bowl game in seven years.

Alabama quarterback Walter Lewis’s six-yard touchdown pass to Jesse Bendross and Peter Kim’s 24-yard field goal gave the Longhorns a big fourth quarter hill to climb.

Texas quarterback Robert Brewer, starting only his fourth game for the Longhorns, raced 30 yards for a touchdown on a tricky draw play. After a punt, Brewer directed the Longhorns 80 yards in 11 plays climaxed by Terry Orr’s eight-yard touchdown run. Included in the drive was a 37-yard completion to tight end Lawrence Sampleton on a third-and 10 play.

Alabama’s Joey Jones returned the ensuing kickoff a Cotton Bowl record 61 yards, but cornerback William Graham intercepted Lewis on the next play at the Texas 1, setting up an ending that was steeped in strategic decisions by both head coaches.

Akers ordered Texas punter John Goodson to take a safety with less than a minute to play. And Texas held Alabama after it got a free punt from its own 20.

The win improved Texas’ record to 10-1-1, while the loss dropped Alabama to 9-2-1. Brewer, who completed 12 of 21 passes on the day for 201 yards, was named the offensive most valuable player and Alabama linebacker Robbie Jones, who had 12 tackles, was the defensive MVP.

1982 LIBERTY BOWL

Alabama 21, Illinois 15

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (Dec. 29, 1982) – The 1982 Liberty Bowl is remembered almost solely as the last football game Alabama played under the direction of legendary head coach Paul “Bear” Bryant, who announced his retirement from coaching just two weeks prior to the game.

At the end of an atypical season, Alabama entered the 1982 Liberty Bowl coming off three straight season-ending losses. Big Ten Conference foe Illinois, 7-4 and boasting a potent offense and in the midst of a resurgence under 46-year-old head coach, Mike White, was appearing in its first bowl in 19-years.

Alabama retired Coach Bryant in proper fashion by registering a 21-15 victory over the Fighting Illini. The win gave Coach Bryant a final record of 323-85-17 – the most wins by any head coach in college football history up to that point.

“Many thanks to the staff for one heck of a job,” he said afterward in a crowded press interview tent. “The players’ preparation and the coaches’ preparation, especially in this circus-type atmosphere, were exceptional. I am thankful to have won my final game. Whether the team likes it or not, they will always be remembered for winning my last game. I am proud they wanted to win this one for me.”

Alabama jumped ahead in the early going as fullback Ricky Moore started the scoring with a four-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. After Illinois closed the gap to 7-6 on a one-yard run by Joe Curtis and failed extra point in the second quarter, the Tide took the lead into the locker room at halftime.

In the third quarter, split end Jesse Bendross ran scored on a reverse from 8 yards out to put Alabama up 14-6. Then, Illinois rallied behind quarterback Tony Eason on a two-yard pass from Eason to wide receiver Oliver Williams to draw within 14-12 after a failed two-point conversion attempt.

The Crimson Tide surged further ahead in the final quarter as Craig Turner scored the last touchdown of the Bryant Era for Alabama on a one-yard run with 7:34 left in the game for a 21-12 lead. Illinois roared back and drew closer on a 23-yard field goal by Mike Bass with 6:12 remaining, but the Fighting Illini could get no closer due to a clutch defensive effort spearheaded by cornerback Jeremiah Castille’s three interceptions. Castille earned Most Valuable Player honors for that performance.

Alabama won the game despite giving up 444 yards of total offense and surviving a Liberty Bowl record, 423 yards of passing from Eason. Alabama’s bruising ground attack plowed for 217 yards while the Tide defense allowed only 21 yards on the ground.

Bryant died on January 26, 1983, less than four weeks following the Liberty Bowl.

Alabama 28, (6) SMU 7

EL PASO, Texas (Dec. 24, 1983) – Alabama entered the 50th Annual Sun Bowl after a disappointing 7-4 regular season. Playing before the largest crowd (41,412) ever to witness an event in El Paso, Texas, sports history up to that point, the Crimson Tide football team gave the fans their money's worth by shocking sixth-ranked Southern Methodist (SMU), 28-7. That crowd braved wind gusts of up to 35 miles per hour and temperatures in the 20s.

Fullback Ricky Moore ran for two first-period touchdowns and Walter Lewis riddled the nation's second best defense with his passing to lead Alabama to its most impressive victory of the season, The 235-pound Moore, who carried 28 times for 113 yards and his sixth consecutive 100-yard effort, capped early drives of 59 and 51 yards with touchdown runs of 1 yard and 11 yards to give the Crimson Tide a 14-0 lead after one period. It was the first time SMU trailed by 14 points since the 10th game of the 1980 season. Lewis, who completed nine of 14 passes for 148 yards and was named the game's most valuable player, scored from a yard out to end an 86-yard drive midway through the second quarter. He lofted a 19-yard touchdown pass to split end Joey Jones 43 seconds before halftime to make it 28-0.

Alabama's first half domination was evident in more ways than the scoreboard showed. The Crimson Tide piled up 303 yards in the first two periods against a team which had yielded an average of 256.1 in 11 regular-season games while allowing only 105 yards for the Mustangs while building a 17-4 edge in first downs.

SMU won the pregame coin toss and elected to take the wind. But there was no stopping Alabama in the first half as the Crimson Tide scored twice into the wind and twice with the gusts at its back. Following Greg Richardson's 13-yard punt return, the Tide covered 59 yards in seven plays for the first touchdown. The key plays were an 11-yard pass from Lewis to flanker Jesse Bendross and a 35-yard run by freshman tailback Kerry Goode. Three plays later, Moore took a pitchout, broke two tackles and powered across the goal line for a 7-0 lead.

SMU quarterback Lance McIlhenny fumbled a snap from center on the Mustangs' first possession and Alabama cornerback Sammy Hood, who was blitzing, recovered at the Tide 19. Alabama needed only 64 seconds and three plays to make it 14-0. Lewis passed 32 yards to Richardson, scrambled for eight and flipped a pitchout to Moore, who started right, cut back sharply and scored from the 11 without a hand being laid on him.

The Crimson Tide went 86 yards in 6:22 for its third touchdown. Reserve tailback Linnie Patrick started it with a 14-yard run and Lewis whipped passes of 18 yards to tight end Preston Gothard and 17 to Jones. He also ran twice on third down for the necessary yardage and fired an 8-yard pass to Bendross on another third-down situation. On third-and-goal at the one, Lewis fooled the SMU defense with a fake to Moore up the middle, hesitated for a second and then darted around right end to score easily. Freshman Van Tiffin's conversion made it 21-0.

Alabama strong safety Ricky Thomas recovered a fumble by Atkins at the SMU 49, but Lewis fumbled the ball back at the 15 eight players later. However, free safety Freddie Robinson intercepted a McIlhenny pass at the Alabama 38 with 1:09 left in the half and Lewis needed only four plays and 26 seconds to make it 28-0. After an incomplete pass, he gained 13 yards on a quarterback draw and passed to tight end Thornton Chandler for 25. One play later, Lewis found Jones in the rear of the end zone behind cornerback Fred Nichols for Alabama's final touchdown. SMU, which turned the ball over three times on fumbles and twice on interceptions, finally scored with 3:41 left in the third period, going 78 yards in three plays with freshman Jeff Atkins bolting 58 yards to the Alabama 15 and McIlhenny tossing a touchdown pass to split end Marquis Pleasant, another freshman, on the next play.

After SMU's third period score, the Mustangs threatened on two other occasions. But tailback Reggie Dupard fumbled the ball away at the Tide 21 with 4:16 left in the third period and McIlhenny threw an incomplete pass on fourth down from the Alabama nine with 7:02 remaining.

It was Alabama's 37th bowl game and 25th in a row, both national records, but the first since head coach Ray Perkins succeeded the late Paul "Bear" Bryant as head coach. The victory enabled the Crimson Tide to snap a two-game losing streak which had dropped them out of the Top 20 rankings and wind up 8-4 in Perkins' first season, the same record as Bryant's final team a year earlier. It also was Alabama's 20th bowl victory against 14 losses and three ties, equaling Southern California's mark of 20 bowl wins.

SMU, the nation's winningest team over the span of 1981-82 with a 31-2-1 record before the Sun Bowl debacle, finished the season with a 10-2 record. The Mustangs two setbacks in that three-year stretch were by two and three points to Texas.

1985 ALOHA BOWL

(15) Alabama 24, Southern California 3

HONOLULU (Dec. 28, 1985) – Alabama dominated the second half to hand Southern California a 24-3 defeat in the fourth annual Aloha Bowl in Honolulu to end the 1985 season with a 9-2-1 record. Before a crowd of 35,183, the Crimson Tide victory tied USC with the most bowl victories (21) as the traditional football powers met for only the second time in bowl competition.

The first half was a defensively-dominated sloppy affair that ended in a 3-3 tie. Alabama was whistled for 68 yards on seven penalties in the first half. The Tide scored on its first possession, driving 54 yards from its own 15-yard line to the USC 31 where Van Tiffin kicked a 48-yard field goal. Early in the second quarter, USC tied the score on a 24-yard field goal by Don Shafer with 9:36 left in the half after UA stopped the Trojans at the eight yard line on a drive that started from the USC 37.

The charged up Crimson Tide scored a touchdown on its second possession in the third quarter. Greg Richardson returned a punt 14 yards to the Trojans 42. Ten plays later, fullback Craig Turner dove into the end zone from the one. Tiffin converted the extra point for a 10-3 lead.

Moments later, Kermit Kendrick intercepted a USC pass and returned it 16 yards to the Trojans 44. Five plays later, Alabama quarterback Mike Shula hit wide receiver Clayton Whitehurst in the end zone for a 24-yard touchdown pass. Tiffin converted for a 17-3 lead with 13:25 left in the fourth quarter.

Alabama forced USC to punt on its next possession and Richardson called for a fair catch on the Trojans 44. Seven plays later, flanker Albert Bell ran a reverse around the left side for a 14-yard touchdown with 8:25 remaining. Tiffin kicked the extra point for the 24-3 final score.

Alabama freshman running back Gene Jelks gained 79 yards on 17 carries and was named the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player. Junior All-American linebacker Cornelius Bennett had nine tackles, broke up one pass, and pressured opposing passers throughout the game to earn the Most Valuable Defensive Player honor. The game was televised nationally by Innovative Sports TV.

(13) Alabama 28, (12) Washington 6

EL PASO, Texas (Dec. 25, 1986) – Alabama's memorable 1986 senior class went out in impressive style with a dominant 28-6 victory over Pac-10 Conference runner-up Washington. The win gave the Crimson Tide a 10-3 record against one of the nation's toughest schedules. Alabama head coach Ray Perkins' final team at the Capstone opened the season 7-0, only to lose three of its final five regular season games to finish with a 9-3 record.

Senior All-American linebacker Cornelius Bennett was selected the game's most valuable player. He led the defense that allowed Washington's high powered offense just 62 yards on the ground, and 241 yards total offense. The Tide didn't allow a touchdown.

After a scoreless first quarter, All-American halfback Bobby Humphrey broke loose on a 64-yard sprint for the game's first score with 13:55 left in the second quarter. The Huskies' kicker, Jeff Jaeger, booted a 31-yard field goal with 5:55 left and added a 34-yarder with 44 seconds remaining as Alabama took a 7-6 halftime lead.

Midway through the third quarter, Alabama's Freddie Robinson recovered a Washington fumble on the Huskies' 47-yard line. In six plays, quarterback Mike Shula sharply guided the Crimson Tide to a touchdown, completing two passes to Humphrey and a 32-yard scoring strike to Greg Richardson. All-American placekicker Van Tiffin converted his second point-after kick of the day with 6:24 remaining in the period and Alabama led, 14-6.

On the Crimson Tide's next possession, Humphrey ran three plays for 15 yards. Then Shula hit Angelo Stafford for 27 yards, Richardson for 25 and Humphrey for an 18-yard touchdown pass. The six-play, 83-yard drive took but 2:11 off the clock and with Tiffin's conversion kick, Alabama was in charge 21-6.

Alabama scored again on its next possession, covering 92 yards in 16 plays. Humphrey ran in the score from three yards out after gaining 48 yards on ten carries and catching three passes for 30 yards from Shula on the drive. Tiffin converted at the 7:16 mark in the last quarter for the final 28-6 margin.

Shula, starting his 27th consecutive game for Alabama, completed 15 of 26 passes for 176 yards with two touchdown passes in his final collegiate game. Humphrey ended a sensational year with three touchdowns and his 159 yards rushing gave him eight 100-yard rushing games for the season.

A crowd of 48,722 witnessed the game and CBS televised it nationally.

1988 HALL OF FAME BOWL

Michigan 28, Alabama 24

TAMPA, Fla. (Jan. 2, 1988) – In a battle of two traditional football powers, Alabama and Michigan met for the first time in the second Hall of Fame Bowl in Tampa, Fla., and the Wolverines won, 28-24, on a fourth down play in the game's final minute.

NBC televised the game nationally and 60,156 fans looked on as Alabama head coach Bill Curry faced Michigan assistant head coach Gary Moeller, who replaced head coach Bo Schembechler, who had suffered a heart attack three weeks prior to the game.

A 51-yard Philip Doyle field goal at 8:43 in the first quarter gave the Crimson Tide a 3-0 lead. Michigan's All-American halfback Jamie Morris, who finished with a career-high 234 rushing yards on the day, proceeded to score three unanswered touchdowns. Two came in the second quarter from 25 and 14 yards out, enabling Michigan to build a 14-3 lead at half-time. On Michigan's second possession of the third quarter, Morris broke through the left side of his line for a 77-yard touchdown sprint with 9:36 remaining.

Down 21-3, Alabama came to life and scored three touchdowns for the lead. With 4:55 left in the third quarter, tight end Howard Cross took a 16-yard scoring strike from quarterback Jeff Dunn to complete a 72-yard drive but the Tide failed on a two-point conversion. On Alabama's next possession, the team put together an 85-yard drive with All-American tailback Bobby Humphrey leaping over from the one yard line.

After forcing Michigan to punt on its next two possessions, the passing of Dunn and the running of Humphrey completed a 79-yard drive with Humphrey scoring on a determined 17-yard run. Dunn completed a two-point play to Clayton Whitehurst for a 24-21 lead with 4:49 remaining to play.

Starting from its own 38-yard line after the kickoff, Michigan quickly moved to Alabama's 20-yard line where the Wolverines faced a fourth-and-three situation. From there, quarterback Demetrius Brown completed a beautifully executed touchdown pass to flanker John Kolesar with 50 seconds left in the game to give the Wolverines a 28-24 victory. Kolesar, who beat Alabama cornerback John Mangum, jumped high into the air on the play to catch the winning pass, his only reception of the day.

Dunn completed 23 of 40 passes for 269 yards and Humphrey rushed for 149 yards on 27 attempts to lead Alabama offensively.

1989 SUN BOWL

(20) Alabama 29, Army 28

EL PASO, Texas (Dec. 24, 1988) – Resilient Alabama, behind a record-setting performance by senior quarterback David Smith, rallied to defeat upset-minded Army 29-28 in the 55th annual Sun Bowl Classic. Smith shattered passing records set by such esteemed Alabama greats as Steve Sloan and Joe Namath in guiding the Crimson Tide to the win on a near perfect day in El Paso.

A 51-yard run by Army fullback Ben Barnett set up the first score of the game, a one-yard run by Mike Mayweather, with less than three minutes elapsed.

Alabama cut the lead to 7-3 in the first quarter on a 37-yard field goal by Philip Doyle but, early in the second period, the Cadets took a 14-3 lead when quarterback Bryan McWilliams capped a 69-yard, six-play drive with a 30-yard touchdown run on a wishbone option play. Alabama settled for another Doyle field goal, this time from 22 yards out, to draw within 14-6.

The end of the first half brought some of the game's most pivotal moments. While the Alabama defense was trying to figure out the intricacies of the Black Knights' wishbone, Army went to the air on a halfback pass, but passer Calvin Cass overshot a wide open Otto Leone for what would have been an easy score. Instead, Army had to settle for a field goal attempt from the Alabama 24 yard line. The Crimson Tide's Derrick Thomas blocked the kick, keeping Army from adding to its lead.

David Smith rapidly drove Alabama 76 yards in 1:12 for a score. With only 35 seconds left in the first half, Doyle converted the extra point to narrow the lead to 14-13. Five plays later and with only a few ticks left on the clock, Army lined up for another field goal try, this time from the Alabama 27-yard line. Keith Walker's 44-yard attempt was blocked, again by the omnipresent Thomas.

Trailing 28-20, the Crimson Tide and Smith did not panic, driving to the Army two-yard line where the Army defense stiffened and Doyle was called on to kick a 32-yard field goal with 7:25 left.

Now behind 28-23, Alabama surged to the winning touchdown. A 19-yard pass from Smith to Todd Richardson and a 16-yard run by Wayne Shaw led to senior David Casteal leaping into the end zone for the winning score.

Smith, the game's Most Valuable Player, completed 33 of 52 passes for 412 yards and two touchdown, setting Alabama bowl records for attempts, completions and yardage. Thomas was voted the game's best lineman.

1990 SUGAR BOWL

(2) Miami 33, (7) Alabama 25

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1990) – On the first day of the 1990s, Miami clinched the 1989 National Championship with a 33-25 victory over seventh-ranked Alabama in a game that was Bill Curry's last as head coach of the Crimson Tide.

Miami struck early, moving ahead 7-0 with 4:55 left in the first quarter on a three-yard run by fullback Stephen McGuire. The Tide had held the Hurricanes on downs and forced a field goal attempt by Carlos Huerta but Alabama was offsidcs, giving Miami a first down at the three-yard line to set up McGuire's touchdown run.

Two series later, a short punt and a 10-yard return by Gene Jelks which put Alabama within striking range from the Miami 36. It took nine plays to move that distance against the Miami defense, but a four-yard reception of a Gary Hollingsworth pass by Marco Battle scored the Tide touchdown and tied the score at 7-7.

But the Hurricanes answered quickly by going 78 yards in five plays with Miami quarterback Craig Erickson and Wesley Carroll connecting on three completions for 50 yards, including an 18-yarder for the score. Carlos Huerta's extra point was blocked by Alabama's Mike Ramil, leaving the score at 13-7.

The second quarter fireworks continued with Tide freshman Antonio London recovering a fumbled Miami punt to set up an eventual 45-yard field goal by Philip Doyle. Nine plays later, the Hurricanes went up 20-10 after Alex Johnson scored from three yards out. But once again, the Tide struck back with its most impressive drive of the night, covering 80 yards in 11 plays and scoring on a seven-yard pass from Hollingsworth to Lamonde Russell with 40 seconds left in the half.

Alabama was back in business seconds later when senior Lee Ozmint intercepted an Erickson toss and ran it back 23 yards to the Miami 19. Three plays later, after two runs and an incompletion, Doyle tried a 40-yard field goal on the final play of the first half. Doyle had the distance to hit it from better than 60 yards, but the kick sailed to the left and the halftime score read Miami 20, Alabama 17.

Both teams came out slow in the second half, and failed to score in a conservative third quarter. The fourth quarter, however, began with the Hurricane offense in high gear, as Erickson hit tight end Rob Chudzinski for an 11-yard score. Only minutes later, Erickson found his other tight end, Randy Bethel, from 12 yards out to give Miami a commanding 33-17 lead.

Late in the game, Alabama made a heroic comeback effort as Hollingsworth hit Miami native Prince Wimbley with a scoring pass from nine yards out with 2:53 left. A Hollingsworth to Russell two-point conversion pass pulled the Tide within eight, 33-25. However, Alabama's on-side kick attempt failed and the Hurricanes had little trouble running out the clock and claiming not only the Sugar Bowl crown but the unanimous No. 1 ranking in the nation as well.

Miami's Dennis Erickson became only the second coach in college football history to win the national championship in his first season at a school, and Craig Erickson was named the game's Most Outstanding Player. For Alabama, Hollingsworth threw for 214 yards and three touchdowns. On defense, Alabama was led by defensive backs Lee Ozmint and Efrum Thomas, both of whom had a team-leading nine tackles.

1991 FIESTA BOWL

(18) Louisville 34, (25) Alabama 7

TEMPE, Ariz. (Jan. 1, 1991) – The Louisville Cardinals, behind four first-quarter touchdowns, jumped to a 25-0 lead over the Crimson Tide and coasted to a 34-7 victory in the 1991 Sunkist Fiesta Bowl in Tempe, Arizona.

The game marked the second time that Louisville head coach Howard Schnellenberger, an assistant coach at Alabama from 1961-65, had faced the Tide as a head coach. Schnellenberger, an assistant under the legendary Paul “Bear” Bryant, helped coach the Tide to an impressive 49-5-1 record, including three SEC and national championships (1961, ‘64 and ‘65).

Offensively, the Tide compiled only 189 yards total offense. Alabama’s vaunted defense, ranked first in passing defense, third in total defense, fourth in scoring defense and sixth in rushing defense, gave up an Alabama bowl-record 458 yards passing. The Cardinals rushed for another 113 yards to set an opponent record for most yards gained in a bowl game (571). The Tide defense was unable to stop the Cardinals’ Browning Nagle, who hit on 20-of-33 attempts for 451 yards and three touchdowns.

The Cardinals jumped ahead with 7:35 left in the first quarter when Nagle hit Latrell Ware for a 70-yard scoring pass with 7:35 left. Ralph Dawkins came back with 3:40 remaining to score on a five-yard burst that capped a six-play, 26-yard drive. After an Alabama punt, Louisville breezed to a 19-0 lead by driving 77 yards in six plays. That march was capped by a 37-yard pass from Nagle to Anthony Cummings. After a misconnection on a two-point conversion pass, the lead remained at 19-0 with 54 seconds left in the first period.

Just 53 seconds later, Louisville blocked an Alabama punt and the Cardinals’ Ray Buchanan recovered it in the end zone for a touchdown. The Cardinals went for two, but George Teague stopped a run by Ralph Dawkins on the one-yard line and the Cardinals’ led, 25-0, with one second left in the first quarter.

The Tide’s only score came when Charles Gardner intercepted a Jeff Brohm pass and returned it 49 yards for a touchdown with 7:32 left in the second quarter.

Louisville rounded out the scoring when Nagle threw 19 yards to Anthony Cummings and Bama quarterback Danny Woodson was called for intentional grounding in the end zone.

1991 BLOCKBUSTER BOWL

(8) Alabama 30, (15) Colorado 25

MIAMI (Dec. 28, 1991) – Alabama relied on a second half rally and three Jay Barker touchdown passes to come from behind and defeat defending national champion Colorado, 30-25, at Joe Robbie Stadium in South Florida.

This game was marked Colorado's switch to a one-back, pass-oriented offense after the Buffaloes had been primarily a option running team for several years leading up to the contest. But Alabama adjusted quickly and successfully to the scheme.

David Palmer was honored with the "Brian Piccolo Award" as the game's most valuable player and he put the Crimson Tide on the scoreboard first in his usual fashion, a punt return. Palmer took the punt on Alabama's 48-yard line, ran through four Colorado defenders and scooted down the right sideline 52 yards for the score. Matt Wethington's point-after kick gave Alabama a 7-0 lead with 8:49 left in the first quarter.

Colorado's Ron Woolfork blocked an Alabama punt to give the Buffaloes the ball on the Alabama three-yard line and two plays later Scott Phillips ran it in from the one 1 with 1:34 remaining in the opening period. Jim Harper kicked the extra point to tie the game. Two possessions later, Colorado took the lead when linebacker Ted Johnson tackled Alabama running back Martin Houston in the end zone for a safety with 13:15 left in the second quarter.

Neither team could generate much offense, but the Alabama defense provided the necessary boost when Mark McMillian intercepted a Darian Hagan pass on the 50-yard line and ran it back 49 yards to the one. The Tide lost seven yards in three plays and settled for a Wethington field goal. The Buffaloes used the final 43 seconds in the half and kicked a 33-yard field goal as time ran out.

In the second half, the Alabama offense woke up and drove the ball to Colorado's eight. An apparent David Palmer touchdown was called back because of an illegal substitution, but on the next play (third-and-13) Barker and Siran Stacy connected on a 13-yard pass for six points. The two-point conversion failed and Alabama led, 16-12.

The lead didn't last long. The Buffaloes scored just 18 seconds later on a 62-yard pass from Hagan to Michael Westbrook to put CU back in front, 19-16. At this point, both offenses were moving. Alabama marched 75 yards its next possession, scoring on a 12-yard pass from Barker to Kevin Lee. Wethington's conversion kick put the Tide up, 23-19, with 6:55 left in the third quarter.

A 15-play drive in the fourth quarter culminated with a five-yard touchdown pass from Barker to Palmer and gave the Tide a 30-19 lead with 8:10 remaining. But the Buffaloes cut the lead to five on a 13-yard pass from Hagan to Charles Johnson with 3:30 left. Colorado got the ball back with 1:49 left and drove to the Alabama 33-yard line before being stopped on a fourth-and-one play with 40 seconds left.

Statistically, Alabama outgained Colorado, 307-199, running more plays (81-60) and building a 38:10 to 21:50 edge in time of possession. Alabama finished the season with an 11-1 mark, and was ranked fifth in the final rankings while Colorado finished with an 8-3-1 record and a No. 20 final ranking.

(2) Alabama 34, (1) Miami 13

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 1993) – All week long Alabama coach Gene Stallings said he did not consider his Crimson Tide an underdog. In front of 76,789 in the Superdome and a national television audience, Alabama proved the skeptics wrong as the Tide handily defeated the No. 1 ranked Miami Hurricanes, 34-13, winning the national championship for the first time since 1979.

Alabama's defensive strategy stifled Miami's rushing game, only allowing the Hurricanes 48 yards on the ground. Gino Torretta passed for 278 yards, but was ineffective. With Alabama leading 13-6 at the half, the defense took control of the game early in the third quarter. On UM's first play from scrimmage in the second half, Torretta was intercepted by Tommy Johnson, who returned the ball to the Miami 20-yard line. Six plays later, Derrick Lassic scored from a yard out to increase UA's lead to 20-6.

Alabama's defense had been giving Torretta problems all day but the one play that virtually spelled the end for Miami came on their next possession. The Tide pulled all 11 players up to line with Torretta operating from the shotgun. His errant pass was snared by George Teague who high-stepped 31 yards for the second Tide touchdown in 16 seconds.

Teague was matched against Miami tailback Jonathan Harris, who was lined up in a slot to the right. Teague jammed Harris as he tried to come off the line of scrimmage. Torretta, who was pressured all night by the Alabama defense, chose to force a throw towards Harris. But Teague stepped in front of Harris, caught the pass at the 31, took off toward the right sideline and high-stepped the last five yards into the end zone for a 21-point lead. This play by Teague would be a big one in the Tide's victory, however, it would not be the only one he would be remembered for in this game.

Trailing 27-6, the Hurricanes offense took the field to mount a successful drive. On Miami's second down and 10 play, Teague made one the biggest defensive plays of the season, although it was null and void because of a five-yard offside penalty called against Alabama. Torretta hit his favorite receiver, Lamar Thomas, who was streaking down the sideline for an apparent six points. Teague streaked down the sideline, ran Thomas down, stripped the ball from him, and proceeded to advance the ball in the other direction for a short gain. The play may not be officially recorded in the record books but it will stand as one of the best defensive plays ever.

The Tide relied on a ground attack to move the ball on offense. Out of the 285 total yards gained, 267 of them came on the ground. Derrick Lassic controlled UA's ground game cutting and weaving his way to 135 yards rushing on 28 carries and two touchdowns. His efforts gained him the Miller-Digby Sugar Bowl Most Valuable Player Award.

Alabama was outgained, 326 yards to 285. Tide quarterback Jay Barker, who led his team to victory for the 17th time in 17 starts, completed just 4 of 13 passes for 18 yards, with two interceptions. Meanwhile, Torretta's decisive mistakes were the result of an overwhelming Alabama defensive effort that all but eliminated Miami's ability to run. Miami was held to 48 rushing yards, 42 of which came during an inconsequential final drive long after a Crimson celebration had begun.

1993 GATOR BOWL

(18) Alabama 24, (12) North Carolina 10

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (Dec. 31, 1993) – A key to this game for Alabama was to stop the Tar Heels' running attack led by 1,000-yard rushers Curtis and Leon Johnson. The Tide would also have to defend against the Tar Heels' passing game, guided by Jason Stanicek (who had completed 139 of 219 attempts for 1,878 yards and 12 touchdowns) whose favorite receiver, Corey Holliday, finished the year with 867 yards and two touchdowns.

A key ingredient for Alabama to win would be the play of back-up quarterback Brian Burgdorf, who was starting for the injured Jay Barker. Also, the Tide defensive backs would be without the services of consensus All-American Antonio Langham, who had been ruled ineligible for the SEC Championship game and the Gator Bowl.

After a scoreless first quarter, Alabama got on the board with a Michael Proctor 22-yard field goal with 11:01 in the second quarter. The Tar Heels answered Alabama's score with a one-yard touchdown carry by William Henderson on the next series giving them a 7-3 lead.

On Alabama's next series, Burgdorf hit three-of-four passing for 27 yards and picked up another 19 himself placing Alabama on the Tar Heels' 33-yard line. On first and 10, Burgdorf ran a draw up the middle for the distance and the touchdown. Proctor's point-after kick gave Alabama a 10-7 lead.

North Carolina tied the game with two seconds left on the clock before the half on a Tripp Pignetti 23-yard field goal.

In the third quarter, Alabama had the first possession and used its rushing attack to drive the length of the field. On second and goal from the Carolina eight-yard line, Burgdorf threw his first pass of the drive to Tarrant Lynch in the middle of the end zone for six points.

Alabama's final score of the game was Chad Key's first career touchdown. The Tide picked up three rushing first downs before Burgdorf hit Key on a 10-yard reception. Proctor's conversion kick gave Alabama a 24-10 lead with 6:34 left with neither team threatening again.

1995 CITRUS BOWL

(6) Alabama 24, (13) Ohio State 17

ORLANDO, Fla. (Jan. 2, 1995) – The Crimson Tide and the Ohio State Buckeyes met for only the third time in the two schools' great football histories at the 1995 CompUSA Florida Citrus Bowl. Alabama, winner of the previous two encounters with the Buckeyes, made its first Citrus Bowl appearance, the school's 13th different bowl.

A scoreless first quarter was highlighted by a four-legged, unwanted visitor: Alabama took possession following a missed field goal and mounted an impressive drive, but the momentum seemed to escape when a stray dog found his way onto the field and caused a lengthy delay in play. After the curious canine was chased off the field and into a portal, the drive stalled and Michael Proctor's 49-yard field goal attempt was blocked.

The Crimson Tide started another drive on its 20-yard line with just over four minutes remaining in the first period. The 16-play, 80-yard drive ended early in the second period and was capped off by Tarrant Lynch's touchdown run from nine yards out.

The lead was short-lived, however, as 13 seconds later, OSU tied the game with a 69-yard bomb from Bobby Hoying to Joey Galloway. The Buckeyes then capitalized on a blocked punt deep in Tide territory, and Hoying hooked up with Galloway again, this time from 11 yards out, to give OSU a 14-7 lead.

Alabama responded with an 11-play, 80-yard drive on the very next possession to tie the game. Sherman Williams finished the drive with a seven-yard scamper and both teams went to the locker room deadlocked at 14-14.

After a scoreless third quarter, Ohio State regained the lead at 17-14 as Josh Jackson connected on a 34-yard field goal with 8:41 to go in the game. Michael Proctor, who had missed a 25-yard field goal to start the fourth quarter, redeemed himself with a 27-yarder that tied the score, 17-17, with 4:29 left to play.

Then, as it had done all season long, Alabama came through with late-game heroics to pull out a win. With less than a minute to play, Jay Barker hit Sherman Williams over the middle and, 50 yards later, the talented tailback had given the Tide a 24-17 win.

Alabama finished the season at 12-1-0, and with the victory, the senior class of 1994 (45-4-1) broke the record for most wins in a four-year period. Sherman Williams was given the Charles Y. McClendon Most Valuable Player Award after rushing for 166 yards, catching eight passes for 155 yards and scoring two touchdowns.

1997 OUTBACK BOWL

(16) Alabama 17, (15) Michigan 14

TAMPA, Fla. (Jan. 2, 1995) – Head coach Gene Stallings went out a winner in his final game at Alabama as linebacker Dwayne Rudd returned an interception 88 yards for the go-ahead score to give the 16th-ranked Crimson Tide a 17-14 victory over 15th-ranked Michigan in the Outback Bowl at Tampa, Florida.

Stallings, who had announced his resignation in November of 1996, finished his seven-year career at Alabama with wins in his last five bowl games and a national championship in 1992.

Alabama (10-3) appeared in its record 48th bowl game, improving to 28-17-3 in those contests. Michigan (8-4) fell to 13-15 in the postseason.

Alabama used John Brock's 43-yard field goal to take a 3-0 lead with 3:42 left in the first quarter, but Michigan grabbed a 6-3 halftime lead on field goals of 44 and 22 yards by Remy Hamilton in the second quarter. After a scoreless third quarter, action heated up in the final period.

Rudd intercepted a pass by Brian Griese in the right flat and raced untouched down the left sideline with 12:13 left in the fourth quarter to give Alabama a 10-6 lead. The return broke the record for the bowl previously held by Georgia's Gary Moss (81 yards) in the 1986 Hall of Fame Bowl. It was also an Alabama bowl record.

"I didn't get a good look at the play," Rudd said. "I looked up and saw the ball and just grabbed it. When I turned around, all I saw was a big field in front of me and I just ran straight for the end zone. It felt sort of good to get in the end zone. I haven't been there all year."

Shaun Alexander scored on a 46-yard run with 2:15 left in the game, increasing the seemingly safe cushion to 17-6. Alexander finished with 99 yards on just nine carries. But the Wolverines rebounded on the ensuing drive as Griese threw a nine-yard scoring pass to Russell Shaw. Chris Floyd's run for the two-point conversion got the Wolverines within 17-14 with 1:16 left, but Chad Goss recovered Michigan's onside kick attempt and Alabama ran out the clock.

Griese was 21-of-37 for 287 yards with one interception and a touch-down. His completions and attempts set new Michigan bowl standards. Alabama used John Brock's 43-yard field goal to take a 3-0 lead with 3:42 left in the first quarter, but Michigan grabbed a 6-3 halftime lead on field goals of 44 and 22 yards by Remy Hamilton in the second quarter.

1998 MUSIC CITY BOWL

(24) Virginia Tech 38, Alabama 7

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (Dec. 29, 1998) – Virginia Tech's special teams generated 14 points and cornerback Anthony Midget returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown as the 24th-ranked Hokies routed Alabama, 38-7, in the inaugural Music City Bowl. Already developing a reputation for its ability to block kicks, Virginia Tech got to Alabama punter Daniel Pope twice and also took advantage of cornerback Owen Winston's muff of a punt to hand Alabama the second-worst bowl defeat in its illustrious history.

Linebacker Phillip Summers also set up a touchdown with an interception for the Hokies, whose defense picked off 24 passes in 1998, the second-highest total in the country. Playing in front of a sellout crowd of 41,600 at Vanderbilt Stadium, the Hokies recorded their first victory over Alabama in 11 tries. Tech quarterback Al Clark ran for a 43-yard touchdown, running back Lamont Pegues added a pair of one-yard scores and running back Shyrone Stith added a four-yard touchdown for Virginia Tech (9-3), which snapped a two-game bowl losing streak. The Hokies were appearing in the postseason for the sixth straight season.

Freshman Andrew Zow and Michael Vaughn hooked up on a five-yard second-quarter touchdown to account for Alabama's only scoring in a game that began with temperatures hovering around 40 degrees. The conditions worsened as the contest progressed, with freezing rain falling for most of the final three quarters. Alabama's 31-point setback was surpassed only by a 38-6 loss to Nebraska in the Orange Bowl on New Year's Day 1972. Alabama (7-5), which was appearing in its 49th bowl game, had its five-game bowl winning streak snapped.

Virginia Tech led 10-7 at halftime, but the Crimson Tide self-destructed in one of Alabama's worst second halves of the season. On Alabama's second possession of the third quarter, Zow's pass over the middle was picked off by Summers at the Tide 3-yard line and Virginia Tech entered the end zone three plays later on Pegues' first one-yard plunge.

Alabama's next drive was quickly halted and defensive end Corey Moore broke through the line to block Pope's kick, giving Virginia Tech possession at the Alabama 29. It took the Hokies four plays to score this time, with Stith's four-yard scamper making it 24-7. Moore was voted the game's most valuable player. Winston's muff late in the third period was recovered by safety Cory Bird at the Alabama 19 and Pegues' one-yard scoring run 1:29 into the fourth quarter ended any hopes of an Alabama comeback. For emphasis, Midget picked off Zow and sprinted into the right corner of the end zone with 7:33 remaining.

Clark completed 7-of-14 passes for 71 yards and was intercepted once while carrying nine times for 55 yards. Stith added 71 yards on 10 attempts for the Hokies, who needed just 278 total yards to record the blow-out. Zow was 19-of-35 for 224 yards but was picked off three times for Alabama, which was held to 274 yards, including just 50 on the ground. Shaun Alexander carried 21 times for 55 yards and caught eight passes for 87 yards.

Tech began the onslaught on its first possession when Clark faked to Pegues, burst up the middle and outran the Tide secondary for a 43-yard touchdown just 2:35 into the contest. Safety Keion Carpenter blocked Pope's kick on the ensuing possession, but the Hokies could not capitalize because Clark was picked off in the end zone by Tide cornerback Fernando Bryant. Zow immediately was intercepted by defensive end Ryan Smith, but Shayne Graham pushed a 42-yard field goal attempt wide right.

Alabama tied the game just under six minutes into the second period when Zow found Vaughn in the back of the end zone. But Graham connected from 44 yards moments later to give the Hokies a three-point half-time advantage.

(8) Michigan 35, (5) Alabama 34

MIAMI (Jan. 1, 2000) – In a meeting between two of college football's most storied programs, Michigan came from behind twice, then held on in overtime to win. Alabama's Ryan Pflugner missed an extra-point attempt by inches on the final play of overtime to give the Wolverines a 35-34 victory over the Crimson Tide in the Orange Bowl.

Michigan's Tom Brady threw for 369 yards and four touchdowns, including three to David Terrell who caught 10 passes for 150 yards, and the Wolverines twice overcame 14-point deficits. After Michigan's Shawn Thompson caught a 25-yard touchdown pass on the first play of overtime, Alabama scored on Andrew Zow's 21-yard pass to Antonio Carter. But Pflugner's extra-point attempt was just wide to the right.

"It was a great football game," Michigan head coach Lloyd Carr said. "It was a shame somebody had to lose. As much I enjoy winning, I hate to see it end the way it did, with a missed extra point."

The Wolverines won even though they lost a fumble at the Alabama 1 in the fourth quarter and had a 36-yard field goal attempt blocked to force the overtime. Shaun Alexander, the Southeastern Conference Player of the Year, rushed for 161 yards and three touchdowns in his final game for Alabama. His scores came on runs of 5, 6 and 50 yards, and teammate Freddie Milons scored on a 62-yard punt return.

The eighth-ranked Wolverines (10-2) managed just one first down in the opening 28 minutes but completed their third consecutive 10-win season. The sixth-ranked Crimson Tide (10-3) lost in their 50th bowl game, an NCAA record.

The Wolverines' first six possessions produced just one first down, which came on a 5-yard gain on a fake punt. The offense finally mustered a first down with 1:18 left in the opening half, then scored two plays later on a 27-yard pass from Brady to Terrell. The Wolverines erased deficits of 14-0 and 28-14 thanks to Terrell, who tied Orange Bowl and Michigan bowl records with three touchdown receptions.

Brady, who was 34-for-46, led Michigan to three touchdowns in a 12-minute span in the third quarter. The comeback wasn't the first by the Wolverines, who rallied from fourth-quarter deficits to win three times during the regular season. Alabama's Phillip Weeks blocked a field-goal attempt by Hayden Epstein as time ran out in the fourth quarter, forcing the overtime. Earlier in the period, Michigan's Anthony Thomas lost a fumble at the Alabama 1.

Attendance based on tickets sold was 70,461, but the actual crowd totaled only about 50,000. The no-shows missed a game filled with penalties and punts but also plenty of big plays and swings in momentum. Alexander turned a third-and-1 run into a 50-yard touchdown, breaking three tackles to give Alabama a 21-14 lead in the third quarter. Less than three minutes later, Milons caught a 51-yard punt, weaved across the field and scored untouched to make it 28-14.

The Wolverines made the score 14-14 on their first series of the second half. Terrell caught a short pass from Brady, eluded cornerback Milo Lewis, and sprinted to the end zone, completing a 57-yard play. Terrell beat Lewis again in the third quarter for a 20-yard score.

Alabama picked up only one first down in the opening quarter, but a 32-yard run by Alexander got the Tide rolling. The play started a 76-yard drive that ended with Alexander's 5-yard touchdown run. Three minutes later, Alabama scored again. Milons' 23-punt return and a late-hit penalty gave the Tide the ball at the Michigan 31, and Alexander's 6-yard touchdown run made the score 14-0.

2001 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Alabama 14, Iowa State 13

SHREVEPORT, La. (Dec. 27, 2001) – Andrew Zow, playing with a bruised calf, tossed a 27-yard touchdown pass to Terry Jones with 4:44 remaining as the Crimson Tide ended Alabama head coach Dennis Franchione's first season with a victory as the Crimson Tide trimmed Iowa State, 14-13, before a national television audience on ESPN. The game marked Alabama's 51st bowl appearance and the first for the Tide in the Independence Bowl.

The final score wasn't indicative of the tempo of the game. Iowa State's offense gave the Alabama defense all it wanted and racked up 456 yards of total offense and 23 first downs. But the Tide defense held when it had to and the offense scored when it counted most. Iowa State's defense dominated throughout, but Alabama free safety Wayne Bacon blocked Tony Yelk's punt, giving the Crimson Tide possession at the Cyclones' 29-yard line.

Two plays later, Zow connected with Jones for the winning score, enabling Alabama (7-5) to rally from a 10-0 deficit and finish the season with a winning record. Zow, who was sacked four times, completed 11-of-19 passes for 119 yards with an interception. The Crimson Tide were held to just 150 yards on the ground.

Iowa State (7-5) had a chance to regain the lead in the final minute, but Yelk's 47-yard field goal was wide right with 46 seconds left. It was his third miss of the game. Seneca Wallace drove the Cyclones into field goal range on their final possession. He converted a second-and-25 with a 26-yard completion to Jack Whitver at midfield, then kept the drive alive by hitting Lane Danielson for 14 yards on 4th-and-7 from the Alabama 47. For the game, Wallace completed 25-of-42 passes for 284 yards.

But Yelk's field goal missed the upright by inches and Zow took two snaps to run out the clock. Yelk kicked a 36-yard field goal to open the scoring 1:42 into the contest before Joe Woodley scored on a one-yard touchdown run to make it 10-0 with 14:24 left in the second quarter. Alabama got on the board on Zow's eight-yard touchdown run with 9:19 left in the second and Yelk failed to extend the lead, missing a 25-yard field goal with 26 seconds left in the half.

Yelk converted a 41-yarder to make it 13-7 with 2:11 left in the third period, but kept Alabama within one score by missing a 40-yarder 4:22 into the final period.

Cyclones running back Ennis Haywood rushed for 125 yards on 20 carries, marking the first time Iowa State had lost in 13 games when its leading runner surpassed the century mark. Ahmad Galloway paced Alabama on the ground with 90 yards on 16 carries.

2004 MUSIC CITY BOWL

Minnesota 20, Alabama 16

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (Dec. 27, 2004) – Minnesota's tailback tandem of Marion Barber III and Laurence Maroney rushed for a combined 292 yards in a 20-16 win over Alabama at the 2004 Music City Bowl at The Coliseum in Nashville. Alabama managed just 21 yards rushing but quarterback Spencer Pennington hit 22 of 36 passes for 243 yards and one touchdown to keep the Crimson Tide in contention.

Barber rushed for 187 yards and a touchdown on 37 carries as Minnesota overcame three turnovers in the first quarter. The Golden Gophers (7-5) wore down Alabama (6-6) with a potent ground attack, rushing for nearly 300 yards against the nation's second-ranked run defense. Maroney also surpassed the century mark with 105 yards on 29 attempts. It marked the first time all season that Alabama had allowed a 100-yard rusher. Barber and Maroney became the first pair of running backs in NCAA history to each rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. Meanwhile, Alabama was 0-for-11 on third down conversions.

Alabama used an opportunistic defense to forge an early lead. The Crimson Tide struck first when Pennington, after a fumble recovery by linebacker Freddie Roach at the Gopher 2-yard line, hit fullback Le'Ron McClain with a two-yard touchdown pass to give Alabama a 7-0 lead just 48 seconds into the game.

The Tide had a chance to extend the lead a few moments later when Barber was intercepted in the end zone by cornerback Anthony Madison on an option pass from the Alabama 4. However, the Crimson Tide turned the ball over twice in a wild opening quarter, including a critical mistake by Pennington, who fumbled at his own 1. Defensive end Keith Lipka scooped up the fumble and dove into the end zone for the tying score with 4:21 left in the first period.

Minnesota also converted a fumble by backup quarterback Tyrone Prothro into the go-ahead score as Barber's five-yard touchdown run on the first play of the second quarter made it 14-7 with 14:57 left in the first half. UM's Rhys Lloyd tacked on a field goal with 8:07 to play in the first half to go up 17-7 but Alabama answered when McClain capped a 10-play, 73-yard drive with a one-yard run to make it 17-14 at the half.

Lloyd drilled his second field goal of the game to put UM up 20-14 with 10:16 left to play in the third. His 24-yarder capped an 11-play, 68-yard drive to open the second half. Following an Alabama punt, Minnesota was pinned deep in its own territory and opted for a safety when Lloyd stepped out of the end zone, instead of punting, with 3:11 left in the game to pull the Crimson Tide to within 20-16.

Alabama began its next possession from its own 48-yard line after the Minnesota free kick and reached the Golden Gophers' 15 where the Crimson Tide faced a third down situation. A Pennington pass missed an open Prothro in the end zone, a play that would have given Alabama the lead. Pennington's ensuing fourth down pass to DJ Hall was also incomplete with 1:23 remaining and Minnesota ran out the clock.

(13) Alabama 13, (18) Texas Tech 10

DALLAS (Jan. 2, 2006) – A turnaround 2005 season for Alabama ended in a way indicative of the regular season as Crimson Tide rode a game-winning 45-yard field goal by Jamie Christensen to a 13-10 win over explosive Texas Tech in the 2006 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic at the Cotton Bowl Stadium in Dallas. The victory produced the Tide's 28th 10 win season and, when the dust settled, Alabama finished ranked 8th in both final national polls.

Although the kick by Christensen was by no means perfect, it was enough to keep Alabama in the win column and marked his third game-winning field goal of the season. Alabama's defense dominated the game early as the Red Raiders were forced to punt after their first possession of the game.

The Tide's first possession resulted in a 76-yard touchdown pass from Brodie Croyle to Keith Brown on the Tide's second play of the game as Croyle flicked a play-action pass to the streaking Brown. Christensen's point-after kick was good, giving the Tide an early 7-0 lead.

The Tide defense held the Red Raiders in check until late in the first quarter when Alex Trlica hit a 34-yard field goal, cutting the Alabama lead to 7-3.

With 2:39 left in the second quarter, a 38-yard field goal attempt by Christensen was blocked and allowed Tech to take possession at the Alabama 46-yard line. Tech quickly marched to the Alabama 21 and as the second quarter neared an end Trlica attempted a 37-yard field goal on the final play of the first half, but Alabama defensive lineman Mark Anderson burst through to block the attempt to keep Alabama's halftime lead at 7-3.

In the third quarter, the Crimson Tide was able to put more points on the scoreboard when Christensen kicked a 31-yard field goal to extend the Alabama lead to 10-3. Early in the fourth quarter, Tech managed to tie the game at 10-10 as quarterback Cody Hodges connected with Jarrett Hicks on a 12-yard touchdown pass. Trlica's conversion kick tied the game.

Alabama then went to work from its own 14-yard line, moving to the Red Raider 28-yard line in the game's waning seconds. With just five seconds left in the game, Christensen nailed a 45-yard field goal that barely cleared the crossbar, giving the Tide the 13-10 victory, Alabama's national-leading 30th victory in a postseason bowl game.

Playing his last game as the Alabama quarterback, senior Brodie Croyle earned the game's Offensive Most Valuable Player honor as he completed 19 of 31 passes for 275 yards and one touchdown. Alabama linebacker DeMeco Ryans was named Defensive MVP after garnering seven tackles to lead the Crimson Tide defense.

Oklahoma State 34, Alabama 31

SHREVEPORT, La. (Dec. 28, 2006) – Ending the 2006 season in the PetroSun Independence Bowl, Alabama scored two late touchdowns to erase a 14-point deficit, but a 27-yard field goal by Oklahoma State's Jason Ricks with 8.9 seconds left pinned a 34-31 loss on Alabama at Independence Stadium.

OSU running back Dantrell Savage ran for 112 yards and a touchdown and made the key play on the winning drive. He took a screen pass from quarterback Bobby Reid for 26 yards on third-and-9 to the Alabama 15 to put Ricks in prime position. Alabama tried to ice Ricks with three timeouts. But the sophomore sent the kick through the uprights, and he snatched off his helmet and ran to the sideline with it extended over his head.

The kick saved the Cowboys (7-6) from a fourth-quarter collapse and gave them both a winning record and their first bowl victory since 2002. Oklahoma State blew a 14-point lead, setting up the Crimson Tide for the tying touchdown with a fumbled kickoff return.

Alabama (6-7) was playing in its NCAA-record 54th bowl game and looking for its 31st bowl victory but for much of the night the Crimson Tide's vaunted postseason history seemed a distant memory.

The Cowboys scooped up an Alabama fumble on the Tide's 38-yard line to set up the opening score. Savage ran the final yard to cap a 38-yard drive and make it 7-0 Oklahoma State. Alabama tied it on an 18-yard touchdown pass from quarterback John Parker Wilson to Matt Caddell with 3:32 remaining in the first quarter.

Oklahoma State went ahead 14-7 on Keith Toston's 4-yard run. The Cowboys stretched their lead to 17-7 on a 28-yard field goal by Ricks. Alabama cut the margin to 17-14 on a 1-yard run by fullback Tim Castille. But Alabama was unable to stop the Cowboys' final drive of the half. Oklahoma State took it 64 yards, capped by a 7-yard run by Toston for a 24-14 half-time lead.

In the third quarter, Jamie Christensen kicked a 24 yard field goal to pull Alabama three points closer. Then Reid hit Adarius Bowman for a 10-yard score to give Oklahoma State a 14 point lead, 31-17. Alabama played flat until late in the fourth quarter. With the Tide trailing 31-17, Javier Arenas returned a punt 86 yards to pull Alabama to within a touchdown with 10:50 left in the game.

Then Grant Jones fumbled the ensuing kickoff and Chris Rogers, who forced the fumble, recovered to give Alabama a first down on the Oklahoma State 21. Six plays later, left tackle Andre Smith caught a lateral from John Parker Wilson and ran tw0 yards to tie the game at 31-31.

Oklahoma State, ranked 16th nationally in total offense, outgained Alabama, 419 to 276. The Cowboys rushed for 207 yards compared to 108 yards for the Tide. Jeremy Nethon had 11 tackles including seven solo for Oklahoma State and was selected the game's Most Valuable Player honor.

For OSU, Reid completed 15 of 29 attempts for 212 yards with a touchdown and an interception, and Keith Toston added 58 yards and two touchdowns. John Parker Wilson completed 18 of 33 for 168 yards and a touchdown for Alabama. He was intercepted twice.

2007 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Alabama 30, Colorado 24

SHREVEPORT, La. (Dec. 30, 2007) – Alabama used a 20-point first quarter and relied on a stingy second-half defense to withstand Colorado in the PetroSun Independence Bowl, gaining 388 total yards in a 30-24 win over the Buffaloes at Independence Stadium.

Alabama (7-6) dominated the first quarter of the game, opening with two field-goal-scoring drives to take a 6-0 lead before an unsuccessful fake punt by Colorado (6-7) led to the Crimson Tide's first touchdown of the night, a 15-yard pass from quarterback John Parker Wilson to receiver Keith Brown for a 13-0 lead 10 minutes into the game.

After a Colorado punt, the Tide took the ball 63 yards in five plays on its next possession, capping the drive with a 34-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to receiver Matt Caddell for a 20-0 first-quarter lead.

A blocked punt by Caddell on Colorado's next possession set up the Tide at its own 35-yard line and, six plays later, Wilson hit receiver Nikita Stover for his third touchdown pass of the night, a 34-yarder, to extend Alabama's lead to 27-0 with 12:20 left in the first half. Wilson completed 13 of his first 15 passes for 185 yards and three touchdowns.

Late in the half, Colorado quarterback Cody Hawkins found receiver Tyson DeVree for a four-yard score to cut the Tide lead to 27-7. A 25-yard pass from Hawkins to Dusty Sprague with four seconds left in the second quarter cut the Alabama lead to 27-14 at the half.

A third quarter Colorado field goal cut the Alabama lead to 10 and, with the Alabama offense stalled, the Buffaloes got the ball back at the Alabama 20 with 8:25 left in the game and a chance to cut the Tide lead even more. But Alabama defensive tackle Brandon Deaderick tipped a Hawkins pass and linebacker Darren Mustin made a diving interception to give Alabama the ball on Buffaloes' 22.

Seven plays later Alabama was able to extend its lead to 30-17 with a 26-yard field goal from Leigh Tiffin, his third of the night, with 4:36 left in the game. Colorado then went 69 yards in just 45 seconds to cut the Alabama lead to 30-24 with a touchdown pass from Hawkins to DeVree, but the Tide was able to convert two first downs on its next possession, running the clock down to one second before the Buffaloes took over at their own 20. Colorado's lateral-filled final play was stopped at the Buffaloes' 45-yard line.

Wilson was 19-of-32 passing for 256 yards, with three touchdowns and one interception. The Alabama defense was led by end Wallace Gilberry, who recorded five tackles-for-loss in an eight-tackle performance in his final game for the Tide, tying the Alabama single-game record for tackles-for-loss. Safety Rashad Johnson had 13 tackles while Mustin had eight stops to go with his interception.

(6) Utah 31, (4) Alabama 17

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 2, 2009) – Fourth-ranked Alabama battled back from an early 21-0 deficit, cutting its deficit against No. 6 Utah to 21-17 in the second half, but the Crimson Tide was unable to overcome the deficit, falling to the Utes, 31-17, in the 75th Allstate Sugar Bowl in New Orleans. Alabama finished the season with a 12-2 record while Utah finished the season as college football's only undefeated team at 13-0.

Utah scored 21 first-quarter points, capitalizing on a John Parker Wilson interception and getting a pair of touchdown passes from Brian Johnson to take a 21-0 lead into the second quarter. Alabama responded with 17 unanswered points, starting the comeback with a 52-yard field goal by Leigh Tiffin and getting a 73-yard punt return for a touchdown by Javier Arenas that cut the largest deficit the Crimson Tide had faced all season to 21-10 at halftime. A fumble on Utah's first possession of the third quarter gave Alabama the ball in the Utes' territory, and a 4-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to Glen Coffee cut the lead to 21-17 with 11:14 to go in the third. Utah, however, closed the game on a 10-0 run.

Wilson completed 18 of 30 passes for 177 yards, with one touchdown and two interceptions. Julio Jones was Wilson's leading receiver, finishing with seven catches for 77 yards. Coffee (36 yards) and Mark Ingram (26) combined for 62 yards on the ground. Coffee moved into second place on the Alabama single-season rushing list with 1,386 yards.

The game was Alabama's first Sugar Bowl appearance since its 34-13 national championship win over Miami to close the 1992 season, and its first Bowl Championship Series appearance since playing in the Orange Bowl in the 1999 season. The game extended Alabama's NCAA-best bowl appearances mark to 56.

Utah quarterback Brian Johnson threw for 336 yards and three touchdowns on his way to being selected the game's most outstanding player, a fitting finish to the career of Utah's winningest quarterback (26-7). Utah became the first team from a non-BCS conference to win two BCS bowls. The Utes beat Pittsburgh in the 2005 Fiesta Bowl. Johnson was 27-of-41 and was not intercepted as the Utes took charge from the start by bolting to a stunning, 21-0 first-quarter lead.

Utah's defense was impressive, intercepting Wilson twice and sacking him eight times, with the seventh sack forcing a fumble that ended the Crimson Tide's last threat with just more than five minutes remaining. The Utes' front seven was significantly outweighed by Alabama's offensive line, playing without left tackle Andre Smith, the Outland Trophy winner who missed the game due to a suspension. Utah did not give ground to the Tide's normally powerful running game that averaged 196.5 yards per game. The Utes' variety of stunts and blitzes appeared to upset Wilson's rhythm. He overthrew a couple of open receivers downfield and finished 18-of-30 for 177 yards and a touchdown.

Johnson adeptly spread the ball around, completing passes to seven receivers while the Utes almost completely ignored the running game. Johnson connected with receiver Freddie Brown 12 times for 125 yards. Johnson's touchdowns went for 7 yards to Brent Casteel, 18 yards to Bradon Godfrey and 28 yards to David Reed. Matt Asiata ran for a 2-yard score, set up by Reed's leaping catch at the 2. An Alabama comeback appeared to be building early in the second half, when Dont'a Hightower stripped Johnson, and Bobby Greenwood recovered at the Utah 30. Wilson drove the Tide for a score, hitting Coffee for an easy 4-yard touchdown pass on a rollout to close the gap to 21-17.

At the point, it appeared to be only a matter of time before the Tide would overtake the underdog Utes. But Johnson opened Utah's next drive with a 33-yard pass over the middle to Brown. That started a 71-yard scoring drive that ended with Reed's touchdown. The Tide drove right back into Utah territory, but Ingram was stopped for no gain on third-and-2 from the Utah 32. But Tiffin missed a long field goal attempt, hooking a 49-yarder just left of the upright.

2010 BCS CHAMPIONSHIP

(1) Alabama 37, (2) Texas 21

PASADENA, Calif. (Jan. 7, 2010) – The No. 1-ranked Alabama football team held true to its ranking, defeating second-ranked Texas, 37-21, in the 2010 BCS National Championship at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena. The 2009 national championship was the 13th in Alabama history.

“Our message to the team at halftime was that it’s a 60-minute game,” said head coach Nick Saban. “I’m proud of the way we hung in there and bounced back at the end of the game.”

The Crimson Tide defense ended any hopes of a Longhorn comeback when blitzing linebacker Eryk Anders forced a fumble by Texas quarterback Garrett Gilbert with only 3:08 remaining in the game. Alabama would force two more turnovers and score two touchdowns to seal the 2009 national championship.

After Texas jumped out ahead 6-0 in the first quarter, the Crimson Tide took the lead with running back Mark Ingram punching in a two-yard rush putting Alabama up 7-6 with 14:18 remaining in the second quarter.

Trent Richardson joined in on the ground attack when he busted a 49-yard touchdown run at the 7:59 mark of the second quarter to stretch Alabama’s lead to 14-7.

Placekicker Leigh Tiffin extended the Tide’s lead by connecting on a 26-yard field goal. Two plays later, defensive tackle Marcell Dareus intercepted Gilbert’s shovel pass and returned it 28 yards for an Alabama touchdown. The 10-point swing gave the Crimson Tide a 24-6 lead heading into halftime.

With Texas’ offense scoring 11 unanswered points in the second half and pulling within 24-21, Anders forced a fumble at the three-yard line with linebacker Courtney Upshaw recovering for the Tide. The Texas fumble led directly to Ingram’s one-yard touchdown run, putting Alabama up 31-21.

Javier Arenas came up with his second interception of the night with 1:55 remaining in the game and Richardson turned the turnover into points once again, scoring a touchdown on a two-yard run. Tiffin missed the extra point attempt, making the final score 37-21.

With the win Alabama head coach Nick Saban became the first head coach in major college football history to win a national championship at two different schools, also winning the BCS national championship in 2003 at LSU. Saban also became the second head coach to win two BCS national championships, joining Urban Meyer of Florida.

The victory in Pasadena came 84 years after Alabama won its first national championship in the 1926 Rose Bowl game and marked the fifth Alabama team to end a national championship campaign at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena.

2011 CAPITAL ONE BOWL

(15) Alabama 49, (7) Michigan State 7

ORLANDO, Fla. (Jan. 1, 2011) – Mark Ingram ran for two scores to break the school record for career touchdowns, and the 15th-ranked Alabama Crimson Tide rolled past No. 7 Michigan State 49-7 in the most lopsided Capital One Bowl in the game's history.

The 2009 Heisman Trophy winner had 59 yards rushing on 12 carries and a 30-yard reception against the team he rooted for as a kid. Greg McElroy threw for 220 yards and one touchdown, and the game got so out of hand that the Crimson Tide (10-3) pulled most of their starters early in the third quarter. Ingram also moved past Shaun Alexander's mark (41) with 42 career touchdowns.

The margin of victory topped East Texas State's 33-0 victory over Tennessee Tech in the 1953 game, then known as the Tangerine Bowl. The bowl dates back to 1947.

The Crimson Tide found the end zone on their first five possessions, held the Spartans (11-2) to 171 total yards and sacked Kirk Cousins four times in their most dominant performance all season. Cousins had 120 yards passing, threw one interception and was under pressure all game. Edwin Baker was held to 14 yards rushing for a Spartans team that felt snubbed by the BCS after sharing the Big Ten title. Instead, they were bullied and bruised by a team that knows the big stage well.

Alabama (10-3) took the opening kickoff 79 yards on 13 plays and Ingram scored on a 1-yard run to the right side. The Tide never looked back.

Ingram, the 2009 Heisman Trophy winner, had 59 yards on 12 carries. He sat most of the second half.

Michigan State (11-2) took its opening drive and looked to have something going, but quarterback Kirk Cousins was intercepted by Alabama's Robert Lester. A short time later, Richardson scored on an 8-yard run to help the Tide grab a 14-0 lead.

The Spartans again looked to have something going in the second quarter, driving to Alabama's 7-yard line, but linebacker Courtney Upshaw hit Cousins from the blindside, forcing a fumble that stalled another Michigan State drive. Upshaw finished with five total tackles, two sacks, and three tackles for loss. He was voted the game's most valuable player.

On the following drive, Alabama drove 80 yards on seven plays and scored when Ingram burst through on the left side for a 6-yard touchdown to put the Tide up by three scores. The touchdown was Ingram's 42nd career rushing touchdown, making him the school's all-time leader, passing Shaun Alexander.

McElroy, playing his final game for Alabama, was nearly flawless. The fifth-year senior was 13-of-17 for 220 yards and even made a block that sprung Julio Jones on a 35-yard reverse for a touchdown. McElroy was replaced by backup A.J. McCarron at the 9:05 mark in the third quarter.

The Spartans, which had the third-best rushing attack in the Big Ten, managed only 48 yards on the ground. It was the second fewest yards allowed on the ground by an Alabama team since 1962. Edwin Baker, the Big Ten's third-leading rusher, was held to 14 yards on 12 carries. Alabama outgained Michigan State 546-171 in total yards. Alabama rushed for 275 yards on 44 attempts, a 6.2 average.

Cousins was under pressure most of the day. The junior was sacked four times and the last one, by Alabama linebacker Alex Watkins, forced him to the sidelines. He was replaced by redshirt freshman Andrew Maxwell, who didn't fare much better. Maxwell was sacked twice and was replaced by Keith Nichol in the fourth quarter. Nichol connected with wideout Bennie Fowler for a 49-yard touchdown pass with 5:45 left to avoid the shut-out.

(2) Alabama 21, (1) LSU 0

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 9, 2012) – A staunch defensive effort, combined with a record-setting night from kicker Jeremy Shelley, propelled the University of Alabama football team to its 14th national championship with a 21-0 victory over LSU in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

The Crimson Tide's defense held LSU to just 92 total yards and five first downs as Defensive Player of the Game Courtney Upshaw and Jerrell Harris each had seven tackles. As a unit, the defense had 11 tackles for loss, four sacks and an interception.

"I think it's a great team win," UA head coach Nick Saban said. "Our offense controlled the tempo of this game. We did a great job on special teams. It was just a great team win for every guy here, every fan that we have, every supporter of this program. This is great for Alabama."

Fifteen of UA's 21 points came from the leg of kicker Jeremy Shelley, who converted on a bowl-record five field goals from 23, 34, 41, 35 and a career-long 44 yards. The defense provided the offense with excellent field position all evening and quarterback AJ McCarron did a masterful job under center completing 23-of-34 passes for 234 yards to earn Offensive Player of the Game honors.

"We knew that he [McCarron] was going to have to play well because we knew that we were going to throw the ball," Saban said of his quarterback. "He showed great leadership and poise in making good decisions."

Thanks to Shelley, the Tide carried a 15-0 lead into the final quarter when LSU mounted its first legitimate charge after being held to just 55 yards in the previous three quarters. Upon crossing midfield for the first time all game, the drive stalled and left the Tigers facing 4th and 18 to gain on the UA 40. The Tide defense came through again as Dont'a Hightower sacked LSU's Jordan Jefferson and knocked the ball loose at the 50-yard line. Nick Gentry fell on the fumble to end the drive and set the UA offense up at midfield with 6:15 left in the contest.

Four plays later, Trent Richardson raced 34 yards for the first touchdown of the game and the Heisman Trophy semifinalist finished with 96 yards on 20 carries and 107 all-purpose yards.

Alabama put up the first points of the game when Shelley capped off a five-play, 20-yard drive with a 23-yard field goal with five minutes left in the first quarter. Shelley would come up big for the Tide on two more occasions in the first half, connecting from 34 and 41 yards to give Alabama a 9-0 lead at the break.

Alabama held LSU to one first down throughout the first half, while collecting 13 of its own. The Tide also collected 156 total yards compared to the Tigers' 26 total yards in the first 30 minutes.

2013 BCS CHAMPIONSHIP

(2) Alabama 42, (1) Notre Dame 14

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. (Jan. 7, 2013) – The Alabama Crimson Tide established its dominance early on the way to a dominant performance as the Tide earned the programs 15th national championship in football with a 42-14 victory over Notre Dame in the 2013 Discover BCS National Championship Game.

Playing before a Sun Life Stadium record crowd of 80,120 the Tide raced to touchdowns on their first three offensive possessions and built a lead that eventually reached 35-0 in the third quarter. The title, Alabama's third in the past four seasons, concluded a 13-1 season for the Tide while Notre Dame fell to 12-1 with the loss. Tide quarterback AJ McCarron passed for four touchdowns and 264 yards while completing 20 of 28 attempts without throwing an interception.

Running back Eddie Lacy rushed for 140 yards and a touchdown while averaging seven yards per carry, wide receiver Amari Cooper caught six passes for 105 yards and two scores, and running back T.J. Yeldon rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown as the Tide offense flourished behind an outstanding performance by its offensive line. Alabama gained 529 total yards while exhibiting incredible balance, rushing for 265 yards and passing for 264.

"I couldn't be prouder of our players, our coaches and our entire organization tonight," said Alabama head coach Nick Saban. "I really feel that we played a complete game tonight. We came out and had great tempo on offense and dominated the line of scrimmage and I think that set the tone."

The Crimson Tide romped to its second consecutive BCS championship, cruising to the second-most lopsided BCS championship game victory to date. Alabama (13-1) became the third team to win three national titles in four seasons since polls started being used to crown champions in 1936, and the first since Nebraska from 1994-97.

The Fighting Irish (12-1) didn't score until they were down 35-0 late in the third quarter. In a matchup of tradition-rich programs tied for the most AP national championships with eight, Notre Dame was looking for its first national championship in 24 years. The Crimson Tide got its ninth.

The Crimson Tide marched with ease on the opening drive, going 82 yards on five plays to take a 7-0 lead on Lacy's 20-yard touchdown run up the middle with 12:03 left in the first quarter. Notre Dame (12-0) had allowed only two rushing touchdowns in its surprising run to the championship game. On the next Alabama possession, Lacy and the Crimson Tide went right back to work, hammering away at Notre Dame's vaunted defense.

Lacy set up Alabama's second touchdown with another 20-yard run, this time to the Irish 2. Instead of running into a Notre Dame goal-line defense that has become known for goal-line stands, McCarron faked a handoff and found tight end Michael Williams all alone for the score and a 14-0 lead. Alabama made it 3 for 3 on the next drive when Yeldon scored from a yard out on the first play of the second quarter.

Lacy landed one more blow with 31 seconds left in the half. McCarron dumped off to Lacy, who spun off two tacklers, and went 11 yards to make it 28-0.

The Fighting Irish started the third quarter with a promising drive that ended with another Alabama highlight.

HaHa Clinton-Dix made a sensational diving interception, grabbing a tipped pass and tapping his toe inches from the sideline. Alabama turned the game's first turnover into another long scoring drive. McCarron capped this one with a 34-yard touchdown pass to freshman Amari Cooper, the longest scoring pass the Irish had given up in 2012.

With the score 35-0, Notre Dame finally got on the board with 4:08 left in the third. Everett Golson took an option keeper 2 yards for a touchdown to break a streak of 108 minutes, 7 seconds in which Alabama had not allowed a point in a BCS championship game, dating to the last 6 minutes of the fourth quarter of the 2009 title game against Texas at the Rose Bowl. Alabama had scored 69 straight points in that span.

Alabama had 529 yards. The Irish defense came in allowing 286 per game. McCarron earned Offensive Most Valuable Player honors while linebacker C.J. Mosley earned Defensive MVP honors by virtue of his team-best 8 tackles.

(10) Oklahoma 45, (3) Alabama 31

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 2, 2014) – The 10th-ranked Oklahoma Sooners (11-2) used a surprising quick-tempo offensive attack keyed by pinpoint passing from quarterback Trevor Knight to upset third-ranked Alabama (11-2), 45-31, in the 2014 Allstate Sugar Bowl.

Four Alabama turnovers led directly to 28 Oklahoma points that proved to be too much to overcome for the Crimson Tide before a crowd of 70,473 at Mercedes-Benz Superdome (capacity: 72,003). The Tide churned out 516 yards of offense, but could not erase a 14-point halftime deficit largely due to the turnovers that the Sooners converted into points, as one turnover resulted in a touchdown and two others were converted into touchdowns on the ensuing play after the miscues.

Additionally, Alabama suffered five total turnovers in the game and had two offensive possessions into the Oklahoma red zone end without points, one on a turnover and another on a missed field goal. The Tide failed to capitalize on a dominant third quarter performance before the Sooners clinched the outcome in the final period.

Tide quarterback AJ McCarron set the Alabama single-season passing yards record during the game as he completed 19 of 30 passes for a career-high 387 yards and two touchdowns with two interceptions, connecting nine times for 121 yards to wide receiver Amari Cooper and three times for 139 yards to DeAndrew White. That marked the fifth time in Alabama history that two receivers eclipsed the century mark in yardage and the first time it happened in a bowl game.

Freshman running back Derrick Henry rushed for 100 yards and a touchdown on eight carries, and had one catch for 61 yards and a score. For the defense, Tide cornerback Eddie Jackson led the team with 10 tackles while safety Landon Collins had nine stops and an interception. Linebacker Trey DePriest had seven tackles, safety Ha Ha Clinton-Dix had six tackles and linebacker C.J. Mosley closed his outstanding collegiate career with six stops.

Despite outgaining the Sooners in total offense, 516 to 429, the Tide lost largely due to failures in the red zone and turnovers. Oklahoma's fast-paced offense had the Tide defense off balance in the first half and during key points of the game overall. The Sooners managed 348 passing yards against the Tide as Sooners' quarterback Trevor Knight completed 32 of 44 attempts for four touchdowns with one interception. Knight earned Most Outstanding Player honors for his performance.

The decisive portion of the game came in the second quarter with the score knotted at 17-17. After a touchback on the kickoff, Alabama started at its 25 and constructed a 67-yard drive in 11 plays that consumed 6:19 of clock but ended in futility and frustration.

Alabama marched to a first down at the Sooner 20. A pass to Cooper yielded seven yards to the OU 13 on first down, and then Yeldon gained two more to set up third-and-one. On the next play, Yeldon gained four yards and a first down at the OU seven-yard line, but he fumbled when hit by OU's Joe Palange and the OU defensive end Geneo Grissom scooped up the ball and returned it 26 yards to the OU 34 with 5:26 left in the half. Five rapid-fire plays by the OU offense moved the Sooners to a fourth-and-one at the Alabama 45 where Clay's two-yard run converted the first down. After a two-yard run by Clay on first down to the Tide 43, the Sooners called timeout. On the next play, Knight launched a perfectly thrown touchdown bomb to Jalen Saunders who had beaten Alabama's Deion Belue on the play for a 43-yard touchdown pass. Hunnicutt's kick gave the Sooners a 24-17 lead with 2:59 left in the second quarter. It was a lead the Sooners would never relinquish.

Alabama responded with a march to the OU 48, but McCarron's second-down pass was intercepted by OU cornerback Zack Sanchez, who returned the pick-off 41 yards to the Tide 13 with 1:12 left in the second quarter. On the first play after the turnover, OU receiver Sterling Shepard took a pitchout on a reverse and raced 13 yards for a touchdown. Hunnicutt's conversion kick was good and the Sooners had a 31-17 lead over the Crimson Tide with 1:05 left in the half. Alabama drove within field goal range as the half was drawing to a close, but Foster's 32-yard field goal attempt was wide right as the first half clock expired.

Alabama twice drew within a touchdown in the second half, but could not contain the Sooner offense at key points in the late going.

2015 CFP SEMIFINAL at SUGAR BOWL

(4) Ohio State 42, (1) Alabama 35

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 2015) – Ohio State quarterback Cardale Jones, making only his second collegiate start, accounted for 290 total yards (243 passing and 47 rushing and Buckeyes running back Ezekiel Elliott ran for an Allstate Sugar Bowl-record 230 yards to lead Ohio State to a 42-35 upset of top-ranked Alabama in the second semifinal of the 2014 College Football Playoff. The No. 4 Buckeyes (13-1) kicked off at the Superdome right after No. 2 Oregon finished its 59-20 rout of reigning national champion Florida State in the Rose Bowl Presented by Northwestern Mutual.

The victory gave Ohio State a spot opposite Oregon in the first College Football Playoff National Championship Presented by AT&T in Arlington, Texas, played eight days later on January 12. Alabaman, meanwhile, was denied a shot at the Crimson Tide's fourth national title in six years while suffering a loss in the Sugar Bowl for the second consecutive year.

Jones threw a 47-yard touchdown to Devin Smith that put the Buckeyes ahead for good early in the third quarter. He also converted a crucial third-down play with a spinning, one-yard dive when Ohio State was clinging to a 34-28 lead. On the next play, Elliott took a handoff, broke one attempt at a tackle, and was gone for an 85-yard touchdown that essentially clinched the victory with 3:24 remaining. The Ohio State victory snapped a 0-for-10 streak of futility against Southeastern Conference opponents in bowl games, its only victory vacated by an NCAA ruling.

Alabama, which finished its season 12-2, didn't go down quietly as the Crimson Tide became the first team in history to win at least 11 games in four consecutive seasons. Quarterback Blake Sims threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Amari Cooper with 1:59 remaining. The Buckeyes recovered the onside kick, but Alabama got it back one more time. The Tide's final chance ended when a desperation heave into the end zone was picked off by Tyvis Powell as time ran out, Sims' third interception of the game.

Alabama's third consecutive Sugar Bowl loss, dating back to a defeat against Utah following the 2008 season, was especially painful, costing the Tide a chance to advance in college football's first playoff. "I'm proud of this team," Saban said. "They excelled all year long and kept Alabama at the forefront of college football."

But Saban never liked the feel of the game, even after Alabama raced to an early 21-6 lead by taking advantage of a pair of turnovers and coming up with two red zone stops. "We really weren't stopping them. We had the momentum of the game because of the turnovers," Saban said. "We did not control the football game like we usually do."

After throwing an interception, Jones led one of the biggest drives of the game at the end of the first half, completing three straight passes for 37 yards, then broke off a 27-yard run up the middle when his receivers were covered. After a timeout with 19 seconds remaining, Ohio State pulled out a trick play with wide receiver Michael Thomas making a spectacular catch. Jones handed off to receiver Jalin Marshall on an apparent end-around, Marshall flipped it to Evan Spencer coming the other way, and Spencer suddenly pulled up and threw toward Thomas. Thomas leaped up to make a twisting catch and somehow got his left foot down just inside the line for a 13-yard score that gave the Buckeyes all the momentum going into halftime.

Ohio State built on that momentum at the beginning of the third quarter, scoring two more touchdowns to complete a stunning 28-0 spurt that pushed the Buckeyes ahead 34-21.

For the Tide, Sims ended the night with 237 passing yards and three touchdowns while accounting for 266 total yards and four touchdowns overall. Derrick Henry rushed for 95 yards and a touchdown while receiver Amari Cooper closed his career with a game-high nine catches for 77 yards and two touchdowns.

2016 CFP SEMIFINAL at COTTON BOWL

(2) Alabama 38, (3) Michigan State 0

ARLINGTON, Texas (Dec. 31, 2015) – The Crimson Tide (13-1 overall), ranked No. 2 in the College Football Playoff (CFP) rankings, produced a dominant performance for a 38-0 victory over the No. 3 Michigan State Spartans (12-2) in the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic in front of a crowd of 82,812 at AT&T Stadium (capacity: 71,815). With the victory, Alabama advances to the CFP National Championship Game against the No. 1 Clemson Tigers at University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Arizona.

The Alabama defense produced an excellent performance against a quality opponent, shutting down the Spartans' offense for much of the game, holding the Spartans to only 29 rushing yards and 239 total yards. Meanwhile, Tide cornerback Cyrus Jones produced game-changing plays with an interception to stop an MSU scoring threat and a punt return for a touchdown that sealed the verdict. The Tide defense registered four quarterback sacks, posted six tackles for loss, and intercepted two passes.

Linebacker Reggie Ragland led Alabama with seven tackles while linebacker Dillon Lee had six stops and intercepted a pass. Linebacker Ryan Anderson had four tackles, including a sack and two tackles for losses. Linebacker Reuben Foster and safety Geno Matias-Smith also had four tackles in the game. Alabama limited MSU's outstanding quarterback, Connor Cook, to 186 passing yards on 17 completions in 33 attempts with an interception and no touchdowns.

Alabama's offense produced 440 total yards (286 passing, 154 rushing) led by senior quarterback Jake Coker's career-best 286 passing yards and two touchdowns. Coker was deadly accurate, completing 25 of 30 pass attempts. Freshman wide receiver Calvin Ridley had 138 receiving yards on 8 catches for 2 touchdowns, setting a new Alabama freshman record for single-season receiving yards in the process (1,031 yards). Heisman Trophy winning running back Derrick Henry rushed for 75 yards and 2 touchdowns on 20 carries, becoming only the 25th running back in NCAA history (encompassing all divisions) to rush for 2,000 yards in a season. He enters the CFP title game with 2,061 rushing yards in 2015.

After a scoreless first quarter, the teams continued in a standoff well into the second quarter until the Tide moved 80 yards in six plays to a touchdown to break on top, 7-0, on a 1-yard run by Henry with 5:36 left in the first half. Clutch plays in the passing game keyed the drive that was highlighted by a 50-yard pass from Coker to Ridley that reached the MSU 1-yard line. Henry's touchdown run was his 24th, breaking the Southeastern Conference record for rushing TDs in a season (previously held by Auburn's Tre Mason in 2013 and Florida's Tim Tebow in 2006). Placekicker Adam Griffith connected on a 47-yard field goal to give the Tide a 10-0 lead with 1:25 left in the half. Tide cornerback Cyrus Jones made a huge play at the end of the first half. The Spartans had marched to the Tide 12 in the final minute of the half before Jones leaped high to intercept a Connor Cook pass at the Tide 2-yard line in the waning seconds of the half, ending a scoring threat and protecting the Tide's 10-0 lead heading into halftime.

Alabama extended the lead to 17-0 on the opening drive of the second half, moving 75 yards in nine plays to pay dirt on a six-yard pass to Ridley along the sideline in the end zone. Later in the third period, Jones returned an MSU punt 57 yards for a touchdown to give the Tide a 24-0 lead with 3:24 left in the third period. Just 1:04 later, Coker and Ridley connected on a 50-yard touchdown bomb to move the Tide to a 31-0 lead with 2:20 left in the third period. Henry closed the scoring with an 11-yard run with 7:52 left in the game.

"I think last year when we came to this game, we were just happy to take part in the game," said Saban, who improved to 9-0 against his former assistants, with all nine wins coming by double digits. "I think this year we wanted to sort of take the game and really thought our guys had a vision of what they wanted and everybody paid the price for what they had to do in preparation."

2016 CFP NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

(2) Alabama 45, (1) Clemson 40

GLENDAL, Ariz. (Jan. 11, 2016) – In a scintillating matchup of contrasting styles, the Alabama Crimson Tide (14-1) showed incredible resourcefulness and resilience to earn its 16th football national championship in the Arizona desert. The national title was the Tide's fourth in seven seasons (since 2009) for the Crimson Tide, and gave Tide head coach Nick Saban five national crowns in his career, including four with the Tide.

Tight end O.J. Howard caught five passes for a career-high 208 yards, quarterback Jake Coker passed for a career-best 335 yards, running back Derrick Henry rushed for 158 yards and Kenyan Drake returned a kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown to lift the Tide to a 45-40 victory over the top-ranked Clemson Tigers (14-1) before a crowd of 75,756 (capacity: 71,000) in the College Football Playoff Championship Game at the University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz.

Howard's receiving yardage set an Alabama record for a tight end and was the fifth-most by any Tide player, regardless of position. Meanwhile, Henry broke season and career school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns during the game.

A 50-yard run by Henry opened the scoring to put the Crimson Tide up early, 7-0, with 7:55 left in the first period. Clemson responded on the next possession on a 31-yard touchdown pass from Deshaun Watson to wide receiver Hunter Renfrow, evening the score at 7-7 with 5:18 left in the first quarter.

After a missed field goal by Alabama ended a scoring threat, Clemson moved 73 yards in seven plays to another Watson-to-Renfrow touchdown pass, this one from 11 yards for a 14-7 lead on the final play of the first period. Moments later, Tide safety Eddie Jackson intercepted a Watson pass to set up the tying touchdown as Alabama moved 42 yards to a 1-yard dive by Henry to tie the score at 14-14. The Tide held off another Clemson scoring threat in the final minute of the half. A 27-yard pass from Watson to wide receiver Charone Peake reached the Tide 39. Two plays later, Greg Huegel's 44-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Alabama's D.J. Pettway and fell short.

After forcing a punt on Clemson's opening possession of the second half, Alabama raced 64 yards in three plays to take a 21-14 lead on a 53-yard pass from Coker to tight end O.J. Howard with 12:53 left in the third period. Clemson came right back with a 55-yard drive to a 37-yard field goal by Huegel with 10:10 left in the third quarter, narrowing the Tide lead to 21-17. Clemson moved ahead on its next possession on a 1-yard run by Wayne Gallman, capping a 60-yard drive to give the Tigers a 24-21 lead with 4:48 left in the third period.

Alabama evened the score at 24-24 on a 33-yard field goal by Griffith with 10:34 left. On the ensuing kickoff, Griffith booted an onside kick that bounced high and into the hands of the Tide's leaping Marlon Humphrey to give Alabama the ball at the 50. One play later, Coker found Howard wide open again for a 51-yard touchdown pass to give the Tide a 31-24 lead with 9:45 left in the fourth period. Clemson stormed right back, driving 61 yards to a 31-yard field goal by Huegel with 7:47 on the clock. Kenyan Drake returned the kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown to extend the Tide lead to 38-27 with 7:31 on the clock.

The Tigers stormed back on a 75-yard touchdown drive capped by a 15-yard pass from Watson to Artavis Scott with 4:40 on the clock. A two-point conversion try on a run by Watson was stopped and Alabama held a 38-33 lead. Two plays later, on a second-and-12 play, Coker found Howard in the left flat and Howard raced past defenders for 63 yards to the Clemson 14. Six plays later, Henry sealed the victory with a 1-yard dive to give the Tide a 45-33 lead with 1:07 left in the fourth period. A pass by Watson to Leggett with 12 seconds left for a Clemson touchdown provided the final 45-40 margin.

2017 CFP SEMIFINAL AT PEACH BOWL

(1) Alabama 24, (4) Washington 7

ATLANTA (Dec. 31, 2016) – Led by a Crimson Tide bowl-record 180 yards on the ground from running back Bo Scarbrough and an opportunistic and often stifling defense, the No. 1-ranked University of Alabama football team won the College Football Playoff Semifinal at the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, 24-7, over No. 4 Washington in front of a record crowd of 75,996 at the Georgia Dome.

Scarbrough, the Peach Bowl Offensive Most Valuable Player, opened and closed the Tide's scoring. He bulled his way 18 yards into the end zone in the first quarter to tie things up with Washington and then powered 68 yards early in the fourth quarter to make it 24-7. In between he added nearly 100 yards rushing. Senior linebacker Ryan Anderson, the Peach Bowl Defensive MVP, scored Alabama's 11th defensive touchdown of the season in the waning moments of the first half, intercepting a pass and returning it 26 yards for a score.

Defensively, Alabama tallied five sacks of Washington quarterback Jake Browning for losses totaling 38 yards, nabbed two interceptions returned for 54 yards and one touchdown and had seven tackles for losses totaling 48 yards. Junior cornerback Anthony Averett led the Tide with six solo tackles, including a 13-yard sack and a forced fumble. Senior linebacker Reuben Foster had nine total tackles with a team-best six assists.

Alabama won the toss and deferred its option to the second half. Washington chose to receive the opening kickoff. The two teams traded three-and-outs to start the game before the Huskies took over on their own 36-yard line for their second possession of the game. Washington marched 64 yards in eight plays to a touchdown, scoring on a 16-yard pass from Browning to wide receiver Dante Pettis. Place kicker Cameron Van Winkle tacked on the point-after, putting Washington ahead, 7-0, with 7:56 left in the first quarter.

Alabama answered Washington with a touchdown drive of its own on the next possession. After starting with a two-yard run by running back Damien Harris, quarterback Jalen Hurts threw a sideline pass to tight end O.J. Howard for a first-down pickup of 16 yards. Harris then rushed twice for a total of 11 yards and another first down. Hurts then picked up another first down with an 11-yard rush followed by a 12-yard, first-down rush by Scarbrough that put the ball on the Washington 26. Hurts ran for five more yards before Scarbrough closed out the possession with a run of three yards, followed by a punishing 18-yard rush, bulging his way into the end zone. Place kicker Adam Griffith's point-after attempt was good and Alabama knotted the score at 7-7.

Washington was driving the ball on its next possession, picking up 33 yards and two first downs before Alabama's Averett stripped the ball from receiver John Ross following a seven-yard completion, forcing a fumble that defensive end Jonathan Allen recovered at the 50. Following the turnover, Alabama drove to the Washington 23-yard line as the first quarter expired. Coming out of the quarter break, Griffith came on for a 41-yard field goal attempt, driving the ball through the uprights to put Alabama ahead, 10-7 with 14:55 left in the first half.

Late in the second quarter, Anderson picked off a Browning pass, returning the interception 26 yards for a touchdown. Griffith connected on the point-after attempt and Alabama extended its lead to 17-7 with just over a minute left in the second quarter. The pick-six was the Alabama defense's 11th touchdown (by eight different players) of 2016.

The Tide's final score of the game came early in the fourth period off another rushing touchdown from Scarbrough. Starting at it two-yard line, Alabama gained one yard on its first two plays before Scarbrough burst through for 12 yards and a first down. A Hurts to Howard toss picked up 16 more followed by a one-yard rush by Hurts. Scarbrough, touching the ball for the second time in the drive, powered his way 68 yards to the end zone and another score, breaking two tackles on the weaving run. Griffith's PAT was good and Alabama pushed its lead to 24-7 with 11:56 remaining.

2017 CFP NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

(2) Clemson 35, (1) Alabama 31

TAMPA, Fla. (Jan. 9, 2017) – In a national championship game that saw-sawed back-and-forth throughout the second half, The University of Alabama football team came up just short in the final seconds against Clemson, falling to the Tigers, 35-31, in the 2017 College Football Playoff National Championship Game. The two teams played in front of a Raymond James Stadium-record 74,512 fans.

The Crimson Tide, playing in its second consecutive national championship game and third College Football Playoff in as many years, battled to the last second in a contest where the lead changed hands three times in the last four minutes and 38 seconds of the game.

Alabama freshman quarterback Jalen Hurts was 13-of-31 for 131 yards and a touchdown throwing the ball. He also added 63 rushing yards, including a 30-yard rushing touchdown with 2:07 left in the game. Sophomore running back Bo Scarbrough rushed for 93 yards and two touchdowns on 16 carries before leaving the game midway through the third period with an injury. Senior tight end O.J. Howard led all receivers with 106 yards and a touchdown on four receptions.

In the first quarter, Alabama marched down the field on a series of runs to score the first points of the game on a Scarbrough 25-yard touchdown run. Place kicker Adam Griffith kicked the extra point to put the score 7-0 in Alabama's favor.

Later in the second quarter, Bama struck again, this time Scarbrough picked up key blocks downfield, running through a great clearing block by tackle Cam Robinson, racing 37 yards into the end zone. Griffith's extra point was true to give Alabama a 14-0 lead with 10:42 left in the half.

Clemson answered with a touchdown of its own, when Watson then bounced to the outside and raced to the pylon, getting the score on an eight-yard run and putting the Tigers on the board. Greg Huegel made the extra point to cut Alabama's lead to 14-7 with 6:09 left, which would be the final score of the half.

Clemson opened the second half with the ball and picked up a quick first down on a three-yard run by Gallman followed by an eight-yard Watson to Renfrow pass. An incomplete pass was followed by Alabama's Ryan Anderson stripping Watson of the ball, forcing and recovering the fumble, before returning it 12 yards to the Clemson 16.

After the turnover, Griffith converted a 27-yard field goal attempt, extending Alabama's lead to 17-7 with 12:25 left in the third quarter.

The Tigers responded by scoring in four plays, traveling 42 yards, closing with a 24-yard Watson to Renfrow touchdown pass with 7:10 left in the third quarter to cut the Alabama lead to 17-14. Later in the third, Hurts found a wide-open Howard for a 68-yard touchdown pass in an echo of last year's championship game. Griffith made the extra point and Alabama's lead went to 24-14.

Watson opened the fourth quarter with a four-yard rush before finding Williams for a four-yard touchdown pass. Huegel made the point after attempt, to pull Clemson with three, with Alabama leading 24-21.

Minutes later, after the teams traded three-and-outs, Watson mixed three complete passes for 52 yards with 20 yards rushing before handing the ball off to Gallman, who plunged in from one-yard out for a touchdown and a 28-24 Clemson lead following Huegel's extra point.

Alabama responded quickly, with Hurts racing up the middle for 30 yards and a touchdown. Following Griffith's extra point, Alabama was back on top, 31-28, with 2:01 on clock.

Clemson opened the next drive with three-straight completions that gained a combined 25 yards to the Alabama 43. Watson then threw to Renfrow for a six-yard pickup and Leggett for a 17-yard completion to the Alabama nine-yard line. A pass interference penalty on the Tide put Clemson first-and-goal on the two-yard line with nine seconds on the clock. Watson then hit Renfrow for a two-yard touchdown pass with one second remaining. Huegel's point after attempt was good and Clemson led, 35-31.

2018 CFP SEMIFINAL AT SUGAR BOWL

(4) Alabama 24, (1) Clemson 6

NEW ORLEANS (Jan. 1, 2018) – The No. 4-ranked University of Alabama football team defeated No. 1-ranked Clemson, 24-6, in the 84th Allstate Sugar Bowl at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans.

The Crimson Tide (12-1) scored 14 points off two turnovers by the Tigers (12-2) in the third quarter to put the game out of reach.

On the defensive side of the ball, Alabama dominated with five sacks, allowing Clemson just 188 total yards of offense, while holding the Tigers to their lowest point total since the 2014 season.

Sophomore linebacker Mack Wilson grabbed his first career pick-six to go along with six tackles and a pass breakup, while junior defensive lineman Da’Ron Payne got his first-career interception and caught a one-yard touchdown pass, also a first in his time at UA. Senior linebacker Rashaan Evans led the team with nine tackles including one sack and a pass breakup.

On offense, sophomore quarterback Jalen Hurts finished 16-of-24 with 120 yards and a pair of touchdowns through the air while picking up 40 rushing yards on 11 carries in the win. Junior running back Damien Harris led the Tide on the ground with 77 yards on 19 attempts.

The Alabama defense forced the potent Clemson offense into a three-and-out on the opening drive of the game. The Tigers responded in kind, as the Tide was forced to punt after its first three plays from scrimmage. Clemson took over at its own 16-yard line before being forced to punt again after another three-and-out.

The UA offense started its second drive from its own 47-yard line. Alabama used a heavy dose of the run game, with three different players carrying the ball for 40 yards on seven carries, before senior placekicker Andy Pappanastos converted a 24-yard field goal attempt to get the Tide on the board. The field goal capped a 10-play 47-yard drive, giving Alabama a 3-0 lead with 5:23 left in the opening quarter.

On the following Clemson drive, the Alabama defense came up with yet another three-and-out. After sophomore defensive back Trevon Diggs returned the punt 14 yards, the UA offense took over at the Tiger 46-yard line.

Alabama took full advantage of the favorable field position, scoring the game’s first touchdown when Hurts found junior wide receiver Calvin Ridley for a 12-yard pitch-and-catch to cap an eight-play, 46-yard scoring drive. Following the Pappanastos point after, the Tide led 10-0 with 12 seconds remaining in the first quarter.

The touchdown grab moved Ridley into a tie with Dennis Homan (1965-67) for second place on Alabama’s career touchdown receptions list with 18 career scores.

At the end of the first quarter, Clemson had a total of -7 yards of offense, while UA had amassed 102 yards.

The Tigers answered to begin the second quarter, going 54 yards on 13 plays and ending with a 44-yard field goal to cut the Tide lead to 10-3 with 10 minutes remaining in the first half.

The two sides traded punts before Alabama took over at its own 41-yard line, where UA put together a drive down to the Clemson 20-yard line where Pappanastos’ field-goal attempt hit off the left upright and bounced out to keep the score at 10-3 heading into the half.

After an Alabama fumble 12 seconds into the second half, Clemson capitalized with a 42-yard field goal to cut the UA lead to 10-6 with 12:45 left in the third quarter.

With Clemson gaining momentum to start the second half, the Tigers controlled the ball at the UA 35-yard line when sophomore linebacker Anfernee Jennings came with the pressure that forced Tiger’s quarterback Kelly Bryant to throw the ball directly to Payne who returned his first career interception 21 yards to the CU 42. A personal foul on Clemson during the return then advanced the ball to the Clemson 27-yard line.

Four plays into the drive, Harris converted a crucial fourth-and-one with a four-yard rush to the CU 14-yard line. Three plays later, Hurts found the aforementioned Payne who came into the game in the jumbo package, for a one-yard score to cap the seven-play, 27-yard drive. After the Pappanastos kick, the Tide led 17-6 with 5:40 left in the third quarter.

On the next play from scrimmage, Bryant dropped back to pass when the ball was tipped by senior defensive back Levi Wallace into Wilson’s hands who returned it 18 yards for the touchdown. The Tide scored 14 points in 13 seconds after Pappanastos converted the PAT to put UA up 24-6 with 5:27 remaining in the third quarter.

The two sides each punted multiple times in the fourth quarter with no change in the score. Alabama made a final stand with 1:43 left in the game, keeping the Tigers out of the end zone on fourth-and-goal from the UA five-yard line to seal the win.

(4) Alabama 26, (3) Georgia 23

ATLANTA (Jan. 8, 2018) – The No. 4-ranked University of Alabama football team defeated No. 3-ranked Georgia, 26-23, on a game-winning 41-yard touchdown pass from freshman Tua Tagovailoa to freshman wide receiver DeVonta Smith in the College Football Playoff National Championship Game at the Mercedes-Benz Stadium in Atlanta.

Tagovailoa was named Offensive MVP after going 14-of-24 for 166 yards, three scores through the air and 27 yards on the ground, all in the second half.

On defense, junior Da’Ron Payne was named the Defensive MVP with six tackles in the game. Sophomore linebacker Mack Wilson led the team with 12 tackles, including two tackles-for-loss. Senior defensive back Tony Brown and sophomore defensive lineman Raekwon Davis each had an interception in the win.

Georgia received the ball first in the overtime period, starting at the UA 25-yard line. The Alabama defense pushed Georgia back nine yards to the 34-yard line, where the Bulldogs netted a 51-yard field goal attempt to go up 23-20.

Lining up on the UGA 25-yard line in Alabama’s first overtime possession, Tagovailoa was sacked on the first play for a 16-yard loss to the 41-yard line. On the next play from scrimmage, Tagovailoa found Smith sprinting down the field for a 41-yard touchdown reception to give Alabama the 26-23 win in thrilling fashion.

While offense finished the game, the Tide’s defense got things started. Just three plays into Georgia’s opening drive, freshman quarterback Jake Fromm threw the ball deep down field where senior defensive back Tony Brown ripped the ball out of the intended receiver’s hands for the interception, setting up the Tide offense at its own 36-yard line.

Alabama drove the ball down to the UGA 17-yard line to attempt a 35-yard field goal, when a false-start penalty back the ball up to the UGA 22-yard line for a 40-yard try. Senior placekicker Andy Pappanastos pushed the kick wide to keep the game scoreless with 9:54 left in the opening quarter.

The two sides traded three-and-outs before Georgia took over at its own 26-yard line and drove 55 yards on 14 plays to set up a 41-yard field goal to put the Bulldogs up 3-0 with 14:14 left to go in the first half. The field goal marked only the third time this season that Alabama allowed its opponents to score the first points of the game.

After an Alabama three-and-out, the Bulldogs started at its own 20-yard line before putting together another lengthy drive, going 70 yards on 13 plays to set up a 27-yard field goal, extending the Bulldogs lead to 6-0 with 7:33 left in the half.

The Tide tried to get back on track on the following possession, when Hurts scrambled for 31 yards on the first play of the drive to the UGA 44-yard line. However, the drive stalled and Alabama punted for the third-straight time.

Both sides again traded punts before Georgia put together a scoring drive just before the half, amassing 69 yards on nine plays in just 1:12 to go up 13-0 following a one-yard touchdown run with just seven seconds left in the first half of play.

The Tide began the second half with freshman Tua Tagovailoa in at quarterback. Alabama and Georgia traded three-and-out possessions to open the half.

On the next Crimson Tide drive, UA faced a third-and-seven from its own 47-yard line when Tagovailoa escaped multiple UGA defenders in the backfield and scrambled for nine yards to keep the drive alive. The Tide capitalized with Tagovailoa completing four-straight passes, including a six-yard touchdown pass to freshman Henry Ruggs III, capping a seven-play 56-yard scoring drive. Pappanastos’ extra point made it 13-7 with 8:52 left in the third quarter.

Georgia quickly responded with an 80-yard touchdown pass to put the Bulldogs up 20-7 with 6:52 remaining in the third quarter.

The Bulldogs continued to gain momentum when Tagovailoa threw an interception to a leaping Georgia defender at the UA 39-yard line.

Alabama got the ball right back when on the next play from scrimmage, Fromm threw a pass that was tipped up into the air and into the hands of sophomore defensive lineman Raekwon Davis who galloped 19 yards to the UGA 40-yard line.

The Tide capitalized on the Georgia turnover, setting up a 43-yard Pappanastos field goal to cut the deficit to 20-10 with 5:15 remaining in the third quarter.

The Bulldogs punted twice, while the Tide came up empty on one drive before UA took over at its own 17-yard line. Freshman running back Najee Harris provided a spark off the bench with a 16-yard scamper to begin the drive, followed by a 35-yard run two plays later to put the Tide within striking distance at the UGA 14-yard line. Four plays later, Pappanastos split the uprights from 30 yards out to cap an eight-play, 71-yard drive and cut the Georgia lead to 20-13 with 9:24 left in the game.

Alabama then came up with a big stop on defense, stuffing Georgia on a third-and-two to force a three-and-out.

The Tide took over on its own 34-yard line with 7:10 remaining in the game. Tagovailoa drove the Tide down the field where the offense was faced with a fourth-and-four from the UGA seven-yard line. The true freshman scrambled around in the backfield before finding junior wide receiver Calvin Ridley in the end zone for the seven-yard touchdown. Pappanastos’ extra point tied the game at 20-20 with 3:56 left in the game.

After a Georgia three-and-out, Alabama took over on its own 35-yard line with 2:55 left in the game. A heavy dose of Harris and Tagovailoa brought the ball down to the UGA 17-yard line to set up Pappanastos for a potential game-winning 36-yard field goal with three seconds on the clock. Pappanastos missed the field goal to send the game into overtime.
